Domestic Building Contracts Act 2000

Domestic Building Contracts Regulation 2010

Current as at 1 July 2014

Reprint note

This is the last reprint before lapse. Lapsed on 1 July 2015 by 2014 Act No. 57 s 79.

Information about this reprint

This reprint shows the legislation current as at the date on the cover and is authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel.

A new reprint of the legislation will be prepared by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel when any change to the legislation takes effect. This change may be because a provision of the original legislation, or an amendment to it, commences or because a particular provision of the legislation expires or is repealed.

When a new reprint is prepared, this reprint will become a historical reprint. Also, if it is necessary to replace this reprint before a new reprint is prepared, for example, to include amendments with a retrospective commencement, an appropriate note would be included on the cover of the replacement reprint and on the copy of this reprint at www.legislation.qld.gov.au.

The endnotes to this reprint contain detailed information about the legislation and reprint. For example—

- The table of reprints endnote lists any previous reprints and, for this reprint, gives details of any discretionary editorial powers under the Reprints Act 1992 used by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel in preparing it.
- The list of legislation endnote gives historical information about the original legislation and the legislation which amended it. It also gives details of uncommenced amendments to this legislation. For information about possible amendments to the legislation by Bills introduced in Parliament, see the Queensland Legislation Current Annotations at www.legislation.qld.gov.au/Leg_Info/information.htm.
- The list of annotations endnote gives historical information at section level.

All Queensland reprints are dated and authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel. The previous numbering system and distinctions between printed and electronic reprints are not continued.

Domestic Building Contracts Regulation 2010

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 1 July 2014]

1 Short title

This regulation may be cited as the Domestic Building Contracts Regulation 2010.

2 Commencement

This regulation commences on 30 March 2010.

3 Prescribed matters—Act, s 27(2)(h)

For the Act, section 27(2)(h), the contract must not contain a provision that—

- (a) is contrary to the QBCC Act; or
- (b) purports to exclude, limit or otherwise change the effect of a provision of the QBCC Act.

Examples of prohibited provisions—

- 1 A provision that deems a direction under the QBCC Act, section 72 given to a construction manager or other building contractor to be a direction given to someone else.
- 2 A provision that requires a building owner to indemnify a construction manager or other building contractor against all liabilities and costs that may arise if a direction under the QBCC Act, section 72 is given to a construction manager or other building contractor.

4 Prescribed matters—Act, s 65(3)(b)

- (1) This section prescribes the way an agreement is to be made, and the requirements the agreement must satisfy, for the Act, section 65(3)(b).
- (2) Before the agreement is made the building contractor must give the consumer a notice—

[s 5]

- (a) pointing out that the Act generally prohibits a building contractor under a regulated contract from demanding or receiving an amount under the contract, other than a deposit, unless the amount is directly related to the progress of the subject work; and
 - (b) explaining why the contractor believes the prohibition should not apply in the circumstances; and
 - (c) identifying the clause or other part of the contract setting out the payment terms.
- (3) The building contractor must ensure the consumer initials the clause or other part of the contract setting out a payment, other than a deposit, to be made that is not directly related to progress of the work.
- (4) If there is more than 1 clause or part of the type mentioned in subsection (3), it is sufficient for the consumer to initial 1 of the clauses or parts.

5 Prescribed matters—Act, s 66(6)(b)

- (1) This section prescribes the way an agreement is to be made, and the requirements the agreement must satisfy, for the Act, section 66(6)(b).
- (2) Before the agreement is made the building contractor must give the consumer a notice—
- (a) pointing out that the Act generally prohibits a building contractor under a designated stages contract from demanding or receiving progress payments that are more than the amounts set out in the Act; and
 - (b) stating the content of the relevant table in the Act, section 66(3), (4) or (5); and
 - (c) explaining why the contractor believes the prohibition should not apply in the circumstances; and
 - (d) identifying the clause or other part of the contract setting out the progress payments payable.

- (3) The building contractor must ensure the consumer initials the clause or other part of the contract setting out the progress payments payable.
- (4) If there is more than 1 clause or part setting out the progress payments payable, it is sufficient for the consumer to initial 1 of the clauses or parts.

6 Prescribed fee—Act, s 100(1)

For the Act, section 100(1), the fee prescribed for supplying a copy of a contract information statement to a person and permitting the person to obtain a copy is $2.80.

7 Repeal

The Domestic Building Contracts Regulation 2000, No. 155 is repealed.

3 Table of reprints

A new reprint of the legislation is prepared by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel each time a change to the legislation takes effect.

The notes column for this reprint gives details of any discretionary editorial powers under the Reprints Act 1992 used by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel in preparing it. Section 5(c) and (d) of the Act are not mentioned as they contain mandatory requirements that all amendments be included and all necessary consequential amendments be incorporated, whether of punctuation, numbering or another kind. Further details of the use of any discretionary editorial power noted in the table can be obtained by contacting the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel by telephone on 3003 9601 or email legislation.queries@oqpc.qld.gov.au.

From 29 January 2013, all Queensland reprints are dated and authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel. The previous numbering system and distinctions between printed and electronic reprints is not continued with the relevant details for historical reprints included in this table.
