

Superannuation (State Public Sector) Act 1990

Superannuation (State Public Sector) Regulation 2022

Current as at 9 December 2022

Reprint note

This is the last reprint before repeal. Repealed on 1 July 2023 by 2023 SL No. 47 s 20.

© State of Queensland 2023

This work is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License.

Queensland

Superannuation (State Public Sector) Regulation 2022

Contents

		Page
1	Short title	3
2	Compulsory contributions by employers—Act, s 23	3
3	Compulsory contributions by employees—Act, s 23	3
4	Publication of compulsory contributions	4

Superannuation (State Public Sector) Regulation 2022

1 Short title

This regulation may be cited as the Superannuation (State Public Sector) Regulation 2022.

2 Compulsory contributions by employers—Act, s 23

For section 23(1) of the Act, the rate and frequency at which a unit of the State public sector must pay contributions is—

- (a) for a core government employee or an employee whose chosen fund is the scheme—the rate and frequency at which the employer was required to pay contributions under section 64(2) of the Act immediately before the commencement; or
- (b) for another employee—the rate and frequency at which the employer is required to pay contributions under the superannuation arrangements applying to the employee's employment with the unit.

3 Compulsory contributions by employees—Act, s 23

For section 23(2) of the Act, the rate and frequency at which a State public sector employee must pay contributions is—

- (a) if the employee is a core government employee or the employee's chosen fund is the scheme—the rate and frequency at which the employee was required to pay contributions under section 64(3) of the Act immediately before the commencement; or
- (b) otherwise—the rate and frequency (if any) at which the employee is required to pay contributions under the superannuation arrangements applying to the employee's employment with the unit.

4 Publication of compulsory contributions

(1) The chief executive must publish the rates and frequency for contributions prescribed under sections 2(a) and 3(a) on a Queensland government website.

(2) In this section—

Queensland government website means a website with a URL that includes ‘qld.gov.au’, other than the website of a local government.