2 Commencement

- (1) Section 260 commences on the date of assent.
- (2) The remaining provisions commence on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

3 Definitions

- (1) The dictionary in schedule 3 defines particular words used in this Act.

- (2) Key terms used in this Act are defined in part 3, division 1.

Part 2 Purpose, principles and administration of Act

Division 1 Purpose of Act and principles for its administration

4 Purpose of Act

The purpose of this Act is to provide for the protection of children.

5 Application of principles

- (1) This Act is to be administered under the principles stated in this division.
- (2) All other principles stated in this Act are subject to the principle stated in section 5A.

5A Paramount principle

The main principle for administering this Act is that the safety, wellbeing and best interests of a child, both through childhood and for the rest of the child's life, are paramount.

Example—

If the chief executive is making a decision under this Act about a child where there is a conflict between the child's safety, wellbeing and best interests (whether immediate or long-term in nature), and the interests of an adult caring for the child, the conflict must be resolved in favour of the child's safety, wellbeing and best interests.

5B Other general principles

The following are general principles for ensuring the safety, wellbeing and best interests of a child—

- (a) a child has a right to be protected from harm or risk of harm;
 - (b) a child's family has the primary responsibility for the child's upbringing, protection and development;
 - (c) the preferred way of ensuring a child's safety and wellbeing is through supporting the child's family;
 - (d) if a child does not have a parent who is able and willing to protect the child, the State is responsible for protecting the child;
 - (e) in protecting a child, the State should only take action that is warranted in the circumstances;
 - (f) if a child is removed from the child's family, support should be given to the child and the child's family for the purpose of allowing the child to return to the child's family if the return is in the child's best interests;
 - (g) if a child does not have a parent able and willing to give the child ongoing protection in the foreseeable future, the child should have long-term alternative care;
 - (h) if a child is removed from the child's family, consideration should be given to placing the child, as a first option, in the care of kin;
 - (i) if a child is removed from the child's family, the child should be placed with the child's siblings, to the extent that is possible;
 - (j) a child should only be placed in the care of a parent or other person who has the capacity and is willing to care for the child (including a parent or other person with capacity to care for the child with assistance or support);
 - (k) a child should be able to maintain relationships with the child's parents and kin, if it is appropriate for the child;
 - (l) a child should be able to know, explore and maintain the child's identity and values, including their cultural, ethnic and religious identity and values;

- (m) a delay in making a decision in relation to a child should be avoided, unless appropriate for the child.

5BA Principles for achieving permanency for a child

- (1) The principles stated in this section are relevant to making decisions about actions to be taken, or orders to be made, under this Act.
- (2) For ensuring the wellbeing and best interests of a child, the action or order that should be preferred, having regard to the principles mentioned in sections 5B and 5C, is the action or order that best ensures the child experiences or has—
 - (a) ongoing positive, trusting and nurturing relationships with persons of significance to the child, including the child’s parents, siblings, extended family members and carers; and
 - (b) stable living arrangements, with connections to the child’s community, that meet the child’s developmental, educational, emotional, health, intellectual and physical needs; and living arrangements that provide for a stable and continuous schooling environment

Example—

- (c) legal arrangements for the child’s care that provide the child with a sense of permanence and long-term stability, including, for example, a long-term guardianship order, a permanent care order or an adoption order for the child.

Note—

See sections 62 and 64 about the restrictions on the duration or extension of child protection orders granting custody or short-term guardianship.

- (3) For this Act, permanency, for a child, means the experience by the child of having the things mentioned in subsection (2)(a) to (c).

- (4) For deciding whether an action or order best achieves permanency for a child, the following principles also apply, in order of priority—
- (a) the first preference is for the child to be cared for by the child’s family;
 - (b) the second preference is for the child to be cared for under the guardianship of a person who is a member of the child’s family, other than a parent of the child, or another suitable person;
 - (c) the third preference is for the child to be cared for under the guardianship of the chief executive.

5C Additional principles for Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander children

- (1) The following additional principles apply for administering this Act in relation to Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander children—
- (a) Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people have the right to self-determination;
 - (b) the long-term effect of a decision on the child’s identity and connection with the child’s family and community must be taken into account.
- (2) The following principles (the child placement principles) also apply in relation to Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander children—
- (a) the principle (the prevention principle) that a child has the right to be brought up within the child’s own family and community;
 - (b) the principle (the partnership principle) that Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander persons have the right to participate in significant decisions under this Act about Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander children;

- (c) the principle (the placement principle) that, if a child is to be placed in care, the child has a right to be placed with a member of the child's family group;

Note—

See section 83 for provisions for placing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children in care.

- (d) the principle (the participation principle) that a child and the child's parents and family members have a right to participate, and be enabled to participate, in an administrative or judicial process for making a significant decision about the child;
- (e) the principle (the connection principle) that a child has a right to be supported to develop and maintain a connection with the child's family, community, culture, traditions and language, particularly when the child is in the care of a person who is not an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person.

5D Principles about exercising powers and making decisions

- (1) The following principles are relevant to exercising a power or making a decision under this Act—
 - (a) a power under this Act should be exercised in a way that is open, fair and respectful of the rights of each person affected by the exercise of the power;
 - (b) to the extent that it is appropriate, the views of relevant persons should be sought and taken into account before a decision is made under this Act;
 - (c) if a relevant person for a decision under this Act needs help to participate in or understand the decision-making process, or to understand a statutory right relevant to the decision, the relevant person should be given help;
 - (d) a relevant person for a decision under this Act may obtain their own legal advice, or be represented by a lawyer or supported by another person, in relation to the decision-making process;

- (e) information about a child affected by a decision under this Act should be shared—
 - (i) only to the extent necessary for the purposes of this Act; and
 - (ii) in a way that protects the child’s privacy.
 - (2) This section does not apply to a court.
 - (3) In this section—

relevant person, for a decision, means each of the following persons—

 - (a) the child to whom the decision relates;
 - (b) a person who is a parent or sibling of the child and is affected by the decision;
 - (c) any long-term guardian of the child.

5E Obtaining child’s views

- (1) When giving a child an opportunity to express their views under this Act—
 - (a) language appropriate to the age, maturity and capacity of the child should be used; and
 - (b) communication with the child should be in a way that is appropriate to the child’s circumstances; and
 - (c) if the child requires help to express their views, the child should be given help; and
 - (d) the child should be given an appropriate explanation of any decision affecting the child, including a decision about the development of a case plan or the effect of the decision or the case plan; and
 - (e) the child should be given an opportunity, and any help if needed, to respond to any decision affecting the child.
- (2) Nothing in this section requires a child to express a view about a matter.
- (3) This section does not apply to a court.

6 Who is an independent Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander entity

- (1) An entity is an independent Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander entity, for an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander child, if—
- (a) the entity is—
 - (i) an individual who is an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person; or
 - (ii) another entity whose members include individuals who are Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander persons; and
 - (b) the chief executive is satisfied the entity—
 - (i) provides services to Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander persons; or
 - (ii) is a representative of the child’s community or language group; or
 - (iii) satisfies the requirements mentioned in subsection (2); and
 - (c) is a suitable person to be an independent Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander entity for the child.

Examples of persons who may be independent Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander entities for Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander children—

- an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander elder
 - an entity funded by a State or the Commonwealth to provide cultural services, including cultural advice and support, to Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander persons
- (2) For subsection (1)(b)(iii), the requirements are that the entity is an individual who—
- (a) is a person of significance to the child or child’s family; and
 - (b) is a suitable person for associating on a daily basis with the child; and

- (c) is a person with appropriate authority to speak about Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander culture in relation to the child or the child's family; and
- (d) is not an officer or employee of the department.

 - (a) the chief executive;
 - (b) the litigation director;

 - (a) have regard to the child placement principles in relation to the child; and
 - (b) in consultation with the child and the child's family, arrange for an independent Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander entity for the child to facilitate the participation of the child and the child's family in the decision-making process.
- (3) However, subsection (2)(b) does not apply if—
 - (a) complying with the subsection—
 - (i) is not practicable because an independent Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander entity for the child is not available or urgent action is required to protect the child; or
 - (ii) is likely to have a significant adverse effect on the safety or psychological or emotional wellbeing of the child or any other person; or
 - (iii) is otherwise not in the child's best interests; or

- (b) the child or the child's family does not consent to the ongoing involvement in the decision-making process of an independent Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander entity for the child.
- (4) Also, subsection (2)(b) does not apply if—
 - (a) the relevant authority is the litigation director; and
 - (b) the litigation director is satisfied the chief executive or an authorised officer has already complied with the requirement in relation to the significant decision.
- (5) As far as reasonably practicable, a relevant authority must, in performing a function under this Act involving an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person (whether a child or not), perform the function—
 - (a) in a way that allows the full participation of the person and the person's family group; and
 - (b) in a place that is appropriate to Aboriginal tradition or Island custom.

6AB Principles about Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children—Childrens Court

- (1) This section applies to the Childrens Court.
- (2) When exercising a power under this Act in relation to an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander child, the court must have regard to—
 - (a) Aboriginal tradition and Island custom relating to the child; and

Note—
The Acts Interpretation Act 1954, schedule 1, contains definitions of Aboriginal tradition and Island custom.

 - (b) the child placement principles in relation to the child.
- (3) To inform itself about the matters mentioned in subsection (2)(a), the court may have regard to the views about those matters of—

- (a) an independent Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander entity for the child; or
 - (b) the child; or
 - (c) a member of the child's family.

- (5) A reference in this Act to the parents of a child or to 1 of the parents of a child is, if the child has only 1 parent, a reference to the parent.

Note—

In some provisions, parent has a narrower meaning. The same meaning is given the term in chapter 2, part 2 (see section 23), chapter 2, part 3 (see section 37), chapter 2, part 3AA (see section 51AA), chapter 2, part 3A (see section 51F) and chapter 2, part 4 (see section 52).

Division 2 Custody and guardianship

12 What is effect of custody

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) an authorised officer or police officer takes a child into the chief executive's custody; or

Note—

Under section 18, a child at immediate risk of harm may be taken into custody.

- (b) the chief executive has custody of a child under a care agreement; or
 - (c) the chief executive or someone else is granted custody of a child under an assessment order, temporary custody order or child protection order.
- (2) The chief executive, or other person granted custody of the child, has—

 - (b) the right and responsibility to make decisions about the child's daily care.

13 What is effect of guardianship

If the chief executive or someone else is granted guardianship of a child under a child protection order, the chief executive or other person has—

- (a) the right to have the child's daily care; and
- (b) the right and responsibility to make decisions about the child's daily care; and

- (c) all the powers, rights and responsibilities in relation to the child that would otherwise have been vested in the person having parental responsibility for making decisions about the long-term care, wellbeing and development of the child.

Chapter 2 Protection of children

Part 1AA Informing the chief executive about harm or risk of harm to children

Division 1 General

13A Action by persons generally

- (1) Any person may inform the chief executive if the person reasonably suspects—
- (a) a child may be in need of protection; or
 - (b) an unborn child may be in need of protection after he or she is born.
- (2) The information given may include anything the person considers relevant to the person's suspicion.

13B Action by relevant persons under other provisions

- (1) Under division 2, if a relevant person has a reportable suspicion about a child, the person is required to report the matter to the chief executive.
- (2) If a relevant person does not have a reportable suspicion about a child but considers the child is likely to become a child in need of protection if no preventative support is given, the person may take other appropriate action under this Act.

- (3) For example, if the relevant person is a prescribed entity to which section 159MD(1) applies, the person may give information under that section to a service provider so the service provider can offer help and support to the child or child's family to stop the child becoming a child in need of protection.

13C Considerations when forming a reasonable suspicion about harm to a child

- (1) This section applies to a person in forming a reasonable suspicion, for section 13A(1) or division 2, about whether a child has suffered significant harm, is suffering significant harm, or is at unacceptable risk of suffering significant harm.
- (2) The matters that the person may consider include—
 - (a) whether there are detrimental effects on the child's body or the child's psychological or emotional state—
 - (i) that are evident to the person; or
 - (ii) that the person considers are likely to become evident in the future; and
 - (b) in relation to any detrimental effects mentioned in paragraph (a)—
 - (i) their nature and severity; and
 - (ii) the likelihood that they will continue; and
 - (c) the child's age.
- (3) The person's consideration may be informed by an observation of the child, other knowledge about the child or any other relevant knowledge, training or experience that the person may have.

13D Protection from liability

Section 197A provides for protection from liability for information given under this part.

Division 2 Mandatory reporting by particular persons

13E Mandatory reporting by persons engaged in particular work

 - (e) a person engaged to perform a child advocate function under the Public Guardian Act 2014;
 - (f) an early childhood education and care professional.
- (2) For this section, a reportable suspicion about a child is a reasonable suspicion that the child—
 - (a) has suffered, is suffering, or is at unacceptable risk of suffering, significant harm caused by physical or sexual abuse; and
 - (b) may not have a parent able and willing to protect the child from the harm.
- (3) If a relevant person forms a reportable suspicion about a child in the course of the person's engagement as a relevant person, the person must give a written report to the chief executive under section 13G.

(4) In this section—

(a) any of the following under the Education and Care Services Act 2013—

- (i) an approved provider;

(1) This section applies to a person (a relevant person) who is any of the following—

- (a) an authorised officer;
- (b) a public service employee employed in the department;
- (c) a person employed in a departmental care service or licensed care service.

(2) For this section, a reportable suspicion about a child in care is a reasonable suspicion that the child has suffered, is suffering, or is at unacceptable risk of suffering, significant harm caused by physical or sexual abuse.

(3) If a relevant person forms a reportable suspicion about a child in care, the person must give a written report to the chief executive under section 13G.

(4) In this section—

child in care means a child placed in the care of an entity conducting a departmental care service or a licensee.

13G Report to the chief executive

(1) This section applies to a report that a relevant person is required to give under section 13E or 13F.

(2) The report must—

(a) state the basis on which the person has formed the reportable suspicion; and

(b) include the information prescribed by regulation, to the extent of the person's knowledge.

(3) The person is not required to give a report about a matter if—

(a) giving the report might tend to incriminate the person; or

(b) the person knows, or reasonably supposes, that the chief executive is aware of the matter.

(4) A regulation may prescribe the way the report must be given.

(5) To remove any doubt, it is declared that a person does not commit an offence against this or another Act only because the person omits to do an act required under section 13E(3) or 13F(3) or this section.

13H Conferrals with colleague and related information sharing

- (1) A relevant person may give information to a colleague, and a colleague may give information to a relevant person, for any of the following purposes—
 - (a) for the relevant person to form a suspicion about whether a child has suffered, is suffering, or is at unacceptable risk of suffering, significant harm caused by physical or sexual abuse;
 - (b) in the case of a relevant person under section 13E—for the relevant person to form a suspicion about whether a child has a parent able and willing to protect the child from harm mentioned in paragraph (a);
 - (c) for the relevant person to give a report under section 13G or keep a record about giving a report;
 - (d) for the relevant person or colleague to take appropriate action to deal with suspected harm or risk of harm to a child.

Examples for paragraph (d)—

- 1 A teacher with a reportable suspicion about a child under section 13E may give information to the principal at the school to enable the principal to take appropriate action to protect the child or other children from risk of harm.
 - 2 An educator under the Education and Care Services National Law (Queensland) with a reportable suspicion about a child under section 13E may give information to the nominated supervisor for the approved education and care service, within the meaning of that Law, to enable the supervisor to take appropriate action to protect the child or other children from risk of harm.
- (2) In this section—

colleague, of a relevant person, means a person working in or for the same entity as the relevant person.

13I Reporting obligation arises when reportable suspicion is formed

To remove any doubt, it is declared that—

- (a) a relevant person is not required to give a report under section 13G until the person has formed a reportable suspicion about a child; and

Example—

After observing injuries on a child's body, a doctor or teacher considers it possible that a parent of the child has physically abused the child or failed to protect the child from physical abuse. After obtaining further information about the family's circumstances, the doctor or teacher forms a reportable suspicion about the child under section 13E.

- (b) once a relevant person has formed a reportable suspicion about a child, the person must comply with section 13G even though the person is taking, or has taken, other action in relation to the child.

13J Particular reports to be given to public guardian

As soon as practicable after receiving a report required by section 13F, the chief executive must give a copy to the public guardian to help the public guardian perform the public guardian's child advocate functions under the Public Guardian Act 2014.

Part 1 Children at risk of harm

14 Substantiation of alleged harm

- (1) If the chief executive becomes aware (whether because of notification given to the chief executive or otherwise) of alleged harm or alleged risk of harm to a child and reasonably suspects the child is in need of protection, the chief executive must immediately—
- (a) have an authorised officer investigate the allegation, assess whether the alleged harm or risk of harm can be

[s 15]

- substantiated and, if it can, assess the child's protective needs; or
 - (b) take other action the chief executive considers appropriate.
- (2) If the chief executive reasonably believes alleged harm to a child may involve the commission of a criminal offence relating to the child, the chief executive must immediately give details of the alleged harm to the police commissioner.
- (3) Subsection (2) applies whether or not the chief executive suspects the child is in need of protection.

15 Child's parents and long-term guardians to be told about allegation of harm and outcome of investigation

 - (i) tell at least 1 of the child's parents about the outcome of the investigation; and
 - (ii) if asked by the parent, give the information about the outcome of the investigation to the parent in writing.
- (3) If the child has long-term guardians, the officer must—
- (a) take, or make a reasonable attempt to take, the actions stated in subsection (2)(a) and (b), but only if the officer is satisfied it would be in the child's best interests to do so, having regard to—

- (i) the nature and extent of the child's connection with the child's parents; and
 - (ii) the evidence in support of the allegation of harm or risk of harm; and
 - (iii) any other relevant matter; and
- (b) take the actions stated in subsection (2)(a) and (b) in relation to the long-term guardians.
- (4) However, if the officer reasonably believes—
- (a) someone may be charged with a criminal offence for the harm to the child and the officer's compliance with subsection (2) or (3) may jeopardise an investigation into the offence; or
 - (b) compliance with subsection (2) or (3) may expose the child to harm;

the officer need only comply with the subsection to the extent the officer considers is reasonable and appropriate in the particular circumstances.

- (5) If, under subsection (3)(a), the officer does not take the actions stated in subsection (2)(a) and (b) but makes a reasonable attempt to take the actions, the officer must document full details about the actions taken by the officer in making the attempt.

16 Contact with child at immediate risk of harm

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) an authorised officer or police officer is investigating an allegation of harm, or risk of harm, to a child; and

- (3) The officer may exercise a power under subsection (2) with the help, and using the force, that is reasonable in the circumstances.
- (4) At the first reasonable opportunity, the officer must record, in a register kept for the purpose by the department or the Queensland Police Service, full details about the exercise of the powers and other actions taken by the officer.

17 Contact with children in school, education and care service premises, family day care etc.

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) an authorised officer or police officer is investigating an allegation of harm, or risk of harm, to a child; and
 - (b) the officer reasonably believes—
 - (i) it is in the child's best interests that the officer has contact with the child before the child's parents or long-term guardians are told about the investigation; and
 - (ii) the child's parents or long-term guardians knowing in advance about the proposed contact with the child is likely to adversely affect or otherwise prevent the proper and effective conduct of the investigation; and

- (c) the child is at a school, or place where education and care or regulated education and care is provided, when the officer is to have contact with the child; and
 - (d) the officer has lawfully entered, and is lawfully remaining at, the school or place.
- (2) The officer may have contact with the child for as long as the officer reasonably considers necessary for investigating the allegation.
 - (3) Before exercising a power under subsection (2), the officer must notify the principal or other person in charge of the school or place of the intention to exercise the power.
 - (4) As soon as practicable after the officer has had contact with the child, the officer must—

 - (b) otherwise—tell at least 1 of the child’s parents that the officer has had contact with the child and the reasons for the contact.
 - (5) The officer’s obligation under subsection (4) to give reasons for the contact with the child is limited to the extent the officer considers is reasonable and appropriate in particular circumstances if the officer reasonably believes—
 - (a) someone may be charged with a criminal offence for harm to the child and the officer’s compliance with the subsection may jeopardise an investigation into the offence; or
 - (b) compliance with the subsection may expose the child to harm.
 - (6) Also, at the first reasonable opportunity, the officer must record, in a register kept for the purpose by the department or the Queensland Police Service, full details about the exercise of the powers and other actions taken by the officer.
 - (7) In this section—

- (5) The officer must, as soon as practicable, apply for a temporary assessment order for the child.
- (6) However, subsection (5) does not apply if an authorised officer applies for a temporary custody order for the child.
- (7) Also, the officer may arrange a medical examination of, or for medical treatment for, the child that is reasonable in the circumstances.

Note—

Section 97 applies to the medical examination or treatment.

- (8) The chief executive's custody of the child ends on the earlier of the following to happen—

 - (b) a child protection order granting custody or guardianship of the child to someone other than the chief executive is in force.
- (2) The order, so far as it relates to the child’s custody or guardianship, ceases to have effect while the chief executive’s custody of the child continues.

- (2) If the child does not have long-term guardians, the officer must, as soon as practicable—

 - (ii) when the chief executive’s custody ends under section 18(8); and

Note—

Section 195 deals with compliance with provisions about giving information.

[s 21]

- (c) tell the chief executive the child has been taken into the chief executive's custody, the reasons for the action and where the child has been taken.
- (3) If the child has long-term guardians, the officer must, as soon as practicable—
 - (a) comply with subsection (2)(a) to (c) as if the reference in subsection (2)(a) to parents were a reference to long-term guardians; and
 - (b) comply, or make a reasonable attempt to comply, with subsection (2)(a).
- (4) Subsections (2) and (3) do not require the officer to tell the child's parents or long-term guardians in whose care the child has been placed.
- (5) The officer's obligation under subsection (2)(a)(i) or (3) to give reasons for taking the child into custody is limited to the extent the officer considers is reasonable and appropriate in particular circumstances if the officer reasonably believes—
 - (a) someone may be charged with a criminal offence for harm to the child and the officer's compliance with the provision may jeopardise an investigation into the offence; or
 - (b) compliance with the provision may expose the child to harm.
- (6) If, under subsection (3)(b), the officer does not comply with subsection (2)(a) but makes a reasonable attempt to comply, the officer must document full details about the actions taken by the officer in making the attempt.

21 Moving child to safe place

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) an authorised officer or police officer reasonably believes a child who is under 12 years is at risk of harm but does not consider it necessary to take the child into

- the chief executive's custody to ensure the child's protection; and
- (b) a parent or other member of the child's family is not present at the place where the child is, and, after reasonable inquiries, the officer can not contact a parent or other member of the child's family.

- (5) The purpose of this section is to reduce the likelihood that the child will need protection after he or she is born (as opposed to interfering with the pregnant woman’s rights or liberties).

Part 2 Temporary assessment orders

23 Meaning of parent in pt 2

In this part—

parent, of a child, means each of the following persons—

24 Purpose of pt 2

Division 2 Applications for, and making and effect of, temporary assessment orders

25 Making of application for order

- (1) An authorised officer or police officer may apply to a magistrate for a temporary assessment order for a child.
- (2) The officer must prepare a written application that states the following—
 - (a) the grounds on which it is made;
 - (b) the nature of the order sought;
 - (c) if taking the child into, or keeping the child in, the chief executive's custody is sought—the proposed arrangements for the child's care.
- (3) The written application must be sworn.
- (4) The magistrate may refuse to consider the application until the applicant gives the magistrate all the information the magistrate requires about the application in the way the magistrate requires.

[s 26]

Example—

The magistrate may require additional information supporting the application be given by statutory declaration.

26 Deciding application

A magistrate may decide an application for a temporary assessment order without notifying the child's parents of the application or hearing them on the application.

27 Making of temporary assessment order

- (1) The magistrate may make a temporary assessment order for the child only if the magistrate is satisfied—
 - (a) an investigation is necessary to assess whether the child is a child in need of protection; and
 - (b) the investigation can not be properly carried out unless the order is made.
- (2) However, in deciding the application, the magistrate must also be satisfied reasonable steps have been taken to obtain appropriate parental consent to the doing of the things sought to be authorised under the order or it is not practicable to take steps to obtain the consent.
- (3) In this section—

appropriate parental consent means—

 - (a) if the child does not have long-term guardians—the consent of at least 1 of the child's parents; or
 - (b) if the child has long-term guardians—the consent of at least 1 of the long-term guardians.

28 Provisions of temporary assessment order

- (1) The magistrate may make a temporary assessment order for the child that provides for any 1 or more of the following the magistrate considers to be appropriate in the circumstances—
 - (a) authorising an authorised officer or police officer—
 - (i) to have contact with the child; and
 - (ii) if the magistrate is satisfied it is necessary to provide interim protection for the child while the investigation is carried out—to take the child into, or keep the child in, the chief executive’s custody while the order is in force;
 - (b) authorising the child’s medical examination or treatment;
Note—
Section 97 applies to the medical examination or treatment.
 - (c) directing a parent not to have contact (direct or indirect)—
 - (i) with the child; or
 - (ii) with the child other than when a stated person or a person of a stated category is present.
- (2) In addition, the order may also authorise an authorised officer or police officer to enter and search any place the officer reasonably believes the child is, to find the child, if the magistrate is satisfied—
 - (a) entry to a place has been, or is likely to be, refused, or it is otherwise justified in particular circumstances, including, for example, because the child’s whereabouts are not known; and
 - (b) the entry is necessary for the effective enforcement of the order.
- (3) On entering a place, an authorised officer or police officer may remain in the place for as long as the officer reasonably considers necessary for exercising the officer’s powers under this section.

- (4) An authorised officer or police officer may exercise powers under the order with the help, and using the force, that is reasonable in the circumstances.

29 Duration of temporary assessment orders

- (1) A temporary assessment order must state the time when it ends.
- (2) The stated time must not be more than 3 business days after the day the order is made.
- (3) The order ends at the stated time unless it is extended.
- (4) Regardless of subsections (1) to (3), the order ends when the child turns 18 years.

30 Application by particular forms of communication and duplicate order

- (1) An application under section 25 may be made by phone, fax, radio or another form of communication if the authorised officer or police officer reasonably considers it necessary because of—
 - (a) urgent circumstances; or
 - (b) other special circumstances (including, for example, the officer's remote location).
- (2) The application—
 - (a) may not be made before the officer prepares the written application under section 25(2); but
 - (b) may be made before the written application is sworn.
- (3) The magistrate may make the order (the original order) only if the magistrate is satisfied—
 - (a) it was necessary to make the application under subsection (1); and
 - (b) the way the application was made under subsection (1) was appropriate.

- (4) After the magistrate makes the original order—
- (a) if there is a reasonably practicable way of immediately giving a copy of the order to the officer (for example, by sending a copy by fax), the magistrate must immediately give a copy of the order to the officer; or
 - (b) otherwise—
 - (i) the magistrate must tell the officer the date and time the order was made and the other terms of the order; and
 - (ii) the officer must complete a form of the order, including by writing on it—
 - (A) the magistrate’s name; and
 - (B) the date and time the magistrate made the order; and
 - (C) the other terms of the order.
- (5) The copy of the order mentioned in subsection (4)(a), or the form of the order completed under subsection (4)(b), (in either case the duplicate order) is a duplicate of, and as effectual as, the original order.
- (6) The officer must, at the first reasonable opportunity, send to the magistrate—
- (a) the written application complying with section 25(2) and (3); and
 - (b) if the officer completed a form of the order under subsection (4)(b)—the completed form of the order.
- (7) The magistrate must keep the original order and, on receiving the documents under subsection (6)—
- (a) attach the documents to the original order; and
 - (b) give the original order and documents to the clerk of the court of the relevant magistrates court.
- (8) Despite subsection (7), if—

[s 31]

- (a) an issue arises in a proceeding about whether an exercise of a power was authorised by an order made under this section; and
- (b) the original order is not produced in evidence;

the onus of proof is on the person relying on the lawfulness of the exercise of the power to prove an order authorised the exercise of the power.

31 Order—procedure before entry

- (1) This section applies if an authorised officer or police officer is intending to enter a place under an authority under a temporary assessment order.
- (2) Before entering the place, the officer must do or make a reasonable attempt to do the following things—
 - (a) identify himself or herself to a person present at the place who is an occupier of the place;
 - (b) give the person—
 - (i) a copy of the order so far as it relates to the entry and searching of the place; or
 - (ii) if the entry and searching is authorised by a duplicate order under section 30(5), a copy of the duplicate order so far as it relates to the entry and searching of the place;
 - (c) tell the person the officer is permitted by the order to enter and search the place to find the child;
 - (d) give the person an opportunity to allow the officer immediate entry to the place without using force.
- (3) For subsection (2)(a), an authorised officer must produce the officer's identity card to the person for inspection.

Note—

For a police officer, see the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 637.

- (4) However, the officer need not comply with subsection (2) if the officer reasonably believes that immediate entry to the place is required to ensure the effective exercise of powers under the order is not frustrated.

Division 3 Other provisions about temporary assessment orders

32 Explanation of temporary assessment orders

- (1) If the child does not have long-term guardians, then, immediately after a temporary assessment order is made for a child, the applicant for the order must—

51A What is case planning

Case planning is the process of developing a case plan for a child and then regularly reviewing it.

51B What is a case plan

- (1) A case plan for a child is a written plan for meeting the child's protection and care needs.
- (2) A case plan must include the following matters—
 - (a) the goal for best achieving permanency for the child and the actions to be taken to achieve the goal;
 - (b) if returning the child to the care of a parent of the child is the goal for best achieving permanency for the child—an alternative goal in the event that the timely return of the child to the care of the parent is not possible;
 - (c) for an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander child—details about how the case plan is consistent with the connection principle stated in section 5C(2)(e).

Note—

See section 6AA(5) for requirements about how the chief executive or an authorised officer must perform functions under this Act involving an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person.

- (3) Also, a case plan must include actions for helping the child transition to independence if—
 - (a) the child is 15 years or more; and

- (b) the child does not have a long-term guardian.
- (4) A case plan may also include any of the following matters—
- (a) any other goals to be achieved by implementing the plan;
 - (b) arrangements about where or with whom the child will live, including interim arrangements;

 - giving support services to the child and his or her family
 - arranging for the child to be placed in care under a care agreement
 - seeking a child protection order for the child.
- 2 A case plan may not be required for a particular child because another entity is working to address the child’s protection and care needs and, as part of the work, is undertaking case planning with the child and the child’s family.

51D How case planning must be carried out

- (1) The chief executive must ensure case planning for a child is carried out in a way—information given by a local health agency about services available to a family

- (e) that enables the persons involved to understand it.

Examples for paragraph (e)—

- 1 The chief executive should explain the case planning process to a child using language appropriate to the child’s age, language skills and circumstances.
- 2 The chief executive should tell a child’s parents about child protection concerns, and explain steps in the case planning process to them, in a way that helps them to understand, ask questions and participate in any discussion. For a parent from a non-English speaking background, this may involve the use of an interpreter.

- (2) The chief executive must give participants in case planning the information they reasonably need to participate effectively.
- (3) The information must be given to the participants in a timely way to facilitate their effective participation.

This division applies to a case planning meeting.

 - (a) the child, unless it would be inappropriate because of the child's age or ability to understand;
 - (b) the child's parents;
 - (c) other members of the child's family group who the convenor considers likely to make a useful contribution to the plan's development at the meeting;
 - (d) other persons with whom the child has a significant relationship;

Example—

An approved carer may be someone with whom the child has a significant relationship.

Examples—

- a youth worker
 - an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander elder
 - a representative within the child's cultural community
 - a legal representative
- (3) To remove any doubt, it is declared that a requirement to allow a person to attend or participate in the meeting under subsection (1)(a) to (e), (1)(g) to (j) or (2) applies whether or not the child's parents agree to the person's attendance or participation.
- (4) The convenor is not required to allow a particular person to attend or participate in the meeting under subsection (1)(b) to (d), (1)(f) or (2) if the convenor is satisfied that person's attendance or participation would be contrary to the purposes of the meeting or not in the child's best interests.
- (5) Also, the convenor is not required to allow an independent Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander entity for the child to attend or participate in the meeting, under subsection (1)(f), if—

- (a) the entity's attendance or participation is likely to have a significant adverse effect on the child's or another person's safety or psychological or emotional wellbeing; or
- (b) the child or the child's family does not consent to the entity's attendance or participation.

51M Preparing for the meeting

- (1) Before holding the meeting, the convenor must inform the invitees—

- (2) In this section—

invitee means a person mentioned in section 51L(1) other than a person mentioned in section 51L(4).

51N Obtaining the views of persons not attending

The convenor must take reasonable steps to ascertain before the meeting, and make known at the meeting, the views relevant to the meeting of the following persons and entities—

[s 51O]

- (a) the child, if the child's views may reasonably be ascertained and the convenor does not expect the child to be attending;
- (b) another person mentioned in section 51L(1) who notifies the convenor that he or she will not be attending;
- (c) a member of the child's family group who, under section 51L(4), has not been invited to the meeting but whose views, in the convenor's opinion, should be obtained;
- (d) a relevant prescribed entity or service provider.

51O Recording the case plan developed at the meeting

If a case plan is developed at the meeting, the convenor must record the plan in the approved form and, if the convenor is a private convenor, give it to the chief executive.

51P Development of plan at more than 1 meeting

A case plan may be developed at more than 1 meeting under this division.

Division 4 Other steps in the case planning process

51Q Dealing with a case plan developed at a meeting

Within 10 business days after a case plan is developed at a case planning meeting, the chief executive must endorse the plan unless section 51R applies.

51R Dealing with an inappropriate plan

- (1) This section applies if the chief executive is satisfied a case plan developed at a case planning meeting, or something in the plan, is clearly impracticable or not in the child's best interests.

- (2) The chief executive may—
 - (a) reconvene, or have a private convenor reconvene, the case planning meeting under division 3 to develop an amended case plan; or
 - (b) convene, or have a private convenor convene, another case planning meeting under division 3 to develop an amended case plan; or
 - (c) amend the case plan and endorse the amended plan.
- (3) The chief executive may amend the case plan under subsection (2)(c)—
 - (a) only to the extent necessary to ensure the plan is practicable and in the child's best interests; and
 - (b) only within 7 days after the case planning meeting at which it was developed; and
 - (c) if the meeting was convened by a private convenor, only after consulting with the private convenor.
- (4) If the chief executive amends the case plan under subsection (2)(c), the chief executive must give written notice of the amendment, and the reasons for the amendment, to each person who was at the meeting at which the plan was developed.

51S Preparing the plan if not developed at a meeting

- (1) This section applies if a case plan is not developed at the case planning meeting or meetings held under division 3.
- (2) This section also applies if it has not been possible for the chief executive to convene a family group meeting, or have a private convenor convene a family group meeting, under section 51H(1).
- (3) The chief executive must—

 - (ii) another person mentioned in section 51L(1);
 - (iii) another member of the child's family group whose views, in the chief executive's opinion, should be obtained;
 - (iv) a relevant prescribed entity or service provider; and
 - (b) having regard to the views (if any), prepare a case plan, in the approved form, that the chief executive is satisfied best meets the child's protection and care needs and endorse the plan.
- (4) If the meeting mentioned in subsection (1) was convened under a court order under section 68(1)(d)(i), the chief executive must file the plan prepared under this section in the court.

51T Distributing and implementing the plan

After a case plan has been recorded in the approved form and endorsed, the chief executive must—

- (a) give a copy of the plan to the child, unless that would be inappropriate having regard to the child's age and ability to understand; and
- (b) explain the plan to the child in a way, and to an extent, that is reasonable, having regard to the child's age and ability to understand; and
- (c) give a copy of the plan to—

51U Application of div 5

This division applies to a child for whom a case plan has been developed, while—

- (a) a child protection order is in force for the child; or
- (b) the child otherwise remains a child mentioned in section 51C.

- (1) This section applies if the child does not have a long-term guardian.
- (2) The chief executive must regularly review the case plan.
- (3) In deciding when, or how often, to review the plan, the chief executive must have regard to—
 - (a) the child's age and circumstances; and

[s 51VA]

- (4) In any case, the review must happen at least every 6 months.
- (5) Subsection (6) applies to the review of a case plan for a child in care if—
 - (a) the case plan does not include actions for helping the child transition from care to independence; and
 - (b) the child has turned 15 since the making, or last review, of the case plan.
- (6) The review must include developing appropriate actions for helping the child transition to independence.
- (7) After reviewing the plan, the chief executive must prepare—

- (3) The long-term guardian must allow the chief executive to have contact with the child at least once every 12 months.
- (4) At any time, the child or the long-term guardian may ask the chief executive to review the case plan.
- (5) Also, at any time, a parent of the child may ask the chief executive to review the case plan if the plan has not been reviewed in the previous 12 months.
- (6) On a request under subsection (4) or (5)—
 - (a) the chief executive may decide not to review the plan if satisfied—
 - (i) the child's circumstances have not changed significantly since the plan was finalised or, if it has been reviewed, since the most recent review; or

- (ii) for another reason, it would not be appropriate in all the circumstances; or
 - (b) otherwise, the chief executive must review the plan and prepare—
 - (i) a report about the review under section 51X; and
 - (ii) a revised case plan.
- (7) If, on a request under subsection (4) or (5), the chief executive decides not to review the case plan, the chief executive must give written notice of the decision to—
- (a) the person who made the request; and
 - (b) if it was the child who made the request—the long-term guardian.
- (8) The notice mentioned in subsection (7) must comply with the QCAT Act, section 157(2).

51VB Review of plan—permanent guardian

- (1) This section applies if the child has a permanent guardian.
- (2) The permanent guardian or the child may, at any time, ask the chief executive to review the child's case plan.
- (3) On a request under subsection (2)—
 - (a) the chief executive may decide not to review the plan if satisfied—

 - (ii) for another reason, it would not be appropriate in all the circumstances; or
 - (b) otherwise, the chief executive must review the plan and prepare—
 - (i) a report about the review under section 51X; and
 - (ii) a revised case plan.

[s 51W]

- (4) If, on a request under subsection (2), the chief executive decides not to review the case plan, the chief executive must give written notice of the decision to—

- (5) The notice mentioned in subsection (4) must comply with section 157(2) of the QCAT Act.

51W Who may participate

- (1) The chief executive must give the following persons a reasonable opportunity to participate in the review and preparation of the revised case plan—
 - (a) the child, unless it would be inappropriate because of the child's age or ability to understand;
 - (b) the child's parents;
 - (c) other members of the child's family group who the chief executive considers are likely to make a useful contribution;
 - (d) other persons with whom the child has a significant relationship;

Example—

An approved carer may be someone with whom the child has a significant relationship.

- (e) any legal representative of the child;
- (f) if the child is an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander child—an independent Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander entity, or member of an independent Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander entity, for the child;
- (g) the public guardian;
- (h) a relevant prescribed entity or service provider;
- (i) anyone else who the chief executive considers is likely to make a useful contribution to the review.

- (2) To enable the participation, the chief executive may convene a family group meeting or have a private convenor convene a family group meeting.
- (3) If a family group meeting or other meeting is convened for the purpose of the review and the child or a parent of the child attends, the convenor must allow the child or parent to have someone attend and participate in the meeting to give help or support to the child or parent.
- (4) To remove any doubt, it is declared that a requirement to allow a person to attend or participate in a meeting under this section, or otherwise participate in the review, applies whether or not the child's parents agree to the person's attendance or participation.
- (5) The convenor of a meeting under this section is not required to allow a particular person to attend or participate in the meeting, under subsection (1)(b) to (d), (1)(f) or (3), if the convenor is satisfied that person's attendance or participation would be contrary to the purposes of the meeting or not in the child's best interests.
- (6) Also, the convenor of a meeting under this section is not required to allow an independent Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander entity for the child, or a member of the entity, to attend or participate in the meeting, under subsection (1)(f), if—
 - (a) the entity's or member's attendance or participation is likely to have a significant adverse effect on the child's or another person's safety or psychological or emotional wellbeing; or
 - (b) the child or the child's parents do not consent to the entity's or member's attendance or participation.

51X Report about the review

 - (f) who participated in the review and how they participated, including whether a family group meeting was held and who attended.
- (2) The report must also address how the revised case plan gives priority to permanency for the child.
- (3) For subsection (2), if the child is placed in the care of someone other than a parent of the child under a child protection order granting custody or short-term guardianship of the child, the report must state—
- (a) the risks and benefits of returning the child to the care of a parent; and
 - (b) whether there is a real risk that permanency for the child will not be best achieved by returning the child to the care of a parent within a timeframe appropriate to the child's age and circumstances; and
 - (c) if there is a real risk mentioned in paragraph (b), the progress made in planning for alternative long-term arrangements for the child, for example—
 - (i) arrangements for the child to live with a member of the child's family under a child protection order granting long-term guardianship of the child; or

- (ii) arrangements for the child to live with a member of the child's family or another suitable person under a permanent care order; or

[s 51YA]

- (c) give a copy to the child's parents and anyone else affected by the plan or who the chief executive considers should receive a copy; and
- (d) support the implementation of the plan.

 - (a) with the consent of all persons participating in the family group meeting; or
 - (b) in a proceeding for an offence committed during the family group meeting.
- (2) In a child protection proceeding, a person must not be taken to have admitted anything alleged about the person only because the person attended or participated in a family group meeting.
- (3) However, if a person attends or participates in a family group meeting, subsection (2) does not affect the admissibility, in a child protection proceeding, of evidence of anything the person says or does at the meeting.

51YB Evidence relating to case plans

- (1) Evidence of anything recorded in a case plan is inadmissible in a criminal proceeding before a court other than with the consent of all persons mentioned in the case plan.
- (2) In a child protection proceeding, a person must not be taken to have admitted anything alleged about the person only because the person participated in the development of, or agreed to, a case plan.

Part 3B Intervention with parents' agreement

Division 1 Preliminary

51Z Application of pt 3B

This part applies to a child if—

- (a) there is no assessment order in force granting custody of the child to the chief executive and the chief executive—
 - (i) reasonably suspects the child is a child in need of protection and considers an investigation is necessary to assess the child's need of protection; and
 - (ii) is satisfied it is necessary to provide interim protection for the child while the investigation is carried out; or
- (b) there is no child protection order in force granting custody or guardianship of the child to anyone and the chief executive is satisfied the child—
 - (i) is a child in need of protection; and
 - (ii) needs ongoing help under this Act.

51ZA What is intervention

The intervention for the child is the action taken by the chief executive to give the help, including ongoing help, that the child needs.

Examples—

- giving support services to the child and his or her family

- (3) A care agreement entered into for a child to whom section 51Z(b) applies is a child protection care agreement.

51ZE Entering an agreement

- (1) The chief executive may enter into a care agreement for the child if satisfied—
- (a) it would be in the child's best interests to be temporarily placed in the care of someone other than the child's parents; and
 - (b) it is not likely that, if the parents end the agreement, the child will be at immediate risk of harm.
- (2) The chief executive must obtain and have regard to the child's views before entering into the care agreement, unless the child is unable to form and express views, taking into account the child's age and ability to understand.

- (3) The child may also be a party to the care agreement.
- (4) Despite section 51ZD(1), the chief executive may enter into an assessment care agreement with only 1 of the child's parents if—
 - (a) it is impractical to obtain the consent of the other parent to the agreement before entering into the agreement; or
 - (b) the chief executive has made a reasonable attempt to obtain the consent of the other parent before entering into the agreement.
- (5) If the chief executive has not obtained the consent of the other parent before entering into an assessment care agreement under subsection (4), the chief executive must make a reasonable attempt to give a copy of the agreement to the other parent, and obtain the other parent's consent, after the agreement has been entered into.

Note—

See section 51ZI(2) for how the other parent may end the agreement.

- (6) The chief executive may not enter into an assessment care agreement with only 1 of the child's parents if another parent refuses to enter into the agreement.

51ZF Requirements of an agreement

- (1) A care agreement must be in the approved form, signed by the parties.
- (2) A care agreement must state the following—

- (e) the type of decisions relating to the child for which the parents must be consulted.

- (1) Subject to this division, a care agreement has effect for the period stated in it.
- (2) The period of an assessment care agreement must not be more than 30 days.
- (3) An assessment care agreement may not be extended.
- (4) When a child protection care agreement is entered into, the initial period of operation stated in it must not be more than 30 days.
- (5) A child protection care agreement must not be made if the total of the following periods would be more than 6 months—
 - (a) the initial period of the proposed agreement;
 - (b) the period for which any other child protection care agreement was in force for the child within the previous 12 months.
- (6) Before a child protection care agreement ends, it may be extended by agreement of the parties.
- (7) A child protection care agreement may be extended more than once.
- (8) A child protection care agreement must not be extended if the total of the following periods would be more than 6 months—
 - (a) the period for which the agreement has been in force;
 - (b) the period of the proposed extension;

[s 51ZI]

- (c) the period for which any other child protection care agreement was in force for the child within the 12 months before the extension.
- (9) The chief executive must not agree to an extension unless—
 - (a) a case plan is in force for the child; and
 - (b) the chief executive is satisfied the extension would be in the child's best interests, having regard to the progress made under the case plan and the child's developmental needs.

51ZI Ending an agreement

- (1) A party to a care agreement may end the agreement at any time by giving at least 2 days notice to the other parties.
- (2) If a care agreement is entered into with only 1 of the child's parents, the other parent may end the agreement at any time by giving at least 2 days notice to the parties.
- (3) A care agreement ends automatically if—
 - (a) a child protection order is made granting custody or guardianship of the child to the chief executive or someone else; or
 - (b) the chief executive otherwise gains custody or guardianship of the child under this Act or the Adoption Act 2009.

When the application is filed, the registrar of the Childrens Court must immediately fix the time and place for hearing the application having regard to the principle that it is in the best interests of the child for the application to be heard as early as possible.

55A Public guardian to be notified, under an arrangement, of applications etc. for orders

- (1) The public guardian and the registrar of the Childrens Court at a place may enter into an arrangement under which the registrar advises the public guardian of—

- (3) The copy of the application served under this section must state—
 - (a) when and where the application is to be heard; and
 - (b) the application may be heard and decided even though the parent does not appear in court.

 - (b) it is satisfied it was not practicable to give the parents notice of the hearing.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not limit the jurisdiction of the court to exclude a person from a proceeding.

59 Making of child protection order

- (a) the child is a child in need of protection and the order is appropriate and desirable for the child’s protection; and
 - (b) there is a case plan for the child—
 - (i) that has been developed or revised under part 3A; and
 - (ii) that is appropriate for meeting the child’s assessed protection and care needs; and

Example of exceptional circumstances—

The court may be satisfied the risk to the safety of a party if a conference were held outweighs the potential benefit of holding the conference.

- (d) the child's wishes or views, if able to be ascertained, have been made known to the court; and
 - (e) the protection sought to be achieved by the order is unlikely to be achieved by an order under this part on less intrusive terms.
- (2) Before making a child protection order, the court may have regard to the following matters—
- (a) any contravention of this Act or of an order made under this Act;
 - (b) a decision by the chief executive to end intervention under part 3B because the intervention was no longer appropriate to meet the child's protection and care needs.
- (3) When deciding whether a case plan is appropriate under subsection (1)(b)(ii), it is not relevant whether or not all persons who participated in the development or revision of the plan agreed with the plan.
- (4) The court must not make a child protection order unless a copy of the child's case plan and, if it is a revised case plan, a copy of the report about the last revision under section 51X have been filed in the court.
- (5) Also, before making a child protection order granting custody or guardianship of a child to a person other than the chief executive, the court must have regard to any report given, or recommendation made, to the court by the chief executive about the person, including a report about the person's criminal history, domestic violence history and traffic history.

Note—

Section 95 deals with reports about the person's criminal history, domestic violence history and traffic history.

- (6) In addition, before making a long-term guardianship order or a permanent care order for a child, the court must be satisfied—
- (a) there is no parent able and willing to protect the child within the foreseeable future; or

- (b) the child's need for emotional security will be best met in the long term by making the order.
- (7) Further, the court must not grant long-term guardianship of a child to—
 - (a) a person who is not a member of the child's family unless the child is already in custody or guardianship under a child protection order; or
 - (b) the chief executive if the court can properly grant guardianship to another suitable person.
- (7A) The court may make a permanent care order for a child only if, in addition to the other matters about which the court must be satisfied under this section, the court is satisfied—
 - (a) the person to whom guardianship of the child is to be granted under the order (the proposed guardian) is—
 - (i) a suitable person for having guardianship of the child on a permanent basis; and
 - (ii) willing and able to meet the child's ongoing protection and care needs on a permanent basis; and
 - (iii) committed to preserving—
 - (A) the child's identity; and
 - (B) the child's connection to the child's culture of origin; and
 - (C) the child's relationships with members of the child's family in accordance with the case plan for the child; and
 - (b) the child has been in the care of the proposed guardian, under a child protection order granting custody or guardianship of the child to the chief executive or the proposed guardian, for a period of at least 12 months immediately before the making of the application.
- (7B) However, the court may make a permanent care order, despite not being satisfied of the matter mentioned in subsection (7A)(b), if the court is satisfied there are exceptional circumstances that, in the best interests of the child, justify the making of the order.

Example of exceptional circumstances—

The proposed guardian is caring for 1 or more of the child's siblings under a permanent care order.

- (8) Before the court extends or makes a further child protection order granting custody or short-term guardianship of the child, the court must have regard to the child's need for emotional security and stability.
- (9) This section does not apply to the making of an interim order under section 67.

59A Additional matters about making permanent care orders for Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander children

- (1) This section applies to an application for a permanent care order for an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander child.
- (2) In deciding whether to make the order, the Childrens Court must have proper regard to—
 - (a) Aboriginal tradition and Island custom relating to the child; and

Note—

The Acts Interpretation Act 1954, schedule 1, contains definitions of Aboriginal tradition and Island custom.

- (b) the child placement principles in relation to the child.
- (3) The court may make the order only if it is satisfied—
 - (a) the case plan for the child includes appropriate details about how the child's connection with his or her culture, and community or language group, will be developed or maintained; and
 - (b) the decision to apply for the order has been made in consultation with the child, if the court considers consultation is appropriate.

[s 60]

- (4) To inform itself about the matters mentioned in subsection (2)(a), the court may have regard to the views about those matters of—
- (a) an independent Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander entity for the child; or
 - (b) the child; or
 - (c) a member of the child's family.

60 Extraterritoriality

To remove doubt, it is declared the Childrens Court may make a child protection order even if the events causing the child to be a child in need of protection happened outside Queensland, or partly in Queensland and partly outside Queensland.

61 Types of child protection orders

The Childrens Court may make any 1 or more of the following child protection orders that the court considers to be appropriate in the circumstances—

- (a) an order directing a parent of the child to do or refrain from doing something directly related to the child's protection;
- (b) an order directing a parent not to have contact, direct or indirect—
 - (i) with the child; or
 - (ii) with the child other than when a stated person or a person of a stated category is present;
- (c) an order requiring the chief executive to supervise the child's protection in relation to the matters stated in the order;
- (d) an order granting custody of the child to—
 - (i) a suitable person, other than a parent of the child, who is a member of the child's family; or

- (ii) the chief executive;
- (e) an order granting short-term guardianship of the child to the chief executive;
- (f) an order (a long-term guardianship order) granting long-term guardianship of the child to—
 - (i) a suitable person, other than a parent of the child, who is a member of the child’s family; or
 - (ii) another suitable person, other than a member of the child’s family, nominated by the chief executive; or
 - (iii) the chief executive;

Note—

The parents of the child may apply to vary or revoke a long-term guardianship order—see section 65(1).

- (g) an order (a permanent care order) granting long-term guardianship of the child to a suitable person, other than a parent of the child or the chief executive, nominated by the chief executive.

Note—

Only the litigation director may apply to vary or revoke a permanent care order—see section 65AA.

62 Duration of child protection orders

- (1) A child protection order for a child must state the time when it ends.
- (2) The stated time for an order that does not grant custody or guardianship of the child must not be more than 1 year after the day it is made.
- (3) If no previous child protection order has been made for the child and the order grants custody or short-term guardianship of the child, the stated time for the order must not be more than 2 years after the day it is made.

- (4) If a previous child protection order has been made for the child and the order grants custody or short-term guardianship of the child, the stated time for the order must not be—
- (a) if, immediately before the making of the order, the child has been in continuous care since the making of the earliest child protection order for the child—later than 2 years after the day the earliest order was made; or

Example—

The court makes an order granting custody of a child to the chief executive. A previous child protection order granting custody of the child to the chief executive was in effect for 1 year. Since the making of the previous order, the child has been in care, including under interim orders, for a continuous period of 18 months. The stated time for the new order must not be more than 2 years after the previous child protection order was made. As a result, the maximum duration of the new order is 6 months.

- (b) otherwise—later than 2 years after the day the earliest child protection order for the child made during the relevant continuous care period was made.

Example—

The court makes an order granting custody of a child to the chief executive and there have been previous orders granting custody of the child to the chief executive. The first order was in effect for 1 year, after which the child was returned to the care of the child's parents for 1 year. Then another order was made granting custody of the child to the chief executive for 12 months. Since the making of the second order, the child has been in care, including under interim orders, for a continuous period of 18 months. The stated time for the new order must not be more than 2 years after the second order was made. As a result, the maximum duration of the new order is 6 months.

- (5) However, despite subsection (4), the stated time for an order to which subsection (4) would otherwise apply must not be more than 2 years after the day it is made if—
- (a) it is in the best interests of the child to have a longer stated time for the order than the time provided for under subsection (4); and

- (b) the Childrens Court considers that reunification of the child with the child's family is reasonably achievable within the longer stated time.
- (6) The stated time for an order that grants long-term guardianship of the child must be the end of the day before the child turns 18 years.
- (7) The order ends at the stated time unless it is extended or earlier revoked.
- (8) Regardless of subsections (1) to (7), the order ends when the child turns 18.
- (9) In this section—

child protection order does not include an interim order under section 67.

relevant continuous care period means a period of continuous care that has not ended immediately before the making of the order.

Division 3 Other provisions about child protection orders

63 Chief executive's obligations after making of child protection order

As soon as practicable after a child protection order for a child is made, the chief executive must give to the parties to the application for the order—

- (a) a copy of the order; and
- (b) a written notice—
- (i) explaining the terms and effect of the order; and
 - (ii) stating that a party may appeal against the decision to make the order within 28 days after the order is made; and
 - (iii) stating how to appeal.

64 Extension of certain child protection orders

- (1) An application for an extension of a child protection order for a child, other than an order granting long-term guardianship of a child, may be made to the Children's Court.

Note—

Only the litigation director may make the application—see the Director of Child Protection Litigation Act 2016, section 10.

- (2) The application must be made before the order ends.
- (3) If the application is an application to extend a child protection order granting custody or short-term guardianship of a child, the court must not extend the order for a period of time that would result in the child being in continuous care for a period of 2 years or more.
- (4) However, subsection (3) does not apply if the court is satisfied—
 - (a) it is in the best interests of the child for the order to be extended for a longer time than the time provided for under subsection (3); and
 - (b) reunification of the child with the child's family is reasonably achievable within the longer time.
- (5) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), this part applies, with all necessary changes, to the application as if it were an application for a child protection order.

65 Variation and revocation of particular child protection orders

- (1) The litigation director, a child's parent or the child may apply to the Childrens Court for an order to—
 - (a) vary or revoke a child protection order, other than a permanent care order, for the child; or
 - (b) revoke a child protection order, other than a permanent care order, for the child and make another child protection order in its place.
- (2) However, a child's parent can not—

- (a) apply for an order to revoke a child protection order for the child and make another child protection order in its place that grants guardianship of the child; or
 - (b) without the leave of the court, apply for an order to vary or revoke a child protection order for the child if another application for an order by a parent of the child to vary or revoke the child protection order has been decided by the court; or
 - (c) apply to vary a long-term guardianship order granting long-term guardianship of the child to the chief executive to grant long-term guardianship of the child to a suitable person mentioned in section 61(f)(i) or (ii).
- (3) For subsection (2)(b), the court may grant leave only if it is satisfied the child's parent has new evidence to give to the court.
- (4) This part applies, with the changes prescribed in subsections (5) to (5D) and all other necessary changes, to the application as if it were an application for a child protection order for the child.
- (5) If the application is made by the child or a parent of the child—
- (a) other parents of the child and the litigation director become respondents to the application; and
 - (b) immediately after the application is made, the registrar must give written notice to the litigation director and chief executive of the time and place for hearing the application; and
 - (c) as soon as practicable after receiving the registrar's notice, the chief executive must comply with section 56 except so far as it relates to the applicant.
- (5A) Subsection (5B) applies if the litigation director or the child applies to—
- (a) vary or revoke a long-term guardianship order for the child; or

- (b) revoke a long-term guardianship order for the child and make a permanent care order for the child in its place.
- (5B) Section 59(1)(a) and (e), (6)(a), (7) and (8) does not apply to the application.
- (5C) However, subsection (5B) does not apply in relation to the application if—
 - (a) the application is an application by the litigation director or the child mentioned in subsection (5A)(b); and
 - (b) the court orders, on its own initiative or on the application of the litigation director or the child, that the provisions of section 59 mentioned in subsection (5B) are to apply to the application.
- (5D) The court may make an order under subsection (5C)(b) only if it is satisfied that, because of exceptional circumstances, it is in the best interests of the child for the provisions of section 59 mentioned in subsection (5B) to apply to the application.
- (6) The court may, under subsection (1)(a), revoke a child protection order for a child only if it is satisfied the order is no longer appropriate and desirable for the child's protection.
- (7) Without limiting the things to which the court may have regard in deciding an application under this section, the court—
 - (a) may have regard to a contravention of the child protection order or this Act; and
 - (b) for an application to revoke a child protection order granting long-term guardianship of a child under section 61(f)(i) or (ii)—must have regard to the child's need for emotional security and stability.
- (8) In this section—

child protection order does not include an interim order under section 67.

65AA Variation and revocation of permanent care orders

- (1) The litigation director may apply to the Childrens Court for an order to—
 - (a) vary or revoke a permanent care order for a child; or
 - (b) revoke a permanent care order for a child and make another child protection order in its place.
- (2) However, the litigation director may apply to vary or revoke a permanent care order only if the litigation director is satisfied—
 - (a) that—
 - (i) the child has suffered significant harm, is suffering significant harm, or is at an unacceptable risk of suffering significant harm; and
 - (ii) the child's permanent guardian is not able and willing to protect the child from harm; or
 - (b) the child's permanent guardian is not complying, in a significant way, with the guardian's obligations under section 79A(1).

Example—

The child's permanent guardian is not, despite it being in the best interests of the child, helping the child maintain the child's relationships with the child's parents or another person of significance to the child.

- (3) This part applies, with all necessary changes, to the application as if it were an application for a child protection order for the child.
- (4) The court may revoke a permanent care order for a child only if it is satisfied the revocation of the order—
 - (a) is in the best interests of the child; and
 - (b) will promote the child's ongoing protection and care needs.
- (5) Without limiting the matters to which the court may have regard in deciding an application under this section, the court—

[s 65A]

- (a) may have regard to a contravention of the permanent care order or this Act; and
 - (b) must have regard to the child's need for emotional security and stability.
- (6) Without limiting the court's powers, in deciding an application to revoke a permanent care order the court may—
- (a) revoke the order; or
 - (b) revoke the order and make another child protection order in its place.

Division 4 Transition orders

65A Court may make transition order

- (1) This section applies if a court—
- (a) in relation to a child protection order granted under section 61(d) or (e)—
 - (i) refuses to extend the order or grant a further order before the order ends; or
 - (ii) revokes the order; or
 - (iii) decides an appeal against the making of the order in favour of a person other than the litigation director; or
 - (b) in relation to a child protection order granted under section 61(f) or (g)—
 - (i) revokes the order; or
 - (ii) decides an appeal against the making of the order in favour of a person other than the litigation director.
- (2) The court may make an order (a transition order) that the child protection order ends on a later day stated in the transition order.

- (3) The transition order may be made on the court's own initiative or on the application, made orally or in the approved form, of a party to the proceeding.
- (4) If a party applies for the transition order and the court adjourns the proceeding before deciding the application, the child protection order continues in force, despite the decision mentioned in subsection (1), until the application is decided.
- (5) The day stated in the transition order as the day on which the child protection order ends may not be more than 28 days after the day of the court's decision under subsection (1), even if a party applied for the transition order and the court adjourned the proceeding before deciding the application.
- (6) The court may make a transition order in a proceeding only once.

65B Grounds for making transition order

- (1) A court may make a transition order if satisfied the order is necessary to allow for the gradual transition of the child into the care of the child's parents in a way that—
 - (a) supports the child; and
 - (b) may reduce any disruption or distress experienced by the child; and
 - (c) is otherwise in the best interests of the child.
- (2) When deciding whether to make a transition order—
 - (a) the court must have regard to—
 - (i) the child's wishes and views, if able to be ascertained; and
 - (ii) the parents' readiness to care for the child; and
 - (b) the court may have regard to any other relevant matter.

Example for paragraph (b)—

The court may have regard to information, from the person caring for the child under the child protection order, about the child's needs.

65C Effect of stay of decision about child protection order

If, under section 119, an appellate court stays a decision mentioned in section 65A(1), a transition order made in relation to the decision ends on the day the decision is stayed.

65D Transition plans

If the court makes a transition order in relation to a child, the chief executive must prepare a plan, for the period of the transition order, that—

- (a) states how the chief executive intends to provide for the support and gradual transition of the child into the care of the child's parents; and
- (b) includes matters prescribed under a regulation for inclusion in the plan.

Part 5 Adjourments of proceedings and court ordered conferences

Division 1 Adjourments of proceedings

66 Court may adjourn proceedings

- (1) The Childrens Court may adjourn a proceeding for a court assessment order or child protection order for a child for a period decided by the court.
- (2) However, for a court assessment order the total period of adjournments must not be longer than 4 weeks.

Note—

Section 47 contains provisions about when a court assessment order ends.

- (3) In deciding the period, the court must take into account the principle that it is in the child's best interests for the application for the order to be decided as soon as possible.

- (4) The court must state the reasons for the adjournment and may give directions to the parties to the proceeding, the chief executive or a person the court has allowed to take part in the proceeding under section 113 about the things to be done by them during the adjournment.

67 Court's powers to make interim orders on adjournment

- (1) On the adjournment of a proceeding for a court assessment order or child protection order, the Childrens Court may make any 1 or more of the following orders—
- (a) an interim order granting temporary custody of the child—
 - (i) for a court assessment order—to the chief executive; or
 - (ii) for a child protection order—to the chief executive or a suitable person who is a member of the child's family;
 - (b) an interim order directing a parent of the child not to have contact (direct or indirect)—
 - (i) with the child; or
 - (ii) with the child other than when a stated person or a person of a stated category is present;
 - (c) an interim order authorising an authorised officer or police officer to have contact with the child.
- (2) In addition, the court may make an interim order authorising an authorised officer or police officer to enter and search any place the officer reasonably believes the child is, to find the child, if the court is satisfied—
- (a) entry to a place has been, or is likely to be, refused, or it is otherwise justified in particular circumstances, including, for example, because the child's whereabouts are not known; and
 - (b) the entry is necessary for the effective enforcement of an order made under subsection (1)(c).

[s 67A]

- (3) On entering a place, an authorised officer or police officer may remain in the place for as long as the officer considers necessary for exercising the officer's powers under this section.
- (4) An authorised officer or police officer may exercise the officer's powers under the order with the help, and using the force, that is reasonable in the circumstances.
- (5) The order has effect for the period of the adjournment.
- (6) In this section—
parent, of a child, means each of the following persons—
 - (a) the child's mother or father;
 - (b) a person in whose favour a residence order or contact order for the child is in operation under the Family Law Act 1975 (Cwlth);
 - (c) a person, other than the chief executive, having custody or guardianship of the child under—
 - (i) a law of the State, other than this Act; or
 - (ii) a law of another State;
 - (d) a long-term guardian of the child.

67A Order—procedure before entry

- (1) This section applies if an authorised officer or police officer is intending to enter a place under an authority under an interim order mentioned in section 67(2).
- (2) Before entering the place, the officer must do or make a reasonable attempt to do the following things—
 - (a) identify himself or herself to a person present at the place who is an occupier of the place;
 - (b) give the person a copy of the order so far as it relates to the entry and searching of the place;
 - (c) tell the person the officer is permitted by the order to enter and search the place to find the child;

- (d) give the person an opportunity to allow the officer immediate entry to the place without using force.
- (3) For subsection (2)(a), an authorised officer must produce the officer's identity card to the person for inspection.

Note—

For a police officer, see the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 637.

- (4) However, the officer need not comply with subsection (2) if the officer reasonably believes that immediate entry to the place is required to ensure the effective exercise of powers under the order is not frustrated.

68 Court's other powers on adjournment of proceedings for child protection orders

- (1) On the adjournment of a proceeding for a child protection order, the Childrens Court may also make 1 or more of the following orders—
 - (a) an order requiring a written social assessment report about the child and the child's family be prepared and filed in the court;
 - (b) an order authorising a medical examination or treatment of the child and requiring a report of the examination or treatment be filed in the court;
- Note—*
- Section 97 applies to the medical examination or treatment.
- (c) subject to subsection (5), an order about the child's contact with the child's family during the adjournment;
 - (d) an order requiring the chief executive—
 - (i) to convene a family group meeting to develop or revise a case plan and file the plan in the court; or
 - (ii) to convene a family group meeting to consider, make recommendations about, or otherwise deal with, another matter relating to the child's wellbeing and protection and care needs;

[s 68A]

- (e) an order that a conference between the parties be held before the proceeding continues to decide the matters in dispute or to try to resolve the matters;
 - (f) an order under section 110 that the child be separately legally represented.
- (2) If the court makes an order under subsection (1)(a) or (b), the court must state the particular issues the report must address.
 - (3) Subsection (2) does not limit the issues that may be addressed in the report.
 - (4) Without limiting subsection (1)(c), an order mentioned in the paragraph may limit the child's contact with the child's family or provide for how the contact is to happen.
 - (5) The court must not make an order under subsection (1)(c) requiring the chief executive to supervise family contact with the child unless the chief executive agrees to supervise the contact.
 - (6) To remove any doubt, it is declared that the chief executive may be the subject of an order mentioned in subsection (1)(a), (b) or (c) even though the chief executive is not a party to the proceeding.

68A Access to information to prepare a court-ordered report

- (1) This section applies if, on an adjournment, the Childrens Court makes an order under section 66(4) or 68(1)(a) or (b) requiring that a report be prepared.
- (2) The court may order that a person preparing the report be permitted to view, or be given a copy of, a relevant document or other information before the court.

68B Interim contact orders

Section 99MA deals with particular circumstances in which the court may decide to make an order under section 67(1)(b) or 68(1)(c) while a tribunal proceeding is suspended.

Division 2 Court ordered conferences

69 Registrar to appoint chairperson and convene conference

- (1) If the Childrens Court orders a conference be held between the parties to a proceeding, the registrar of the court must—
 - (a) appoint a chairperson for the conference; and
 - (b) convene the conference to be held as soon as practicable after the order is made.
- (2) The chairperson must have the qualifications or experience prescribed under rules of court.

70 Attendance of parties

- (1) The chairperson, the chief executive and the parties must attend the conference.
- (2) However, subsection (1) does not require the child to attend the conference.
- (3) The parties may be represented by their legal representatives at the conference.
- (4) If the child is an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander child, an independent Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander entity for the child, or member of the entity, may attend the conference.
- (5) The public guardian may attend the conference.
- (6) No-one else can attend the conference without the chairperson's approval.

71 Communications inadmissible in evidence without consent

Anything said at the conference is inadmissible in a proceeding before any court other than with the consent of all the parties.

72 Report of conference

- (1) As soon as practicable after the conference is finished, the chairperson must file in the court a report of the conference containing the particulars prescribed under rules of court.
- (2) If the report states the parties have reached an agreement in relation to the application the subject of the proceeding and it is practicable for the application to be heard earlier than the adjournment date, the registrar must immediately—
 - (a) fix a new time and place for the hearing of the application; and
 - (b) advise the chairperson and the parties of the time and place for the hearing of the application.
- (3) If the new time and place for the hearing of the application is not the same day the conference finished, the registrar must confirm the advice by written notice.

Part 6 Obligations and rights under orders and care agreements

Division 1 Chief executive's obligations under child protection orders and care agreements

73 Chief executive's obligations about meeting child's protection and care needs under certain orders and agreements

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a child protection order is made for a child, other than an order granting long-term guardianship of the child; or
 - (b) a care agreement is entered into for a child.

- (2) The chief executive must take steps that are reasonable and practicable to help the child's family meet the child's protection and care needs.
- (3) For subsection (2), the chief executive must have regular contact with the child and the child's parents or other appropriate members of the child's family.

74 Charter of rights for a child in care

- (1) This section applies if the chief executive—
 - (a) has custody or guardianship of a child under a child protection order; or
 - (b) has custody of a child under a care agreement.
- (2) As far as reasonably practicable, the chief executive must ensure the charter of rights for a child in care in schedule 1 is complied with in relation to the child.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not limit another provision of this Act.
- (4) The chief executive must ensure the child—
 - (a) is told about the charter of rights and its effect; and
 - (b) is given written information about the charter of rights unless, having regard to the child's age or ability to understand, the chief executive reasonably believes the child would not be able to understand the information; and
 - (c) is told about the public guardian and other entities known to the chief executive that can help the child if the child considers that the charter of rights is not being complied with in relation to the child.

74A Chief executive's obligations to children under particular child protection orders

- (1) This section applies if either of the following orders is made in relation to a child—

[s 75]

- (a) a long-term guardianship order granting long-term guardianship of the child to a person other than the chief executive;
 - (b) a permanent care order.
- (2) The chief executive must ensure the child—
- (a) is told about the charter of rights for a child in care in schedule 1 and its effect; and
 - (b) is given written information about the charter of rights unless, having regard to the child's age or ability to understand, the chief executive reasonably believes the child would not be able to understand the information; and
 - (c) is told about the obligations of the child's long-term guardian or permanent guardian under section 79A; and
 - (d) is told about the public guardian and other entities known to the chief executive who can help the child if the child considers that the child's long-term guardian or permanent guardian is not complying with the guardian's obligations in relation to the child; and
 - (e) is told about the child's right to contact the chief executive if the child has any questions or concerns about the child's protection and care needs.

75 Transition to independence

- (1) This section applies to a person who is or has been a child in the custody or under the guardianship of the chief executive.
- (2) As far as practicable, the chief executive must—
 - (a) ensure help is available to assist the person in the transition from being a child in care to independence; and
 - (b) ensure the help is available to the person for the period starting when the person turns 15 and ending when the person turns 25.

- (3) Without limiting subsection (2)(a), the help may include the following—
- (a) help to access entitlements, including, for example, social security allowances or payments;
 - (b) help to access appropriate accommodation;
 - (c) help to access education and training;
 - (d) help to obtain employment;
 - (e) help to obtain legal advice;
 - (f) help to access health and community services, including, for example, specialist disability support services;
 - (g) support in establishing or maintaining relationships with the person’s family or carer;

Chapter 5A Service delivery coordination and information sharing

- (a) coordinating the delivery of services to children and families; and
- (b) sharing information, while protecting the confidentiality of the information.

159B Principles for coordinating service delivery and sharing information

The principles underlying this chapter are as follows—

- (b) the State is responsible for ensuring that children and families receive the family support services that they need in order to decrease the likelihood of the children becoming in need of protection;
- (c) the chief executive has the primary responsibility for investigating, assessing and responding to allegations of harm to children, including by making plans for their protection and care;
- (d) the chief executive, authorised officers, prescribed entities and service providers should contribute, within each entity's own sphere of responsibility, to assessing and meeting the protection and care needs of children and supporting their families;
- (e) children in need of protection, and children who may become in need of protection, and their families should receive coordinated services that meet their needs in a timely and effective way;
- (f) the entities mentioned in paragraph (d) should work collaboratively and in a way that respects the functions and expertise of each of the entities;
- (g) whenever safe, possible and practical, consent should be obtained before—
 - (i) providing, or planning to provide, a service, help or support to a child or a child's family to decrease the likelihood of the child becoming a child in need of protection; or
 - (ii) disclosing personal information about a person to someone else;
- (h) because a child's safety, wellbeing and best interests are paramount, the child's protection and care needs take precedence over the protection of an individual's privacy and the principle mentioned in paragraph (g);

- (i) before disclosing information about a person to someone else, an entity should consider whether disclosing the information is likely to adversely affect the safety, wellbeing and best interests of a child or the safety of another person.

159BA Who is a relevant child

In this chapter—

- (3) The purpose of this chapter is to provide for the transfer of the orders and proceedings between Queensland and other States, and between Queensland and New Zealand—
 - (a) so that children in need of protection may be protected if they move from one jurisdiction to another; and
 - (b) so that proceedings relating to the protection of a child may be decided, in a timely and expeditious way, in a court in the most appropriate jurisdiction.

- (4) The transfer of an order from one jurisdiction to another enables the law of the receiving jurisdiction to provide for the administration and enforcement of the order as if it were made in the receiving jurisdiction.
- (5) Similarly, the transfer of a proceeding from one jurisdiction to another enables the law of the receiving jurisdiction to provide for the proceeding to be heard and decided as if it had been started there.

199 Further guiding principle

- (1) This chapter must be administered under the principle that it is desirable for an order relating to the protection of a child to have effect, and to be enforced, in the State in which the child resides.
- (2) In exercising its jurisdiction or powers under this chapter, the Childrens Court must observe the principle mentioned in subsection (1).
- (3) This section does not limit the application of chapter 1, part 2, division 1 or section 104.

Division 2 Interpretation provisions about child protection orders

200 References to Queensland orders

If a child protection order is in force under this Act—

- (a) the order as in force in Queensland is referred to in this chapter as the home order; and
- (b) the order in the form in which it is proposed to be transferred to another State under this chapter is referred to in this chapter as the proposed interstate order.

201 Reference to child protection order includes certain orders of other States

- (1) This chapter uses the term ‘child protection order’ to refer not only to orders made under this Act, but also to certain orders made under the laws of other States.
- (2) Specifically, an order made under a child welfare law, or interstate law, of a participating State is a child protection order for this chapter if—
 - (a) the order provides—
 - (i) for the guardianship, custody or supervision of a child; or
 - (ii) for contact with a child; or
 - (iii) that a parent of the child must do or refrain from doing something directly related to the child’s protection; and
 - (b) the order is made in favour of, or gives responsibility to, any of the following entities of the participating State—
 - (i) a government department or statutory authority;
 - (ii) a person who is head of, is employed in, or otherwise holds an office or other position in, a government department or statutory authority;
 - (iii) an organisation or the chief executive of an organisation, whether or not the person’s position is given the name of chief executive;
 - (iv) a Minister; and
 - (c) the order is not made on an interim basis or for the purpose of assessing a child’s protective needs.
- (3) A reference in this chapter to a child protection order, if the order is made under a law of another State—
 - (a) is a reference to the order in the form in which it is transferred, or proposed to be transferred, to Queensland; and

- (b) includes a reference to a document, prepared under the law of the other State, stating the conditions applying to the order on its transfer to Queensland.

Division 3 Corresponding laws of other States

202 Meaning of law for div 3

- (1) In this division—
law includes part of a law.
- (2) Also, for the application of the Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 14H to a regulation made under this division, the definition law for that section includes a law of New Zealand.

203 Child welfare laws

A regulation may declare a law of another State about the protection of children to be a child welfare law of that State.

204 Interstate laws

- (1) If the Minister is satisfied a law of another State substantially corresponds to this chapter, the Minister may recommend that the Governor in Council—
 - (a) declare the law to be an interstate law of that State; and
 - (b) declare that State to be a participating State; and
 - (c) declare the holder (from time to time) of a stated office to be the interstate officer for that State.
- (2) The Governor in Council may make the declaration by regulation.

Division 4 Meaning of parent

205 Meaning of parent for ch 7

In this chapter—

parent, of a child, means each of the following persons—

- (a) the child's mother or father;
- (b) a person in whose favour a residence order or contact order for the child is in operation under the Family Law Act 1975 (Cwlth);
- (c) a person, other than the chief executive, having custody or guardianship of the child under—
 - (i) a law of the State, other than this Act; or
 - (ii) a law of another State;
- (d) a long-term guardian of the child;
- (e) a permanent guardian of the child.

Part 2 Transfer of an order to another State

Division 1 Orders that may be transferred

206 Orders that may be transferred

A child protection order in force under this Act may be transferred to a participating State under this part, unless the order is—

- (a) an interim order under section 67; or
- (b) a long-term guardianship order granting long-term guardianship of a child to someone other than the chief executive; or
- (c) a permanent care order.

Division 2 Administrative transfers

207 Chief executive may transfer order

- (1) The chief executive may transfer a child protection order to a participating State if—
 - (a) the chief executive is satisfied an order to the same or a similar effect as the home order could be made under a child welfare law of that State; and
 - (b) the home order is not the subject of an appeal under chapter 3, part 4 and, if no appeal has been started, the time for starting an appeal has expired; and
 - (c) the home order is not the subject of an application under section 65; and
 - (d) the interstate officer for that State has given written consent to the transfer and to the provisions of the proposed interstate order; and
 - (e) each person whose consent to the transfer is required under section 209 has consented; and
 - (f) the chief executive has given the notices required under section 210.
- (2) For subsection (1)(a), in deciding whether an order to the same or a similar effect as the home order could be made under a child welfare law of the participating State, the chief executive must not take into account the period for which an order of that type could have been made in that State.

208 Provisions of proposed interstate order

- (1) The provisions of the proposed interstate order are the provisions decided by the chief executive under this section.
- (2) Before transferring the child protection order, the chief executive may vary the home order in a way that the chief executive is satisfied is reasonably necessary because of the transfer.

Example—

A child protection order is made under chapter 2, part 4, granting short-term guardianship of a child to the chief executive.

The child moves to Victoria. The chief executive decides to transfer the order to Victoria. In deciding the provisions of the proposed interstate order, the chief executive varies the home order so that it grants short-term guardianship of the child to the interstate officer for Victoria.

- (3) The proposed interstate order—
 - (a) must be of the same or a similar effect as the home order; and
 - (b) may only include provisions that could be included in an order of that type under a child welfare law of the participating State.
- (4) The chief executive must state in the proposed interstate order the time for which it is to have effect in the participating State.
- (5) The stated time must be the lesser of—
 - (a) the time for which the home order would have effect if it were not transferred to that State; and
 - (b) the maximum time for which an order of that type, made under a child welfare law of that State, could be given effect.

209 Persons whose consent is required

- (1) The order may not be transferred unless all the following persons give written consent to the transfer and to the provisions of the proposed interstate order—
 - (a) the child's parents;
 - (b) if the child is at least 12 years, the child;
 - (c) if the child is in the care of a carer who has moved, or is moving, with the child to the participating State, the carer.
- (2) Before obtaining a person's consent under subsection (1), the chief executive must—

- (a) tell the person why the chief executive considers it is appropriate to transfer the order; and
 - (b) explain to the person the terms and effect of the proposed interstate order.

210 Notice of decision

- (1) If the chief executive decides to transfer the order, the chief executive must give a written notice of the decision and a copy of the proposed interstate order to each of the following persons—
 - (a) the child;
 - (b) each person whose consent to the transfer is required;
 - (c) anyone else who the chief executive considers ought to be notified of the decision.
- (2) The notice must be given within 3 business days after the day the decision is made (the decision day).
- (3) The notice must—
 - (a) state the decision day; and
 - (b) state that anyone who wishes to make a judicial review application in relation to the decision must make the application, and give notice of the application to the chief executive, within 28 days after the decision day.

211 Limited time for applying for judicial review

- (1) Despite the Judicial Review Act 1991, sections 26 and 46, a person may only make a judicial review application in relation to the decision to transfer the order within 28 days after the decision day.
- (2) The Supreme Court may not extend the time stated in this section for making the application.
- (3) The application is taken not to have been made until notice of the application is given to the chief executive.

[s 212]

- (4) The application stays the operation of the chief executive's decision.

Division 3 Judicial transfers

212 Application for transfer

The litigation director may apply to the Childrens Court for an order transferring a child protection order to a participating State.

213 Procedural matters

The following provisions apply to the application as if any reference in the provisions to a child protection order were a reference to an order transferring a child protection order to a participating State—

- section 54(2)
- sections 55 to 58
- chapter 2, part 5
- chapter 3, parts 1 to 3.

214 Court may transfer order

On receiving the application, the Childrens Court may order the transfer of the child protection order to the participating State if—

- (a) the home order is not the subject of an appeal under chapter 3, part 4 and, if no appeal has been started, the time for starting an appeal has expired; and
- (b) the interstate officer for that State has given written consent to the transfer and to the provisions of the proposed interstate order; and
- (ba) an appropriate case plan has been prepared under chapter 2, part 3A; and

- (c) a family group meeting has been held or reasonable attempts to hold a family group meeting have been made; and
 - (d) if the application is contested, a conference between the parties has been held or reasonable attempts to hold a conference have been made; and
 - (e) the child's wishes or views, if able to be ascertained, have been made known to the court.

215 Provisions of proposed interstate order

- (1) If the Childrens Court decides to order the transfer of the child protection order to the participating State, it must decide the provisions of the proposed interstate order.
- (2) The court must be satisfied—
 - (a) the proposed interstate order is an order that could be made under a child welfare law of that State; and
 - (b) the protection sought to be achieved by the proposed interstate order is unlikely to be achieved by an order on less intrusive terms; and
 - (c) the proposed interstate order—
 - (i) is of the same or a similar effect as the home order; or
 - (ii) is otherwise in the child's best interests.
- (3) In deciding the provisions of the proposed interstate order, the court must—
 - (a) decide the time for which it would be appropriate for the proposed interstate order to have effect in the participating State; and
 - (b) state the time in the proposed interstate order.
- (4) The stated time must not be more than the maximum time for which an order of that type, made under a child welfare law of that State, could be given effect in that State.

- (5) In deciding whether the proposed interstate order is of the same or a similar effect as the home order, the court must not take into account the time for which the proposed interstate order is to have effect in the participating State.

216 Notice of decision

- (1) This section applies if the court decides the application by ordering the transfer of the child protection order.
- (2) As soon as practicable after the court makes the decision, the chief executive must give to each party to the proceeding for the application—
- (a) a copy of the court's order; and
 - (b) a written notice—
 - (i) explaining the terms and effect of the court's order; and
 - (ii) stating that the party may appeal against the decision within 10 business days after the party receives the notice; and
 - (iii) stating how to appeal.

Division 4 Effect of transfer and registration

217 Application of div 4

This division applies if a child protection order is transferred to a participating State under this part and registered under an interstate law of that State.

218 Order ceases to have effect under this Act

The order ceases to have effect under this Act.

219 Order may be revived under this Act

- (1) If the registration of the order is revoked under an interstate law of the participating State before its original expiry day, the home order resumes having effect under this Act until its original expiry day.
- (2) The home order does not resume having effect under this Act if—
 - (a) the transferred order (rather than its registration) is revoked under a child welfare law of that State; or
 - (b) the transferred order expires.
- (3) In this section—

original expiry day, of an order, means the day the order would cease to have effect under this Act if it were not transferred under this part.

Part 3 Transfer of an order to Queensland

220 Application of pt 3

This part applies to the transfer of a child protection order to Queensland, from a participating State, under an interstate law of that State.

221 Chief executive's consent to transfer

- (1) The order may not be transferred to Queensland unless the chief executive gives written consent to the transfer and to the provisions of the order.
- (2) The chief executive must give the required consent, if asked by the interstate officer for the participating State, unless the chief executive is satisfied—
 - (a) the order includes a provision that may not be included in an order made under chapter 2, part 4; or

- (b) the transfer or the provisions of the order would not be in the child's best interests.

222 Filing and registration of order

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) the chief executive gives written consent to the transfer and to the provisions of the order; and
 - (b) the chief executive is satisfied that, under the interstate law—
 - (i) the period for appealing, or applying for review of, the interstate transfer decision relating to the transfer has expired; and
 - (ii) the decision is not the subject of an appeal or application for review; and
 - (iii) the decision is not stayed.
- (2) As soon as practicable after receiving a copy of the order, the chief executive must file the copy in the Childrens Court.
- (3) On the filing of the copy, the registrar of the court must register the order.
- (4) Immediately after registering the order, the registrar must notify the interstate officer for the participating State and the registrar of the Childrens Court in that State.

223 Effect of registration

- (1) The order is taken to be a child protection order of the Childrens Court in Queensland made on the day of its registration, except for the purposes of an appeal against the order.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the order may be enforced, varied, revoked, or extended in operation, as if it had been made under chapter 2, part 4.

224 Revocation of registration

- (1) Any of the following persons may apply to the Childrens Court to revoke the registration of the order—
 - (a) the chief executive;
 - (b) the child the subject of the order;
 - (c) a parent of the child;
 - (d) a party to a proceeding in which the interstate transfer decision was made.
- (2) The registrar must immediately give a copy of the application to—
 - (a) the interstate officer for the participating State; and
 - (b) each person mentioned in subsection (1).
- (3) The court may grant the application and revoke the registration only if it is satisfied that, when the order was registered—
 - (a) the period for appealing, or applying for review of, the interstate transfer decision had not expired; or
 - (b) the decision was the subject of an appeal or application for review; or
 - (c) the decision was stayed.
- (4) Immediately after the registration of the order is revoked, the registrar must—
 - (a) notify the interstate officer for the participating State and the registrar of the Childrens Court in that State; and
 - (b) return the copy of the order that was filed in the court under section 222.
- (5) Revocation of the registration of the order does not prevent a re-registration of the order.

Note—

Section 195 deals with compliance with provisions about giving information.

- (2) However, if it is not practicable to serve the copy personally, a copy of the application may be served on a parent by leaving it at, or by sending it by post to, the parent's residential address last known to the chief executive.
- (3) The copy of the application served under this section must state—
 - (a) when and where the application is to be heard; and
 - (b) that the application may be heard and decided even though the parent does not appear in court.

228 Court may transfer proceeding

On receiving the application, the court may order the transfer of the proceeding to the participating State if the interstate officer for that State has given written consent to the transfer.

229 Considerations for Childrens Court

- (1) In deciding whether to order the transfer, the court must have regard to the following matters—
 - (a) whether there are any child protection orders for the child in force in the participating State;
 - (b) whether any other proceedings relating to the child are pending, or have been heard and decided, under a child welfare law in the participating State;
 - (c) where the matters giving rise to the proceedings happened;
 - (d) the place of residence, and likely future place of residence, of the child, the child's parents and other persons significant to the child.
- (2) This section does not limit sections 104 and 199.

230 Court may make interim order

- (1) If the Childrens Court orders the transfer of the proceeding to the participating State, it may also make an interim order—
 - (a) granting custody of the child to any person; or
 - (b) giving responsibility for the child’s supervision to the interstate officer for that State or another person in that State to whom the responsibility may be given under a child welfare law of that State.
- (2) The interim order must state the time, not more than 30 days, for which it has effect.

231 Notice of decision to transfer

- (1) This section applies if the court decides the application by ordering the transfer of the proceeding.
- (2) As soon as practicable after the court makes the decision, the chief executive must give to each party to the proceeding for the application—
 - (a) a copy of the court’s order; and
 - (b) a written notice—
 - (i) explaining the terms and effect of the court’s order; and
 - (ii) stating that the party may appeal against the decision within 10 business days after the party receives the notice; and
 - (iii) stating how to appeal.

232 Effect of registration of order

If the court’s order transferring the proceeding to the participating State is registered in that State’s Childrens Court under its interstate law—

- (a) the proceeding is discontinued in the Childrens Court in Queensland; and

- (b) any interim order made by the Childrens Court in Queensland on ordering the transfer ceases to have effect under this Act.

Part 5 Transfer of proceedings to Queensland

233 Application of pt 5

This part applies to the transfer of a child protection proceeding to Queensland, from a participating State, under an interstate law of that State.

234 Chief executive's consent to transfer

- (1) The proceeding may not be transferred to Queensland unless the chief executive gives written consent to the transfer.
- (2) The chief executive must give the consent, if asked by the interstate officer for the participating State, unless the chief executive is satisfied the transfer would not be in the child's best interests.

235 Filing and registration of interstate transfer decision

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) the chief executive gives written consent to the transfer; and
 - (b) the chief executive is satisfied—
 - (i) the period for appealing, or applying for review of, the interstate transfer decision relating to the transfer has expired; and
 - (ii) the decision is not the subject of an appeal or application for review; and
 - (iii) the decision is not stayed.

[s 236]

- (2) As soon as practicable after receiving a copy of the decision, the chief executive must file the copy in the Childrens Court.
- (3) Also, if an interstate government officer of the participating State is a party to the proceeding, the chief executive must file in the Childrens Court a notice stating that the litigation director is a party to the proceeding in place of the interstate government officer.
- (4) If there is an associated interim order in force, the chief executive must also file a copy of the associated interim order in the Childrens Court as soon as practicable after receiving the copy.
- (5) On the filing of a copy of an interstate transfer decision or associated interim order under this section, the registrar of the court must register the decision or order.
- (6) Immediately after registering the decision or order, the registrar must notify the interstate officer for the participating State and the registrar of the Childrens Court in that State.
- (7) In this section—

interstate government officer, of a participating State, means the interstate officer for that State or another officer of a department of government of that State.

236 Effect of registration of interstate transfer decision

- (1) The transferred proceeding is taken to be a proceeding started in the Childrens Court in Queensland on the day of registration of the interstate transfer decision and may be continued in the court.
- (2) The litigation director is a party to the proceeding in place of the interstate government officer for the participating State.
- (3) The court—
 - (a) is not bound by any finding of fact made by the Childrens Court in the participating State; and

- (b) may inform itself on a matter using a transcript of the proceeding in that court or evidence tendered in the proceeding.

237 Effect of registration of associated interim order

- (1) An associated interim order filed in the Childrens Court in Queensland is taken to be an order of the court made on the day of its registration, except for the purposes of an appeal against the order.
- (2) The order may be enforced as if it had been made by the court under section 67, even if it includes provisions that could not otherwise be included in an order under that section.
- (3) However, the court may not extend the operation of the order or vary the order in any other way.
- (4) This section does not limit the court's powers to revoke the order or make another order under section 67.

238 Revocation of registration

- (1) Any of the following persons may apply to the Childrens Court to revoke the registration of an interstate transfer decision or associated interim order under this part—
 - (a) the chief executive;
 - (b) the litigation director;
 - (c) the child the subject of the proceeding;
 - (d) a parent of the child;
 - (e) a party to the proceeding;
 - (f) a person entitled under the interstate law of the participating State to receive notice of the proceeding.
- (2) The registrar must immediately give a copy of the application to—
 - (a) the interstate officer for the participating State; and
 - (b) each person mentioned in subsection (1).

- (3) The court may grant the application and revoke the registration only if it is satisfied that, when the interstate transfer decision or associated interim order was registered—
 - (a) the period for appealing, or applying for review of, the decision or order had not expired; or
 - (b) the decision or order was the subject of an appeal or application for review; or
 - (c) the decision or order was stayed.
- (4) Immediately after the registration of the decision or order is revoked, the registrar must—
 - (a) notify the interstate officer for the participating State and the registrar of the Childrens Court in that State; and
 - (b) return the documents relating to the decision or order that were filed in the court under section 235.
- (5) To remove doubt, it is declared that revocation of the registration of the interstate transfer decision or associated interim order does not prevent a re-registration of the decision or order.

Part 6 Miscellaneous

Division 1 Appeals

239 Appeal against decision of Childrens Court

- (1) This section applies to a decision of the Childrens Court (the original decision) on an application for an order transferring a child protection order or child protection proceeding to a participating State.
- (2) A party to the proceeding for the application may appeal to the appellate court against the decision.
- (3) The appeal is started by filing a written notice of appeal with the registrar of the appellate court.

- (4) The appellant must file the notice of appeal, and serve a copy of the notice on the other persons entitled to appeal against the decision, within the following times—
 - (a) if the original decision is to order the transfer of a child protection order—within 10 business days after receiving the notice under section 216;
 - (b) if the original decision is to order the transfer of a child protection proceeding—within 10 business days after receiving the notice under section 231;
 - (c) otherwise—within 10 business days after the decision.
 - (5) The appellate court may not extend the period for filing and serving the notice of appeal.
 - (6) The notice of appeal must state fully the grounds of the appeal and the facts relied on.
 - (7) The original decision is stayed until the appellate court decides the appeal.
 - (8) The appeal must be decided on the evidence and proceedings before the Childrens Court.
 - (9) However, the appellate court may order that the appeal be heard afresh, in whole or part.
 - (10) The appellate court must hear and decide the appeal as soon as possible.
 - (11) In deciding the appeal, the appellate court may—
 - (a) confirm the original decision; or
 - (b) vary the original decision; or
 - (c) set aside the original decision and substitute another decision.

240 Interim orders

- (1) This section applies if a person appeals against an order transferring a child protection proceeding to a participating State.

[s 241]

- (2) If an interim order is in force under section 230—
 - (a) the interim order is not affected merely because of the appeal; but
 - (b) the appellate court may—
 - (i) stay the operation of the interim order; or
 - (ii) vary or revoke the interim order; or
 - (iii) extend the time for which the interim order has effect.
- (3) Also, the appellate court may make any interim order that could be made by the Childrens Court under section 230.

Division 2 Court files

241 Transfer of court file

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a court has made an order transferring a child protection order or proceeding to a participating State; and
 - (b) the time, if any, for an appeal against the court's order has expired; and
 - (c) the court's order is not subject to a stay.
- (2) The registrar of the court must give the court file for the child protection order or proceeding to the registrar of the Childrens Court of the participating State.

Chapter 7A Internal agency reviews following child deaths or injuries

Part 1 Preliminary

245 Overview of chapter and purpose of reviews

- (1) This chapter provides for a system under which, if a child dies or suffers serious physical injury after a relevant agency has been involved with the child, the agency's head must carry out a review of its involvement.
- (2) The system also provides for a review of the office of the litigation director's involvement in a matter concerning the child if the litigation director has performed a litigation function.
- (3) The purpose of the reviews is to promote the safety and wellbeing of children who come into contact with the child protection system by—
 - (a) facilitating ongoing learning and improvement in the provision of services by the agencies and the litigation director; and
 - (b) promoting the accountability of the agencies and the litigation director; and
 - (c) supporting collaboration and joint learning by the agencies.
- (4) In the case of child deaths, review reports are given to an independent board under the Family and Child Commission Act 2014, part 3A, which carries out further reviews of relevant systems.

245A Principles underlying chapter

The principles underlying this chapter are—

[s 245B]

- (a) relevant agencies should work collaboratively, and in a way that respects each others' functions and expertise, to achieve the purpose of internal agency reviews; and
- (b) if a relevant agency is carrying out an internal agency review, other relevant agencies should share information with the reviewing agency in a timely way, and to the extent that is appropriate, having regard to—
 - (i) the relevance of the information to the review; and
 - (ii) the extent to which sharing the information would advance the purpose of the review; and
 - (iii) the effect of sharing the information on the safety, wellbeing and best interests of children; and
- (c) a relevant agency that has carried out, or is carrying out, an internal agency review should share the outcomes of the review with other relevant agencies in a timely way, and to the extent that is appropriate, having regard to—
 - (i) the relevance of the outcomes to the other agencies' functions; and
 - (ii) the extent to which sharing the outcomes would advance the purpose of the review; and
 - (iii) the effect of sharing the outcomes on the safety, wellbeing and best interests of children.

- (1) This section applies if, under section 245E or 245F, the chief executive is required to carry out a review about the department's involvement with the child.
