Information about this reprint

This standard is reprinted as at 4 January 2006.

This page is specific to this reprint. A table of reprints is included in the endnotes.

Also see endnotes for information about when provisions commenced.

Dates shown on reprints

Reprints dated at last amendment All reprints produced on or after 1 July 2002, hard copy and electronic, are dated as at the last date of amendment. Previously reprints were dated as at the date of publication. If a hard copy reprint is dated earlier than an electronic version published before 1 July 2002, it means the legislation was not further amended and the reprint date is the commencement of the last amendment.

If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown for an electronic version previously published, it merely means that the electronic version was published before the hard copy version. Also, any revised edition of the previously published electronic version will have the same date as that version.

Replacement reprint date If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown on another hard copy reprint it means that one is the replacement of the other.

3 Definition

In this standard—

5 Operational safety of relevant bus

- (1) An operator of a relevant bus must take reasonable steps to ensure the bus is used only to carry seated passengers.

¹ Transport Operations (Passenger Transport) Standard 2000, sections 12 (Operational safety of vehicles) and 21 (Ensuring operational safety of vehicles)

*Transport Operations (Passenger Transport) Interim
Standard (No. 2) 2005*

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if carrying a person as a standing passenger on the bus would reduce the person's exposure to risk, including, for example, because—
- (a) the person is a child or another vulnerable member of the community; or
 - (b) the person would otherwise be left alone on an isolated or dangerous stretch of road.

Examples of vulnerable members of the community—
