Weapons Act 1990

An Act to consolidate and amend the laws regulating or prohibiting the purchase, possession, use, carrying and sale of certain weapons and articles and to provide for the prevention of the misuse of weapons and for related purposes

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Weapons Act 1990.

2 Application of Act

(1) This Act does not apply to a person—

(a) who is—

- (i) a member of the armed forces of the Commonwealth as prescribed by the Defence Act 1903 (Cwlth) in respect of that person's possession or use of a weapon as part of performance of duty as such member; or
- (ii) a member of the armed forces of any government associated with the armed forces of the Commonwealth in respect of that person's possession or use of a weapon as part of performance of duty as such member; or
- (iii) a member in a cadet force under the Cadet Forces Regulations (Cwlth) in relation to the member's possession and use of a weapon when participating in the activities of the cadet force in which the person is a member; or

Editor's notes—

1 Cadet Forces Regulations 1977 (Cwlth), section 2—

cadet force means the Australian Navy Cadets, the Australian Army Cadets or the Australian Air Force Cadets.

member means an officer, instructor or cadet in a cadet force.

2 The Cadet Forces Regulations 1977 are in force under the Defence Act 1903 (Cwlth), the Naval Defence Act 1910 (Cwlth) and the Air Force Act 1923 (Cwlth).

- (b) who is a member of the federal police as prescribed by the Australian Federal Police Act 1979 (Cwlth) or member of the police service of any other State or Territory in respect of that person's possession or use of a weapon as part of performance of duty as such member or when performing a function for the Queensland Police Service at the request of the commissioner of the Queensland Police Service; or
- (c) who is an officer of Customs in the Australian Border Force in relation to the person's possession or use of a weapon when performing the duties of an officer; or
- (d) who is an officer of the Australian Protective Service under the Australian Protective Service Act 1987 (Cwlth) in relation to the person's possession or use of a weapon when performing the duties of an officer; or
- (e) who is a police officer, special constable or trainee member of the Queensland police service, or any other member of the Queensland police service authorised by the commissioner—
 - (i) in respect of the person's possession or use of a weapon as part of the performance of the person's functions as a member of the Queensland police service; or
 - (ii) while the person is not on duty as a member of the Queensland police service in relation to the person's possession or use of a weapon, if the person is acting in accordance with the directions of the commissioner in relation to the off-duty possession and use of weapons; or

- (g) who is undergoing an approved training course in respect of the person's possession or use of a weapon as part of the training course; or
 - (h) whilst actually engaged in the manufacture, assembly or handling of any weapon for or on behalf of the Government of the Commonwealth or any State or Territory; or
 - (i) whilst engaged in scientific or experimental work with any weapon under an authority in that behalf granted by the Minister; or
 - (k) being a person over the prescribed age who is the owner, lessee, hirer or licensee of any boat, ship, or aircraft in respect of possession on board or in connection with, that boat, ship or aircraft of a recognised safety device, signalling apparatus or ammunition thereof as part of and solely for the use as part of the safety equipment of that boat, ship or aircraft; or
 - (l) who is actually engaged in the warehousing or transport under consignment of merchandise for or on behalf of—
 - (i) a licensed dealer; or
 - (ii) the armed forces of the Commonwealth; or
 - (iii) any authority of the Commonwealth or State;in respect of possession of merchandise consigned thereto or therefrom; or
 - (m) to whom the commissioner of the police service in the prescribed manner has granted an exemption from the application of those provisions of this Act specified therein in respect of the application of those provisions.
- (2) This Act does not apply to a government service entity or an employee of a government service entity in relation to the entity's or employee's acquisition, possession or use of a weapon as part of the performance of—

- (a) the functions of the entity or employee; or
 - (b) if the functions of the entity or employee are prescribed under a regulation—those functions of the entity or employee that are prescribed.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not exempt a government service entity or an employee of a government service entity from—
- (a) the application of section 60 or provisions of a regulation dealing with the safe handling and storage of weapons; or
 - (b) the application of the remaining provisions of this Act to the possession or use of a weapon unless the entity or employee complies with the conditions stated in subsection (4).
- (4) The conditions are—
- (a) for a government service entity—
 - (i) the entity notifies the commissioner, in the approved form, of the acquisition or sale of a weapon within 14 days after acquiring or selling the weapon; and
 - (ii) the entity keeps, on a register in a form approved by the commissioner and kept for the purpose, the following details—
 - (A) where the weapon is stored;
 - (B) the name of each employee to whom a weapon is issued and the date and time when the weapon is issued to the employee and returned by the employee; and
 - (iii) at least 14 days before the entity issues the weapon to a particular employee for the first time, it gives the commissioner the information about the employee the commissioner reasonably needs to be satisfied the employee is a fit and proper person to possess the weapon; and

- (iv) the entity issues the weapon to an employee only if it is satisfied—
 - (A) the performance of the employee’s functions necessarily requires the employee to have possession of the weapon; and
 - (B) the employee holds a firearms licence; and
 - (C) the employee is properly trained in the use of the weapon; and
- (b) for an employee of a government service entity—the employee holds a firearms licence.
- (5) An employee mentioned in subsection (4)(a)(iv) may possess any category of weapon in the performance of the employee’s functions even though the employee is not licensed to possess the category of weapon.
- (6) The condition mentioned in subsection (4)(a)(iv)(B) does not apply to a prescribed service entity.
- (7) The condition mentioned in subsection (4)(b) does not apply to an employee of a prescribed service entity.
- (8) The operation of this section is subject to the Domestic and Family Violence Protection Act 2012, section 83.
- (9) In this section—

Australian Border Force see the Australian Border Force Act 2015 (Cwlth), section 4(1).

government service entity means—

- (a) a department of Government of the State; or
- (b) a museum under the control of the Government of the State or the Commonwealth; or
- (c) another entity prescribed under a regulation that—
 - (i) is established under an Act or under State authorisation for a public or State purpose; or

- (ii) is engaged by the State or an entity mentioned in subparagraph (i) to provide a service for the State or entity;

but does not include the Queensland Police Service.

officer of Customs see the Customs Act 1901 (Cwlth), section 4(1).

prescribed service entity means an entity prescribed for the definition government service entity, paragraph (c).

3 Principles and object of Act

- (1) The principles underlying this Act are as follows—
 - (a) weapon possession and use are subordinate to the need to ensure public and individual safety;
 - (b) public and individual safety is improved by imposing strict controls on the possession of weapons and requiring the safe and secure storage and carriage of weapons.
- (2) The object of this Act is to prevent the misuse of weapons.

4 How object is to be achieved for firearms

The object of this Act is to be achieved for firearms by—

- (a) prohibiting the possession and use of all automatic and self-loading rifles and automatic and self-loading shotguns except in special circumstances; and
- (b) establishing an integrated licensing and registration scheme for all firearms; and
- (c) requiring each person who wishes to possess a firearm under a licence to demonstrate a genuine reason for possessing the firearm; and
- (d) providing strict requirements that must be satisfied for—
 - (i) licences authorising possession of firearms; and

- (ii) the acquisition and sale of firearms; and
- (e) ensuring that firearms are stored and carried in a safe and secure way.

5 Definitions

The dictionary in schedule 2 defines particular words used in this Act.

6 Meaning of heirloom firearm

An heirloom firearm is a firearm, other than a category R weapon, ownership of which has passed to a person by testamentary disposition or the laws of succession.

6A What is a replica

- (1) A replica of a weapon is—
 - (a) a reasonable facsimile or copy of a weapon, even if it is not capable of discharging a projectile or substance; or
 - (b) a category A, B or C weapon that has been rendered permanently inoperable; or
 - (c) a hand grenade that is inert.
- (2) A replica—
 - (a) of a particular weapon—means a reasonable facsimile or copy of the weapon, even if it is not capable of discharging a projectile or substance; or
 - (b) of a spear gun, longbow or crossbow—means a reasonable facsimile or copy of a spear gun, longbow or crossbow even if it is not capable of discharging a projectile; or
 - (c) of a thing prescribed under a regulation—means anything prescribed under a regulation to be a replica of the thing.

6B Meaning of security guard

(1) A security guard is a person who patrols, protects, watches over or guards (protects) the person's property or other persons or other person's property—

- (a) in the course of carrying on a business; or
- (b) in the course of employment.

Example—

A jeweller transporting jewellery in the course of carrying on a business who does not engage someone else to guard the jewellery while it is being transported is a 'security guard'.

Note—

Section 123 provides that a person must not, in performing duties as a security guard, physically possess a weapon unless the person holds a security licence (guard).

(2) However, the following persons are not security guards—

- (a) a person who protects property if the protection is carried out in the course of primary production;
- (b) a person, other than a security organisation, who engages someone else to protect property for the person.

6C Meaning of public monument

(1) A public monument is a thing that is—

- (a) mentioned in the Weapons Categories Regulation 1997, section 8(1)(a), (c), (i) or (j); and
- (b) permanently incapable of being discharged; and
- (c) permanently and lawfully displayed in a public place for memorial or commemorative purposes.

Examples—

- permanently deactivated WWI artillery permanently displayed in the foyer or grounds, open to the public, of an RSL club
- a permanently deactivated Bofors anti-aircraft gun mounted on a concrete platform in a public park

- (2) For subsection (1)(c), a thing is permanently displayed only if the thing is displayed in a way that prevents its removal by an unauthorised person.
 - (3) In this section—
public place includes a place that can be seen from a public place.

7 How a firearm is made permanently inoperable

- (1) A firearm is made permanently inoperable if the firearm is modified in the way prescribed under a regulation to make it incapable of being discharged.
- (2) However, a firearm is not taken to be permanently inoperable unless a licensed armourer or a person approved by the commissioner for this subsection certifies, in the approved form, the firearm as being incapable of being discharged.
- (3) The commissioner may approve a person for subsection (2) only if the commissioner is satisfied the person has the necessary expertise or experience to certify that a firearm is incapable of being discharged.

8 How a firearm is made temporarily inoperable

A firearm is made temporarily inoperable—

- (a) for a firearm designed to allow its bolt, breech block, firing pin or other integral part of the firing mechanism to be removed—if the part is removed and securely stored separately from the firearm; and
- (b) for another firearm—if the firearm's trigger is secured by a trigger lock and the lock's key is securely stored separately from the firearm.

8A Notes in text

A note in the text of this Act is part of the Act.

Part 2 Licences

9 Issue, renewal, endorsement and alteration of licences

A licence may be issued, renewed, endorsed or altered only by an authorised officer.

10 Limitations on issue of licence

- (1) A licence may be issued only to—
 - (a) an individual under subsection (2); or
 - (b) a body under subsection (3).
- (2) A licence may be issued to an individual only if the person—
 - (a) is—
 - (i) for a licence other than a minor's licence—an adult; or
 - (ii) for a minor's licence—at least 11 years and otherwise within the age group prescribed under a regulation for the licence; and
 - (b) has, under section 10A, an adequate knowledge of safety practices for the use, storage and maintenance of the weapon or category of weapon the possession of which is to be authorised by the licence; and
 - (c) has access to secure storage facilities for the weapon or category of weapon possession of which is to be authorised by the licence; and
 - (d) is not prevented under this or another Act or by an order of a Magistrates Court or another court from holding the licence; and
 - (e) is a fit and proper person to hold a licence; and
 - (f) has a reason mentioned in section 11 to possess the weapon or category of weapon; and
 - (g) resides only in Queensland.

- (2A) Subsection (2)(g) does not apply to a person who—
- (a) for a person who resides in a State adjoining Queensland—
 - (i) satisfies the authorised officer that the person has a genuine reason for possessing a weapon for which a licence is required under this Act; and
 - (ii) is not disqualified from obtaining a similar licence in the adjoining State; or
 - (b) for a person who resides in a State other than an adjoining State but whose main place of residence is Queensland—is not disqualified from obtaining a similar licence in the other State.
- (2B) Also, subsection (2)(g) does not apply to a person who—
- (a) resides outside Queensland and intends visiting Queensland to engage in an activity that is a reason for possession of a weapon under section 11; and
 - (b) is entitled by law (whether or not under a licence) to possess and use a firearm or type of firearm in the State or country where the person usually resides; and
 - (c) applies for a licence prescribed under section 12(k) for visitors to Queensland.
- (3) A licence may be issued to a body, whether incorporated or unincorporated, only if—
- (a) for a licence to be issued to an approved shooting club—
 - (i) it is endorsed with the name of an individual, who is a member of the club's governing body and satisfies the requirements of subsection (2)(a) to (e), as the club's representative in the conduct of its business or affairs; and
 - (ii) it is endorsed with the names and addresses of the individuals who are responsible for the safekeeping of the weapons or category of weapons possession of which is to be authorised by the licence when not in use by members of that club; or

- (b) for a licence to be issued to another body, only if—
 - (i) the body has a reason mentioned in section 11 to possess a weapon; and
 - (ii) it is endorsed with the name of an individual, who satisfies the requirements of subsection (2)(a) to (e), as the body's representative in the conduct of its business or affairs.
- (4) A licence enabling the licensee to carry on a business may be issued only if it is endorsed with the place at which the business is to be carried on.
- (5) If the business is to be carried on at more than 1 place, a separate application for each place must be made and a separate licence for each place issued.
- (6) In this section—

similar licence, for a weapon in an adjoining or other State, means a licence, permit or authority issued under the law of the other State entitling the person to possession of the weapon.

10A Adequate knowledge of weapon

- (1) For section 10(2)(b), a person has an adequate knowledge of safety practices for the use, storage and maintenance of a weapon, or category of weapon, the possession of which is to be authorised by a licence (the new licence) if the person complies with subsection (2), (3) or (4).
- (2) The person complies with this subsection if the person satisfies the commissioner that the person has completed, within 1 year before the day the person applies for the issue of the new licence—
 - (a) if the new licence is a security licence (guard)—
 - (i) an approved safety training course (security guard); or

- (ii) a course in safety training for weapons conducted in another State that the commissioner is satisfied is at least equivalent to an approved safety training course (security guard); or
 - (b) if the new licence is not a security licence (guard)—
 - (i) an approved safety training course (general); or
 - (ii) a course in safety training for weapons conducted in another State that the commissioner is satisfied is at least equivalent to an approved safety training course (general).
 - (3) The person complies with this subsection if—
 - (a) within 1 year immediately before the day the person made the application for the new licence, the person was a licensee; and
 - (b) the licence (the previous licence) held by the person as a licensee was no longer in force when the person made the application for the new licence; and
 - (c) it was not a reason for the previous licence being no longer in force that the licence had been suspended or revoked under this Act; and
 - (d) the previous licence was a licence of 1 of the following classes—
 - (i) collector's licence (heirloom) or (weapons);
 - (ii) concealable firearms licence;
 - (iii) firearms licence;
 - (iv) minor's licence.
 - (4) The person complies with this subsection if the person is the holder of a current licence, equivalent to the new licence, issued under the law of another State or country.

10AA Approval of training courses

- (1) The commissioner may approve a course as a safety training course (general) if the commissioner is satisfied the course—

- (a) is about the safe use, storage and maintenance of a weapon that is authorised to be possessed under a licence other than a security licence (guard); and
 - (b) complies with the requirements prescribed under a regulation.
- (2) The commissioner may approve a course as a safety training course (security guard) if the commissioner is satisfied the course—
 - (a) is about the safe use, storage and maintenance of either or both of the following—
 - (i) a weapon that is authorised to be possessed under a security licence (guard);
 - (ii) a restricted item; and
 - (b) complies with the requirements prescribed under a regulation.
- (3) The commissioner must notify the approval of a course under subsection (1) or (2) on the QPS website.
- (4) Failure to comply with subsection (3) does not affect the validity of the approval.

10B Fit and proper person—licensees

- (1) In deciding or considering, for the issue, renewal, suspension or revocation of a licence, whether a person is, or is no longer, a fit and proper person to hold a licence, an authorised officer must consider, among other things—
 - (a) the mental and physical fitness of the person; and
 - (b) whether a domestic violence order has been made, police protection notice issued or release conditions imposed against the person; and
 - (c) whether the person has stated anything in or in connection with an application for a licence, or an application for the renewal of a licence, the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular; and

- (ca) whether there is any criminal intelligence or other information to which the authorised officer has access that indicates—
- (i) the person is a risk to public safety; or
 - (ii) that authorising the person to possess a weapon would be contrary to the public interest; and
- (d) the public interest.
- (2) However, for the issue, renewal or revocation of a licence, a person is not a fit and proper person to hold a licence if, in Queensland or elsewhere within the relevant period—
- (a) the person has been convicted of, or discharged from custody on sentence after the person has been convicted of, any of the following offences—
 - (i) an offence relating to the misuse of drugs;
 - (ii) an offence involving the use or threatened use of violence;
 - (iii) an offence involving the use, carriage, discharge or possession of a weapon; or
 - (b) a domestic violence order, other than a temporary protection order, has been made against the person.
- (3) Also, for the issue, renewal, suspension or revocation of a licence, a licensed dealer is not a fit and proper person to hold a licence unless each associate of the person is a fit and proper person to be an associate of a licensed dealer.
- (4) A person is not a fit and proper person to hold a licence if the person is prevented by an order, other than a temporary protection order, of a Queensland court or another court outside Queensland from holding a licence or possessing a weapon.
- (5) In this section—
relevant period means—

[s 10C]

- (a) for the issue or renewal of a licence—the 5 year period immediately before the day the person applies for the issue or renewal of the licence; or
- (b) for the suspension or revocation of a licence—the 5 year period immediately before the date of the suspension notice under section 28, or a revocation notice under section 29, is given for that suspension or revocation.

10C Fit and proper person—licensed dealer’s associate

- (1) In deciding or considering, for the issue, renewal, suspension or revocation of a dealer’s licence, whether an associate of an applicant for a dealer’s licence or a licensed dealer is, or is no longer, a fit and proper person to be an associate of a licensed dealer, an authorised officer may consider any criminal intelligence or other information to which the authorised officer has access that indicates—
 - (a) the associate is a risk to public safety; or
 - (b) any relationship involving weapons between the associate and the applicant or licensed dealer would be contrary to the public interest.
- (2) A person is not a fit and proper person to be an associate of a licensed dealer if the person is a prohibited person or the authorised officer is satisfied that any relationship involving weapons between the person and a licensed dealer would be contrary to the public interest because—
 - (a) the person, in Queensland or elsewhere within the relevant period, has been convicted of, or discharged from custody on sentence after the person has been convicted of, any of the following offences—
 - (i) an offence relating to the misuse of drugs;
 - (ii) an offence involving the use or threatened use of violence;
 - (iii) an offence involving the use, carriage, discharge or possession of a weapon; or

- (b) a domestic violence order, other than a temporary protection order, has been made against the person.
- (3) In this section—
- relevant period means—
- (a) for the issue or renewal of a dealer’s licence—the 5 year period immediately before the day the applicant for a dealer’s licence or the licensed dealer applies for the issue or renewal of the licence; or
- (b) for the suspension or revocation of a dealer’s licence—the 5 year period immediately before the date of the suspension notice under section 28, or a revocation notice under section 29, is given for that suspension or revocation.

11 Genuine reasons for possession of a weapon

The following are reasons for possession of a weapon—

- (a) sports or target shooting;
- (b) recreational shooting;
- (c) an occupational requirement, including an occupational requirement for rural purposes;
- (d) the collection, preservation or study of weapons;
- (e) another reason prescribed under a regulation.

12 Licences

Licences are of the following classes—

- (a) armourer’s licence;
- (b) blank-fire firearms licence;
- (c) collector’s licence (heirloom) or (weapons);
- (d) concealable firearms licence;
- (e) dealer’s licence;

- (f) firearms licence;
- (g) firearms licence (instructor);
- (h) minor's licence;
- (i) security licence (organisation) or (guard);
- (j) theatrical ordnance supplier's licence;
- (k) another licence prescribed under a regulation.

13 Application for licence

- (1) An application for a licence must be—
 - (a) made in the approved form and state the applicant's reason for wishing to possess a weapon (the reason); and
 - (b) made personally, in the way prescribed under a regulation, by—
 - (i) if the licence is for an individual—the person; or
 - (ii) if the licence is for a body, whether incorporated or unincorporated—an individual nominated by the body for endorsement on the licence as the body's representative in the conduct of its business or affairs; and
 - (c) accompanied by—
 - (i) the fee prescribed under a regulation; and
 - (ii) proof of identity to the satisfaction of an authorised officer; and
 - (iii) other particulars prescribed under a regulation; and
 - (iv) the other relevant particulars the person to whom the application is made reasonably requires.
- (2) If the reason is sports or target shooting, the applicant must provide proof the applicant is a current member of an approved shooting club.

- (3) If the reason is recreational shooting, the applicant must produce—
 - (a) written permission from a landowner authorising the applicant to shoot on the landowner's rural land; or
 - (b) proof of current membership of a body prescribed under a regulation for this subsection.
 - (4) A body may be prescribed for subsection (3)(b) only if—
 - (a) it is a landowner of rural land; or
 - (b) it holds written permission from a landowner authorising members of the body to shoot on the landowner's rural land.
 - (5) If the reason is an occupational requirement, the applicant must state why possession of a weapon is necessary in the conduct of the applicant's business or employment.

14 Inquiries into application

- (1) Before the application is decided, an officer in charge of police or authorised officer with whom an application for a licence is lodged may—
 - (a) make an inquiry or investigation about the applicant or the application; and
 - (b) require the applicant to give the officer further information the officer reasonably needs to be satisfied about the applicant's identity or physical or mental health including—
 - (i) in relation to the applicant's physical health—a report from a doctor about the applicant's physical health; and
 - (ii) in relation to the applicant's mental health—a report from a doctor or psychologist about the applicant's mental health; and

- (c) inspect the secure storage facilities for the weapon or category of weapon possession of which is to be authorised by the licence; and
 - (d) supply, for this section, information or a document relevant to the applicant's identity to an officer or member of a State or Commonwealth police service; and
 - (e) require the applicant to display an adequate knowledge of the safety practices for the use, storage and maintenance of the weapon or category of weapons the possession of which is to be authorised under the licence; and
 - (f) make a report about the applicant or the application; and
 - (g) make the recommendation about the application the officer thinks appropriate.
- (2) If an authorised officer suspects, on reasonable grounds, that the applicant's stated identity is false, the authorised officer may require the applicant to provide an identifying particular to verify the applicant's identity.
- (3) The applicant is taken to have withdrawn the application if, within a stated reasonable time, the applicant—
- (a) refuses to provide the information reasonably required under subsection (1)(b); or
 - (b) refuses to allow the inspection under subsection (1)(c); or
 - (c) fails to comply with a requirement under subsection (2).
- (4) If information about the applicant's mental health given under subsection (1)(b) is provided in a doctor's or psychologist's report, an authorised officer may—
- (a) make information in the officer's possession available to the doctor or psychologist; and
 - (b) ask the doctor or psychologist to provide a further report.

- (5) The authorised officer may make the information available only if the officer considers, on reasonable grounds—
 - (a) the doctor or psychologist was not aware of the information; and
 - (b) the information may influence the doctor’s or psychologist’s opinion about the applicant’s mental health.
 - (6) The authorised officer must also advise the applicant of the information being supplied to the doctor or psychologist.
 - (7) The authorised officer may make the information available under subsection (4) despite the provisions of any other Act.
 - (8) Unless the authorised officer considers that it is currently required for the investigation of an offence, the authorised officer must, after deciding the application—
 - (a) return to the applicant any identifying particular obtained in the course of inquiries into the application; and
 - (b) destroy any record or copy of the identifying particular.
 - (9) Information required to be supplied under this section may be used only to decide the application or to investigate or prosecute an offence and must not be disclosed for any other purpose.
 - (10) In this section—

applicant includes, for a body, an individual nominated by the body for endorsement on the licence as the body’s representative in the conduct of its business or affairs.

15 Authorised officer decides application

- (1) An authorised officer must decide an application for a licence (other than renewal of a licence) as soon as practicable after the end of the period prescribed for this section under a regulation.

- (2) However, the authorised officer may decide the application within the prescribed period if the applicant is the holder of an existing licence of another class.
- (3) In deciding the application, the authorised officer may consider anything at the officer's disposal.

Note—

Additional requirements are prescribed for particular applications under section 18A, 18B or 18C.

- (4) The authorised officer must—
 - (a) approve the application and issue the licence subject to any conditions the authorised officer may decide, including, but not limited to—
 - (i) conditions limiting the use or possession of a weapon; or
 - (ii) conditions prescribed under a regulation and applying to the weapon; or
 - (iii) for a licence authorising possession of a category M crossbow—conditions requiring the licensee within 7 days to permanently mark on the crossbow an identifying serial number fixed by the authorised officer for the crossbow; or
 - (iv) any other conditions the authorised officer considers appropriate in the particular circumstances; or
 - (b) reject the application.
- (5) However, if the authorised officer is acting on the basis of criminal intelligence or other information of the kind mentioned in section 10B(1)(ca) or 10C(1), the authorised officer may reject the application because the person is not a fit and proper person only if the commissioner or deputy commissioner, acting personally, approves that the application be rejected on that basis.
- (6) A person whose application is rejected because the person is not a fit and proper person to hold a licence is not entitled to reapply for a licence—

- (a) if the person's application was rejected because the person was not a fit and proper person under section 10B(2)—until the day section 10B(2) stops having the effect that the person is not a fit and proper person under that subsection; or
 - (b) otherwise—until the day 3 years after the day the application was rejected.

16 Issue of licence

- (1) A licence must be—
 - (a) in the approved form; and
 - (b) endorsed with—
 - (i) the weapon or category of weapon the possession of which is authorised by the licence; and
 - (ii) any conditions decided by an authorised officer; and
 - (iii) if the licence is an armourer's, collector's or dealer's licence or a security licence (organisation)—the place approved for the secure storage of the weapon or category of weapon possession of which is authorised by the licence.
- (2) A condition or any other information to be endorsed on a licence may be endorsed on the licence or a certificate issued for the licence.
- (3) The condition or information may be endorsed on the licence or certificate by a word that is given a meaning by a code prescribed under a regulation.
- (4) A regulation may prescribe things that must be provided for on the approved form of licence.

18 Renewal of licences

- (1) A licensee may apply for the renewal of the licensee's licence.

- (1A) The licensee must make the application for renewal of the licence before the day the licence expires.
- (2) An application for renewal of a licence must be—
 - (a) made in the approved form; and
 - (b) made personally, in the way prescribed under a regulation, by—
 - (i) for a licence issued to an individual—the licensee; or
 - (ii) for a licence issued to a body, whether incorporated or unincorporated—an individual nominated by the body for endorsement on the licence as the body’s representative in the conduct of its business or affairs; and
 - (c) accompanied by the fee prescribed under a regulation.
- (3) If an officer in charge of police receives the application, the officer must refer the application to an authorised officer.
- (4) An authorised officer must ensure the application is decided—
 - (a) as soon as practicable after the application is made; and
 - (b) if the application is not decided on or before the day the licence expires—within 42 days after the day the licence expires.
- (5) In deciding the application, the authorised officer may consider anything at the officer’s disposal.
- (6) The authorised officer must—
 - (a) approve the application and renew the licence subject to any conditions the authorised officer may decide; or
 - (b) reject the application.
- (7) However, if the authorised officer is acting on the basis of criminal intelligence or other information of the kind mentioned in section 10B(1)(ca) or 10C(1), the authorised officer may reject the application because the person is not a fit and proper person only if the commissioner or deputy commissioner, acting personally, approves that the application be rejected on that basis.

- (8) A licence may be renewed by—
 - (a) endorsing the existing licence; or
 - (b) cancelling the licence and issuing a fresh licence endorsed with any condition decided by an authorised officer or other information.
- (9) Section 10(1), (2)(a), (2)(c) to (g) and (2A) to (3) applies to the renewal of a licence.
- (10) For applying the provisions mentioned in subsection (9) to the renewal of a licence, a reference to the issue of the licence is taken to be a reference to the renewal of the licence.

18AA Alternative provision for renewal application if licensee is an individual

- (1) This section applies if a licensee is an individual.
- (2) However, this section applies to a licensee only if, when the licensee is required to apply for the renewal of a licence, the licensee—
 - (a) is temporarily absent from Australia for a genuine occupational reason; or
 - (b) is temporarily a patient in a hospital.
- (3) Also, this section applies despite section 18(2)(b)(i).
- (4) If the licensee authorises an attorney under a power of attorney to make the application for the licensee, the attorney may make the application for renewal of the licensee's licence for the licensee.
- (5) However, the attorney may make the application—
 - (a) only on a single occasion; and
 - (b) only if the attorney gives the authorised officer a statutory declaration stating that the attorney is not entitled to any fee or other benefit for making the application.

- (6) The attorney must make the application by—
 - (a) personally giving to a police officer at a police station or police establishment a renewal application completed and signed by the licensee; and
 - (b) producing to the police officer the information mentioned in section 18AB (required information).

18AB What is required information for s 18AA

- (1) The required information for section 18AA is as follows—
 - (a) photographic evidence of the attorney's identity;
 - (b) the original of the instrument conferring the power of attorney, or a copy of the instrument certified by a justice of the peace, commissioner for declarations, lawyer or notary public as a true copy of the instrument;
 - (c) a statutory declaration complying with subsection (2), (3) or (4), as appropriate.
- (2) If the attorney makes the application because the licensee is temporarily absent from Australia for a genuine occupational reason, the statutory declaration must be signed by the licensee and state the following—
 - (a) the licensee is temporarily absent from Australia for a genuine occupational reason;
 - (b) the genuine occupational reason for the licensee's absence;
 - (c) how long the licensee will be absent.
- (3) If the attorney makes the application because the licensee is temporarily a patient in a hospital, the statutory declaration must be signed by the licensee and state the following—
 - (a) the licensee is temporarily a patient in a stated hospital because of a genuine medical condition;
 - (b) the nature of the medical condition;
 - (c) when the licensee became a patient in the hospital.

- (4) If the attorney makes the application because the licensee is temporarily a patient in a hospital and the licensee is unable to make the declaration because of a genuine medical reason, the statutory declaration must be signed by the attorney and state the following—
- (a) the licensee is temporarily a patient in a stated hospital because of a genuine medical condition;
 - (b) the nature of the medical condition;
 - (c) when the licensee became a patient in the hospital;
 - (d) the licensee is unable to make the application.

18A Additional application requirements for collector’s licence (weapons) for category H weapon

- (1) If the application is for a collector’s licence (weapons) or the renewal of a collector’s licence (weapons) and the licensee intends to possess a temporarily inoperable category H weapon, the application must include a current declaration signed by an approved historical society’s representative stating—
- (a) the applicant holds current membership with the approved historical society; and
 - (b) the representative is satisfied that the applicant is a genuine collector of weapons.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the applicant is an approved historical society.
- (3) A declaration mentioned in subsection (1) is current for 28 days after the day it is signed by the representative.

18B Additional application requirements for concealable firearms licence

- (1) If the application is for a concealable firearms licence and the applicant’s reason for possession of a weapon under that licence is sports or target shooting, the application must include a current declaration by the representative of an approved pistol club stating that—

- (a) the applicant holds current membership with the pistol club; and
 - (b) the applicant has been a member of the pistol club for the 6 month period immediately before the declaration is made; and
 - (c) the applicant has participated in at least 3 handgun shooting competitions during that 6 month period.
- (2) Subsection (3) applies if an applicant for a concealable firearms licence—
- (a) holds a licence or other authority under a law of another State that corresponds with this Act authorising the applicant to possess a category H weapon for sports or target shooting; or
 - (b) was, within the period prescribed under a regulation for this section, a resident of another country and at the time of the application resides only in Queensland.
- (3) The declaration included in the application need not address the matters mentioned in subsection (1)(b) or (c) if the application is accompanied by evidence—
- (a) for subsection (2)(a), that the applicant—
 - (i) has been a member of a shooting club in the other State for the 6 month period immediately before the declaration is made; and
 - (ii) holds a licence or other authority under a law of the other State that corresponds with this Act authorising the applicant to possess a category H weapon for sports or target shooting; and
 - (iii) has held the authority mentioned in subparagraph (ii) for at least 12 months; and
 - (iv) has, in the other State, participated in not less than the number of handgun shooting competitions necessary to comply with the law of the other State; or

- (b) for subsection (2)(b), that the applicant—
- (i) was permitted or authorised under the law of the other country to possess a category H weapon for sports or target shooting; and
 - (ii) has, within the 2 year period immediately before the declaration is made, consistently participated at a national or international level in internationally recognised shooting competitions for a category H weapon.

Examples of internationally recognised shooting competitions—

- shooting competitions in the Olympic Games
 - shooting competitions in the Commonwealth Games
 - metallic silhouette world championship
- (4) If the application is for the renewal of a concealable firearms licence and the applicant's reason for possession of a weapon is sports or target shooting, the application must include—
- (a) a current declaration by the representative of an approved shooting club stating that the applicant holds current membership with the shooting club; and
 - (b) a copy of the applicant's participation record for the period of the applicant's current licence.
- (5) A declaration under this section is current for 28 days after the day it is signed by the representative.

18C Additional application requirements for dealer's licence

If the application is for a dealer's licence or the renewal of a dealer's licence, the approved form must require the applicant to disclose—

- (a) the full name, occupation and residential address of each person who is an associate of the applicant for the dealer's licence or the licensed dealer; and

- (b) details of the relevant interest, relevant power or relevant position each associate holds or will hold or may be entitled to exercise.

18D Delegation by representative

- (1) A representative of a body or club may delegate the representative's power to make a declaration under section 18A or 18B to an appropriate person.
- (2) An authorised officer may, by written notice given to the body or club, revoke the delegation if the authorised officer reasonably suspects the person to whom power is delegated under subsection (1) is not, or is no longer, an appropriate person.
- (3) The revocation of a delegation under subsection (2) does not affect the validity of a licence issued or renewed before the delegation was revoked.
- (4) In this section—
appropriate person, to whom a power may be delegated by a representative of a body or club, means a person who is a member of the governing body of the body or club.

19 Notice of rejection of application to issue or renew licence

- (1) If an authorised officer rejects an application for a licence or renewal of a licence, the authorised officer must give the applicant a notice of rejection in the approved form stating the specific reasons for the rejection.
- (2) If a reason an authorised officer rejects an application is criminal intelligence or other information that is not publicly available, it is enough that the notice under subsection (1) states the specific reason for rejection as 'confidential information'.
- (3) The notice may be given to the applicant by sending it to the applicant by security post at the address shown on the application.

20 Term of licence

- (1) A licence, other than a replacement licence, remains in force for the term stated on the licence which must not be more than—
 - (a) if the licence is for a category A or B weapon—10 years; or
 - (b) if the licence is for a weapon other than a category A or B weapon—5 years.
- (2) Despite subsection (1) but subject to any direction by the commissioner, an authorised officer may, by written notice given to a licensee, extend the term the licensee's licence remains in force to a day that coincides with the licensee's next birthday.
- (3) No fee is payable for the extension of a term under subsection (2).
- (4) A replacement licence remains in force for the unexpired term of the licence which it replaces.
- (5) An existing licence stops being in force if a replacement licence is issued instead of the licence.
- (6) Also, a licence, including a replacement licence, stops being in force if—
 - (a) it is suspended, cancelled, revoked or surrendered; or
 - (b) the licensee dies or is disqualified from holding the licence; or
 - (c) for a minor's licence—the licensee turns 18.

20A Continuation of licence until renewal application dealt with

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a licensee applies under section 18 for the renewal of a licence; and
 - (b) the application is not decided on or before the day the licence expires.

- (2) The licence, as in force immediately before its expiry, continues in force, as if it had not expired, until the first of the following happens—
 - (a) the authorised officer deciding the application approves the application and renews the licence;
 - (b) the authorised officer deciding the application rejects the application and gives the applicant the notice of rejection under section 19(1);
 - (c) 42 days elapse after the licence's expiry.

21 Certain licences transferable

- (1) A licence is transferable only in the circumstances mentioned in this section.
- (2) The following licences may be transferred on a sale of a business—
 - armourer's licence
 - dealer's licence
 - security licence (organisation)
 - theatrical ordnance supplier's licence.
- (3) The proposed purchaser of the business must apply for the appropriate licence under section 13.
- (4) If an authorised officer is satisfied the proposed purchaser is otherwise entitled to be issued with the licence, the authorised officer may approve the transfer of the licence subject to the sale of a business being finalised.
- (5) If an authorised officer approves the transfer, the purchaser is taken to be the holder of the licence from the time the sale is finalised until the licence is formally transferred or a fresh licence is issued in the purchaser's name for the balance of the original licence's term.

22 Reporting loss, destruction or theft of licence

A licensee must report the loss, destruction or theft of the licence to an officer in charge of police immediately after the licensee becomes aware of the loss, destruction or theft.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

23 Replacement licence

- (1) This section applies if an authorised officer is satisfied—
 - (a) a licence is lost, destroyed or stolen; or
 - (b) any writing or endorsement on a licence is illegible and the licence is surrendered to an officer in charge of police.
- (2) The authorised officer may issue to the licensee a licence (the replacement licence) instead of the existing licence on—
 - (a) application by the licensee in the approved form; and
 - (b) payment of the fee prescribed under a regulation.

24 Change in licensee's circumstances

- (1) It is a condition of each licence that a licensee must, within 14 days of the happening of an event mentioned in subsection (2) (the change), advise an officer in charge of police of the change and the particulars of the change the officer reasonably requires.
- (2) The events are—
 - (a) any of the following that happen to the licensee or the licensee's representative—
 - (i) a change of address;
 - (ii) a change in the licensee's or the licensee's representative's mental or physical fitness;
 - (iii) the conviction of the licensee or the licensee's representative of an offence mentioned in section 10B(2)(a);

- (iv) the making of a domestic violence order against the licensee or the licensee's representative; or
 - (b) a change in the licensee's—
 - (i) reason or need for possessing or using a weapon; or
 - (ii) access to secure storage facilities for the licensee's weapon; or
 - (c) a change in the licensee's name or the licensee's representative's name; or
 - (d) a change in the place entered in the firearms register as the place where a firearm is generally kept if the licensee is the registered owner of the firearm; or
 - (e) if the licensee is a licensed dealer, a change in the licensee's associates; or
 - (f) the revocation of the licensee's permission to shoot on a landowner's rural land; or
 - (g) another event prescribed under a regulation.
- (2A) Subject to subsection (3), the advice must be given in a way prescribed by regulation.
- (3) If advice of a change in the licensee's associates is given under subsection (2)(e), the advice must be given in the approved form and include—
- (a) the full name, occupation and residential address of each of the licensee's associates; and
 - (b) details of the associate's relevant financial interest, relevant power or relevant position in the licensee's business.
- (4) The officer in charge must advise an authorised officer of the change.
- (5) The authorised officer must—
- (a) if the change is to a particular on the licence and the authorised officer is satisfied of the correctness of the change—endorse the licence with the change; or

- (b) otherwise—take the appropriate action in relation to the licence.
- (6) In this section—
- representative* of a licensee means a person who is endorsed—
- (a) on the licensee’s licence as the licensee’s representative; or
 - (b) on a permit to acquire issued to the licensee as the licensee’s representative.

25 Authorised officer may amend licence conditions

- (1) An authorised officer may amend the conditions of a licence—
 - (a) on the licensee’s application; or
 - (b) on the authorised officer’s own initiative.
- (2) Before making an amendment under subsection (1)(b), the authorised officer must—
 - (a) give written notice to the licensee—
 - (i) of the details of the proposed amendment; and
 - (ii) that the licensee may make written submissions to the authorised officer about the proposed amendment before a stated day, not earlier than 21 days after the notice is given to the licensee; and
 - (b) have regard to submissions made to the authorised officer by the licensee before the stated day.
- (3) If an authorised officer decides to amend the conditions of a licence, the authorised officer must give written notice of the amendment to the licensee.
- (4) The amendment takes effect—
 - (a) on the day the written notice of the amendment is given to the licensee; or
 - (b) if a later day is stated in the notice—on the stated day.

[s 25A]

- (5) An authorised officer may refuse to make an amendment under subsection (1)(a) by written notice given to the licensee stating the reasons for the refusal.
- (6) In this section—
conditions of a licence means conditions decided by an authorised officer under section 15(4)(a).

25A Authorised officer may require information about licensed dealer's associates

- (1) An authorised officer may, by written notice, require a licensed dealer to give a declaration to the authorised officer in the approved form—
 - (a) if the dealer did not previously have an associate and now has an associate or the dealer's associates have changed, advising the name and address of each associate of the dealer and details of the associate's relevant financial interest, relevant power or relevant position in the dealer's business; or
 - (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply, advising the associates of the dealer have not changed since the dealer—
 - (i) most recently applied for the dealer's licence or renewal of the licence; or
 - (ii) advised an officer, and delivered the licence to the officer, as required under section 24(1); or
 - (iii) gave a declaration under this section to the authorised officer.
- (2) The licensed dealer must give the declaration as required under subsection (1) within 7 days after the written notice is given to the dealer, unless the dealer has a reasonable excuse.
Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.
- (3) A licensed dealer who is required to give a declaration to an authorised officer under subsection (1) and gives a declaration under the subsection with information about—
 - (a) the dealer's associates; or

- (b) details of the dealer's associates; or
- (c) a change in the dealer's associates;

can not be prosecuted for a failure to disclose that information before the authorised officer made that requirement.

- (4) It is not a reasonable excuse for subsection (2) that giving the declaration as mentioned in the subsection may incriminate the person for an offence for which the person can not be prosecuted under subsection (3).

26 Change of approved place

- (1) This section applies to an approved place endorsed on a licence under section 16(1)(b)(iii).
- (2) On application by the licensee, an authorised officer may change the approved place to another place if the authorised officer is satisfied the other place fulfils the requirements of this Act.
- (3) The authorised officer may endorse the licence with the change.

27 Surrender of licence

- (1) A licensee may surrender the licence by—
 - (a) giving written notice of surrender; and
 - (b) surrendering the licence.
- (2) The notice must be given and the licence surrendered to an authorised officer or officer in charge of police.

27A Effect of temporary protection order, police protection notice or release conditions on licence

- (1) If a person is a licensee and is named as the respondent in a temporary protection order, police protection notice or release conditions, the licence is suspended while the order, notice or conditions are in force.

- (2) If a person is a body's representative and is named as the respondent in a temporary protection order, police protection notice or release conditions—
 - (a) any authority the respondent has to possess a weapon because the respondent is the body's representative is ineffective while the order, notice or conditions are in force; and
 - (b) the body's licence is suspended 7 days after the licensee is given the order, notice or conditions unless, in that period, another individual is endorsed on the licence as the body's representative in substitution for the respondent.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2)(a) take effect—
 - (a) if the respondent is present in court when the temporary protection order is made—from the time of the order; or
 - (b) otherwise—when the respondent is given the order, notice or conditions.
- (4) A suspension under subsection (2)(b) ends on the earlier of the following—
 - (a) when another individual is endorsed on the licence as the body's representative in substitution for the respondent;
 - (b) the order, notice or conditions are no longer in force.
- (5) Subsections (1) and (2)(a) stop having effect when the order, notice or conditions are no longer in force.
- (6) If the licensee of a licence suspended under subsection (1) or (2)(b) holds a permit to acquire, the permit is also suspended while the licence is suspended.
- (7) Despite a suspension under this section, an authorised officer may suspend the licence under section 28.

27B Notice of intention to revoke because dealer's associate is not fit and proper

- (1) This section applies if an authorised officer is satisfied that an associate of a licensed dealer is not a fit and proper person to be an associate of a licensed dealer.
- (2) Before revoking the licensed dealer's licence, the authorised officer must give the dealer a notice stating that the authorised officer—
 - (a) is satisfied that a named associate of the dealer is not a fit and proper person to be an associate of a licensed dealer; and
 - (b) intends to give the dealer a revocation notice under section 29 unless the dealer discontinues the dealer's association with the associate within a stated reasonable time.
- (3) In deciding what is a reasonable time, regard is to be had to the following—
 - (a) the extent of the associate's relevant financial interest in the dealer's business;
 - (b) any relevant power the associate may exercise in the dealer's business;
 - (c) any relevant position the associate holds in the dealer's business;
 - (d) the public interest.

28 Suspension of licence by giving suspension notice

- (1) An authorised officer may, by a suspension notice given to a licensee, suspend the licence if the authorised officer—
 - (a) is satisfied that the licensee—
 - (i) has been charged with an offence against any law in force in Queensland or elsewhere—
 - (A) relating to the misuse of drugs; or

- (B) involving the use or threatened use of violence; or
 - (C) involving the use, carriage, discharge or possession of a weapon; or
 - (ii) is temporarily unable to comply with a condition of the licence; or
 - (b) considers, on reasonable grounds, that the licensee may no longer be a fit and proper person to hold a licence.
- Note—*
- Section 10B states matters for consideration.
- (2) The licence is suspended until—
 - (a) if subsection (1)(a)(i) applies—
 - (i) the proceeding for the charge ends; or
 - (ii) the suspension is lifted by an authorised officer; or
 - (b) if subsection (1)(a)(ii) applies—the authorised officer is satisfied the licensee is able to comply with the condition and lifts the suspension; or
 - (c) if subsection (1)(b) applies—the earlier of the following days—
 - (i) the day the authorised officer is satisfied the person is a fit and proper person to hold a licence and lifts the suspension;
 - (ii) the day 90 days after the licence is suspended.
 - (3) If a licensee whose licence is suspended under this section holds a permit to acquire, the permit is also suspended.
 - (4) However, if the authorised officer is acting on the basis of criminal intelligence or other information of the kind mentioned in section 10B(1)(ca) or 10C(1), the authorised officer may suspend the licence because the licensee is not a fit and proper person only if the commissioner or deputy commissioner, acting personally, approves the licence be suspended on that basis.

28A Revocation or suspension of licence and related matters after protection order is made

- (1) If a person is a licensee and is named as the respondent in a protection order, the licence is revoked.
- (2) If a person is a body's representative and is named as the respondent in a protection order—
 - (a) any authority the respondent has to possess a weapon because the respondent is the body's representative is ineffective; and
 - (b) the body's licence is suspended 7 days after the day the licensee is given the protection order unless, in that period, another individual is endorsed on the licence as the body's representative in substitution for the respondent.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2)(a) take effect—
 - (a) if the respondent is present in court when the protection order is made—on the making of the order; or
 - (b) otherwise—when the respondent is given the protection order.
- (4) A suspension under subsection (2)(b) ends on the earlier of the following—
 - (a) when another individual is endorsed on the licence as the body's representative in substitution for the respondent;
 - (b) the protection order is no longer in force.
- (5) If the licensee of a licence revoked under subsection (1) or suspended under subsection (2)(b) holds a permit to acquire, the permit is revoked or suspended while the licence is revoked or suspended.
- (6) Despite a suspension under subsection (2)(b), an authorised officer may suspend the licence under section 28.

29 Revocation of licence by giving revocation notice

(1) An authorised officer may, by a revocation notice given to a licensee, revoke the licensee's licence if the authorised officer is satisfied of any of the following things—

- (a) the licence has been obtained through fraud or deception;
- (b) the licensee has been convicted of an offence against any law in force in Queensland or elsewhere involving the use, carriage, discharge or possession of a weapon;
- (c) the licensee has contravened a condition, participation condition or special condition of the licence;
- (d) the licensee is no longer a fit and proper person to hold a licence;

Note—

Section 10B states matters for consideration.

- (e) the licensee no longer has a reason mentioned in section 11 to possess a weapon;
- (f) for an armourer's licence, dealer's licence or theatrical ordnance supplier's licence—
 - (i) the licensed armourer, licensed dealer or licensed theatrical ordnance supplier is not in charge of the premises stated in the licence; or
 - (ii) the premises stated in the licence are no longer satisfactory for carrying out the business;
- (g) for a collector's licence—
 - (i) the licensed collector is no longer a genuine collector or is not in charge of the premises where the collector's weapons are usually kept; or
 - (ii) the premises where the collection is usually kept are no longer satisfactory for the safekeeping of weapons.

(2) Also, if a licensee reports or states to a police officer that a weapon or 1 or more weapons of which the licensee is the registered owner were lost or stolen, an authorised officer may, by a revocation notice given to the licensee, revoke the licensee's licence if—

- (a) the licensee fails to satisfy the authorised officer that the licensee took reasonable precautions to prevent the loss or theft; or
 - (b) the authorised officer reasonably believes that the licensee has unlawfully disposed of the weapon.
- (3) If the authorised officer is acting on the basis of criminal intelligence or other information of the kind mentioned in section 10B(1)(ca) or 10C(1), the authorised officer may revoke the licence because the person is not a fit and proper person only if the commissioner or deputy commissioner, acting personally, approves the licence be revoked on that basis.
- (4) If a licensee whose licence is revoked under this section holds a permit to acquire, the permit is also revoked.
- (5) This section does not prevent an authorised officer reinstating a licence that is revoked by the authorised officer because of a mistake of fact.

Examples for subsection (5)—

- 1 J was charged with an offence and although no conviction was recorded for the offence, police records indicated a conviction had been recorded.
 - 2 A was required to be a member of a pistol club but the club failed to tell the commissioner that A had joined the club before the revocation happened.
- (6) A licence reinstated under subsection (5) is taken not to have been revoked.
- (7) The licence may be reinstated by—
- (a) returning the licence; or
 - (b) issuing a fresh licence.
- (8) The authorised officer must also ensure any entry made in the firearms register because of the revocation is corrected.

29A Action by court if respondent has access to weapons through employment

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a person is the respondent in a domestic violence order, police protection notice or release conditions; and
 - (b) under section 27A or 28A, the respondent's licence is suspended or revoked, or the respondent is a representative of a body and the authority to possess a weapon as the body's representative is ineffective; and
 - (c) an authorised officer reasonably considers the respondent has access to a weapon as part of the respondent's employment.
- (2) The authorised officer must—
 - (a) consider the circumstances of the employment; and
 - (b) consider the respondent's access to the weapon; and
 - (c) consider the employment arrangements and whether there is an effective individual within the employing entity to whom to give a copy of the order, notice or conditions to ensure the respondent does not possess a weapon as part of the respondent's employment; and
 - (d) if the authorised officer considers there is an effective individual within the employing entity—give a copy of the order, notice or conditions to the effective individual.
- (3) The effective individual may disclose information about the order, notice or conditions to another person within the employing entity to the extent necessary to ensure the respondent does not possess a weapon as part of the respondent's employment.
- (4) However, the effective individual must not disclose information about the order, notice or conditions to anyone else, other than as permitted under subsection (3) or expressly permitted by a court or magistrate under the Domestic and Family Violence Protection Act 2012, section 159.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units or 1 year's imprisonment.

(5) In this section—

effective individual within the employing entity, relating to a respondent, means any 1 of the following who is in a position to ensure the respondent does not possess weapons as part of the respondent's employment—

- (a) the employer if the employer is an individual;
- (b) another partner in a partnership in which the respondent is a partner;
- (c) an individual within the entity that employs the respondent.

employment, of a respondent, includes employment by a partnership in which the respondent is a partner.

29B Arrangements for surrender of suspended or revoked licences and weapons

- (1) This section applies to a person whose licence is suspended under section 27A or revoked under section 28A, because the person is named as the respondent in a domestic violence order, police protection notice or release conditions.
- (2) Subsection (3) applies—
 - (a) if the respondent is present—
 - (i) in court when the court makes the order; or
 - (ii) when a police officer issues and explains the notice; or
 - (b) when a police officer gives the order or notice to the respondent at a place other than the respondent's place of residence; or
 - (c) when a police officer gives the conditions to the respondent.
- (3) The respondent must immediately do the following—

- (a) if the respondent's licence is in the respondent's possession—give the licence to a police officer;
- (b) if the respondent's licence is not in the respondent's possession—arrange with a police officer to give the licence to a police officer no later than 1 day after—
 - (i) for subsection (2)(a)—the order is made or notice is issued;
 - (ii) otherwise—the order, notice or conditions are given to the respondent;
- (c) arrange with a police officer to give to a police officer any weapon the respondent possesses, or to otherwise surrender the weapon, as soon as practicable, but no later than 1 day, after—
 - (i) for subsection (2)(a)—the order is made or notice is issued;
 - (ii) otherwise—the order, notice or conditions are given to the respondent.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

- (4) If a police officer personally serves the order or notice on the respondent at the respondent's place of residence, the respondent must immediately give the weapons licence and any weapon in the respondent's possession to the police officer unless the respondent has a reasonable excuse for not doing so.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

- (5) Also, a respondent must immediately give the weapons licence or any weapon in the respondent's possession to a police officer (the surrender officer) if—
 - (a) a police officer made arrangements under subsection (3) with the respondent about the weapons licence or any weapon in the respondent's possession; and
 - (b) the surrender officer believes the respondent has not complied with the arrangements; and

- (c) the surrender officer asks the respondent to give the officer the weapons licence or any weapon in the respondent's possession.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

- (6) If a weapon is given to a police officer under this section and, within 3 months of the weapon being given to the police officer, the respondent wants to otherwise surrender it, the respondent may make arrangements with a police officer for a licensed dealer or licensed armourer, in company with the respondent, to collect the weapon.
- (7) The Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000 also provides for the role of police officers, and for offences by respondents, after a domestic violence order, police protection notice or release conditions are made.
- (8) In this section—

approved receipt means a receipt in a form that is an approved form under section 71(3).

made includes issued or imposed.

otherwise surrender, for a weapon, means the respondent deals with the weapon in the following way—

- (a) the respondent consigns the weapon to a licensed dealer or licensed armourer—
- (i) for sale; or
 - (ii) for storage for a period that does not end before the period of the domestic violence order;
- (b) the respondent obtains a copy of the approved receipt for the weapon's consignment from the licensed dealer or licensed armourer and, if the weapon is consigned for storage, the receipt states the respondent acknowledges the cost of the storage is the responsibility of the respondent;
- (c) the respondent gives the copy of the receipt to a police officer—
- (i) immediately; or

- (ii) within the time allowed under this section for giving the weapon to a police officer.

30 Suspension or revocation notice

- (1) A suspension or revocation notice must—
 - (a) be in the approved form; and
 - (b) state the specific reasons for the suspension or revocation of the licence; and
 - (c) direct the licensee to surrender—
 - (i) the licence and any relevant permit to acquire to a stated police officer at a stated reasonable time and place; and
 - (ii) the weapon held by the licensee under the licence in a way prescribed under subsection (4) or (5) at, or by, a stated reasonable time.
- (1A) If a reason an authorised officer suspends or revokes a licence is criminal intelligence or other information that is not publicly available, it is enough that the notice states the specific reason as ‘confidential information’.
- (2) A suspension or revocation notice may have effect immediately only if it, or a copy of it, is given personally to the licensee or a person endorsed on the licence as representing the licensee.
- (3) A person who is given a suspension or revocation notice must comply with the directions in the notice.
Maximum penalty—20 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.
- (4) A weapon to be surrendered under a suspension or revocation notice may be surrendered by delivering it to any police officer.
- (5) A weapon may also be surrendered by—
 - (a) delivering it to a licensed dealer or other person authorised under this Act to possess the weapon; and

- (b) obtaining from the person to whom the weapon is delivered a receipt in the approved form for the weapon; and
 - (c) giving the receipt, within the time stated in the notice for the surrender of the weapon, to the police officer mentioned in subsection (1)(c)(i).
- (6) An authorised officer may extend the time for compliance with a suspension or revocation notice (the compliance time) if the person to whom the notice is given applies to the authorised officer for an extension before the end of the compliance time.

31 Licensee's representative

- (1) This section applies to—
- (a) a licensee who holds a licence to enable the licensee to carry on business; and
 - (b) an applicant for a licence to enable the applicant to carry on business.
- (2) The licensee or applicant may apply for the licence to be endorsed with the name of a fit and proper individual as the licensee's or applicant's representative in the conduct of its business or affairs at the place stated in the application.
- (3) A licensee may apply for the licence to be endorsed with the name of a fit and proper individual instead of another person already endorsed as the licensee's representative under this or another section.
- (4) An application under subsection (2) or (3) must be made in the approved form in the way prescribed under a regulation.
- (5) In this section—
- fit and proper individual* means an individual who, if the person applied for a licence, would be a fit and proper person under section 10B.

32 Temporary recognition of interstate licences for particular purposes

- (1) This section applies if a person who holds a licence, permit or authority issued under the law of another State entitling the person to possession of a weapon visits Queensland—
 - (a) to participate in a shooting competition conducted by an approved shooting club or approved by the commissioner; or
 - (b) for another purpose specified under a regulation for this section.
- (2) The person's licence is taken to authorise possession and use of the weapon in accordance with this Act—
 - (a) for the purpose of participating in the competition; or
 - (b) for the other purpose specified under the regulation—if the person complies with any conditions specified in the regulation for the purpose.

33 Interstate residents moving to Queensland

- (1) This section applies if a resident of another State who is the holder of a licence under the law of the other State authorising possession of a category A, B, C, D or H weapon or a category M crossbow gives written notice to the commissioner of the person's intention to reside permanently in Queensland.
- (2) The person's licence is taken to be the corresponding licence under this Act in force for the period mentioned in subsection (3) or until the day the person's application for a licence under this Act is approved or rejected, whichever is the earlier.
- (3) The period is—
 - (a) for a licence authorising possession of a category A or B weapon or a category M crossbow—3 months; and
 - (b) for a licence authorising possession of a category C, D or H weapon—7 days.

- (4) The period mentioned in subsection (3) starts on the day the person notifies the commissioner of the person's intention to reside permanently in Queensland.
 - (5) If the holder of a licence authorising possession of a category C, D or H weapon notifies the commissioner and makes application for a licence under this Act within the time allowed under subsection (3)(b), the person does not contravene section 50 while the person's application is being decided merely because the 7 day period has passed.
 - (6) In this section—

corresponding licence, to a licence held under the law of another State, means—

 - (a) a licence under this Act declared under a regulation to be a corresponding licence; or
 - (b) if no regulation is made under paragraph (a) or the regulation makes insufficient provision—a licence under this Act that most closely corresponds to the other licence.

34 Contravention of licence condition

- (1) A licensee must not contravene a condition of the licence.
Maximum penalty—60 penalty units or 1 year's imprisonment.
- (2) The penalty under subsection (1) may be imposed in addition to revocation of a licence or seizure of a weapon because of the contravention.

34AA Effect of an appeal against a domestic violence order

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a domestic violence order is made against a person as the respondent; and

[s 34A]

- (b) the person appeals against the decision to make the domestic violence order under the Domestic and Family Violence Protection Act 2012, section 164; and
 - (c) the domestic violence order is discharged under the Domestic and Family Violence Protection Act 2012, section 169.
- (2) For this Act, the domestic violence order is taken not to have been made.

Part 3 Acquisition, sale and disposal of weapons

Division 1 Preliminary

34A Definitions for pt 3

In this part—

firearm does not include a barrel, breechbolt or top slide of a firearm.

weapon does not include a barrel, breechbolt or top slide of a firearm.

Division 2 Acquisition, sale and disposal of weapons

35 Acquisition of weapons

- (1) A person may acquire a weapon only if—
- (a) the person is a licensed dealer; or
 - (b) the person is the holder of a permit to acquire the weapon and acquires the weapon—
 - (i) from or through a licensed dealer; or

- (ii) through a police officer in circumstances prescribed under a regulation; or
- (c) the person acquires the weapon under other lawful authority, justification or excuse.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) for a category D, H or R weapon—100 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment; and
- (b) for a category C or E weapon—60 penalty units or 1 year's imprisonment; and
- (c) for a category A, B or M weapon—20 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.

Example 1—

J wishes to sell J's weapon to S. S holds an appropriate licence and a permit to acquire the weapon. J and S agree on the sale price, but the sale may only be completed through a licensed dealer who must provide certain information about the acquisition to an authorised officer under subsection (2) and is entitled to a brokerage fee under subsection (3).

Example 2—

J wishes to give J's weapon to S. S holds an appropriate licence and a permit to acquire the weapon. The gift of the weapon may only be made through a licensed dealer who must provide certain information about the acquisition to an authorised officer under subsection (2) and is entitled to a brokerage fee under subsection (3).

Example 3—

J sells J's weapon to G, a licensed dealer. G later sells the weapon to S who holds an appropriate licence and a permit to acquire the weapon. G must still provide certain information about the acquisition to an authorised officer under subsection (2), but in this case is not entitled to a brokerage fee.

Example 4—

J pays a deposit on a firearm J is buying from G, a licensed dealer. J has applied for a permit to acquire, but the application has not been finally decided. If J takes possession of the firearm before the permit to acquire is issued, J acquires the weapon and commits an offence against subsection (1).

[s 35]

- (2) If the weapon is acquired from a licensed dealer or the acquisition happens through a licensed dealer or police officer—
- (a) the acquirer must give the dealer or police officer a copy of the permit to acquire; and
 - (b) the dealer must give to an authorised officer the copy of the permit to acquire and the information prescribed under a regulation within the time and in the way prescribed under the regulation.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.

- (3) If the acquisition happens through a licensed dealer, the dealer is entitled to a brokerage fee from the acquirer in the amount prescribed under a regulation.
- (4) The dealer is not entitled to any other payment for brokering the acquisition.
- (5) If the acquisition happens under other lawful authority, justification or excuse, the acquirer must, unless the acquirer has a reasonable excuse, take immediate action—
- (a) to comply with this Act; or
 - (b) to surrender the weapon under section 30(4) or (5).

Maximum penalty for subsection (5)—20 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.

- (6) This section does not apply to the acquisition of a weapon, if the acquisition consists only of a person taking possession of the weapon—
- (a) to repair it; or
 - (b) to store it, if the person is an armourer storing it for someone else; or
 - (c) on a temporary basis for not more than 3 months without giving consideration for the acquisition or for the weapon; or

- (d) in performing duties as a security guard under a security licence (guard); or
 - (e) under section 52, 53, 54(2), 55 or 55A.
- (7) In this section—
acquire, a weapon, means purchase, accept or receive or otherwise take possession of the weapon.

36 Sale or disposal of weapons

- (1) A person must not sell or otherwise dispose of a weapon unless—
- (a) the person sells or otherwise disposes of the weapon to a licensed dealer; or
 - (b) the person sells or otherwise disposes of the weapon to another person who is the holder of a permit to acquire the weapon and the sale or disposal happens—
 - (i) through a licensed dealer; or
 - (ii) through a police officer in circumstances prescribed under a regulation; or
 - (c) the person sells or otherwise disposes of the weapon under other lawful authority, justification or excuse.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) for a category D, H or R weapon—100 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment; and
 - (b) for a category C or E weapon—60 penalty units or 1 year's imprisonment; and
 - (c) for a category A or B weapon or a category M crossbow—20 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.
- (2) If the sale or disposal happens under subsection (1)(c), the person must give to an authorised officer the information prescribed under a regulation in the way and within the time prescribed under the regulation.

[s 37]

Maximum penalty—60 penalty units or 1 year's imprisonment.

- (3) This section does not apply to the disposal of a weapon to a person, if the disposal consists only of a disposal—
- (a) for repair; or
 - (b) to an armourer for storage by the armourer; or
 - (c) on a temporary basis for not more than 3 months without receiving consideration for the disposal or for the weapon; or
 - (d) to a person performing duties as a security guard under a security licence (guard); or
 - (e) authorised under section 52, 53, 54(2), 55 or 55A.

37 Advertising sale of firearms

If a person advertises the sale of the person's firearm, the person must state in the advertisement the firearm's serial number, if any.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

Division 3 Permits to acquire

38 Issue etc. of permits to acquire

- (1) A person, other than an authorised officer, must not issue, endorse or alter a permit to acquire.

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment.

- (2) In this section—

issue, endorse or alter a permit to acquire includes purporting to issue, endorse or alter a permit to acquire.

39 Limitations on issue of permits to acquire

- (1) A permit to acquire a weapon may be issued only to—
 - (a) an individual under subsection (2); or
 - (b) a body under subsection (3).
- (2) A permit to acquire a weapon may be issued to an individual only if—
 - (a) the person is authorised to possess the weapon or category of weapon under a licence; and
 - (b) the person is an adult; and
 - (c) for a category B, C, D, H or M weapon—the person has a need to possess the weapon; and
 - (d) if the weapon is an heirloom firearm—the person is the owner of the firearm because of a testamentary disposition or the laws of succession; and
 - (e) if the person intends to possess the weapon under the authority of a collector's licence (weapons) and the weapon is a temporarily inoperable modern handgun—
 - (i) the person satisfies an authorised officer that the person has a prolonged and genuine interest in the study, preservation or collection of firearms; and
 - (ii) the person is a member of an approved historical society.

Note—

See section 131 (Limitation on number of concealable firearms particular licensees may acquire) for limitations on the number of category H weapons an individual who is the holder of a concealable firearms licence can possess during the first year after the holder is first licensed.

- (3) A permit to acquire a weapon may be issued to a body, whether incorporated or unincorporated—
 - (a) for a permit to acquire to be issued to an approved shooting club—only if it is endorsed with the name of an individual member of the club's governing body, who satisfies the requirements of subsection (2)(a) to (c), as

- the club's representative in the conduct of its business or affairs; and
- (b) for a permit to acquire to be issued to another body—only if—
 - (i) the body has a need to possess the weapon for which the permit to acquire is sought; and
 - (ii) it is endorsed with the name of an individual, who satisfies the requirements of subsection (2)(a) to (c), as the body's representative in the conduct of its business or affairs.
- (4) A permit to acquire must—
- (a) be issued in the approved form for a single weapon; and
 - (b) state the name of the person from whom the weapon is to be acquired.

40 Application for permit to acquire

- (1) An application for a permit to acquire must be—
- (a) made in the approved form; and
 - (b) made, in the way prescribed under a regulation, by—
 - (i) if the permit is for an individual—the person; or
 - (ii) if the permit is for a body, whether incorporated or unincorporated—the individual endorsed on the body's licence as the body's representative; and
 - (c) accompanied by—
 - (i) any fee that may be prescribed under a regulation; and
 - (ii) proof of identity to the satisfaction of an authorised officer; and
 - (iii) other particulars prescribed under a regulation; and
 - (iv) the other relevant particulars the person to whom the application is made reasonably requires.

- (2) If the application is for a permit to acquire a category B, C, D or H weapon, the applicant must state why the applicant needs the weapon and why the need can not be satisfied in another way.
- (3) If the application is for a permit to acquire an heirloom firearm, the application must also be accompanied by proof, to the satisfaction of an authorised officer, that the applicant is the owner of the firearm because of a testamentary disposition or the laws of succession.
- (4) If the application is for a permit to acquire a temporarily inoperable modern handgun that the applicant intends to possess under the authority of a collector's licence (weapons), the application must include a declaration signed by an approved historical society's representative stating that the representative is satisfied that the weapon is of obvious and significant commemorative, historic, thematic or investment value.

41 Inquiries into application

- (1) Before the application is decided, an officer in charge of police or authorised officer with whom an application for a permit to acquire is lodged may—
 - (a) make an inquiry or investigation about the applicant or the application; and
 - (b) require the applicant to give the officer further information the officer reasonably needs to be satisfied about the applicant's identity or physical or mental health including—
 - (i) in relation to the applicant's physical health—a report from a doctor about the applicant's physical health; and
 - (ii) in relation to the applicant's mental health—a report from a doctor or psychologist about the applicant's mental health; and

- (c) inspect the secure storage facilities for the weapon for which the permit to acquire is to be issued; and
 - (d) supply, for this section, information or a document relevant to the applicant's identity to an officer or member of a State or Commonwealth police service; and
 - (e) make a report about the applicant or the application; and
 - (f) make the recommendation about the application the officer thinks appropriate.
- (2) If the authorised officer suspects, on reasonable grounds, that the applicant's stated identity is false, the authorised officer may require the applicant to provide an identifying particular to verify the applicant's identity.
- (3) The applicant is taken to have withdrawn the application if, within a stated reasonable time, the applicant—
- (a) refuses to provide the information reasonably required under subsection (1)(b); or
 - (b) refuses to allow the inspection under subsection (1)(c); or
 - (c) fails to comply with a requirement under subsection (2).
- (4) If information about the applicant's mental health given under subsection (1)(b) is provided in a doctor's or psychologist's report, an authorised officer may—
- (a) make information in the officer's possession available to the doctor or psychologist; and
 - (b) ask the doctor or psychologist to provide a further report.
- (5) The authorised officer may make the information available only if the officer considers, on reasonable grounds—
- (a) the doctor or psychologist was not aware of the information; and

- (b) the information may influence the doctor's or psychologist's opinion about the applicant's mental health.
- (6) The authorised officer must also advise the applicant of the information being supplied to the doctor or psychologist.
- (7) The authorised officer may make the information available under subsection (4) despite the provisions of any other Act.
- (8) Unless the authorised officer considers that it is currently required for the investigation of an offence, the authorised officer must, after deciding the application—
- (a) return to the applicant any identifying particular obtained in the course of inquiries into the application; and
- (b) destroy any record or copy of the identifying particular.
- (9) Information required to be supplied under this section may be used only to decide the application or to investigate or prosecute an offence and must not be disclosed for any other purpose.
- (10) For this section—
- applicant* includes, for a body, the individual endorsed on the body's licence as the body's representative.

42 Authorised officer decides application

- (1) An authorised officer must decide an application for a permit to acquire a weapon as soon as practicable after the end of any period that may be prescribed for this section under a regulation.
- (2) In deciding the application, the authorised officer may consider anything at the officer's disposal.
- (3) The authorised officer must consider the following things when deciding whether the applicant has a need to possess the weapon—

[s 43]

- (a) whether the applicant's requirements can be adequately met in a way not involving the use of a weapon or by using a weapon of another category or type;
 - (b) whether the applicant possesses other weapons, and in particular other weapons of that category or type;
 - (c) another thing prescribed under a regulation.
- (4) To remove any doubt, a collector may have a need for a particular weapon even though the collector already possesses a weapon of the same category or type.
- (5) The authorised officer must—
- (a) approve the application and issue the permit to acquire subject to any conditions the authorised officer may decide; or
 - (b) reject the application.

43 Issue of permit to acquire

A permit to acquire must be issued in the approved form.

44 Notice of rejection of application for permit to acquire

- (1) If an authorised officer rejects an application for a permit to acquire, the authorised officer must give the applicant a notice of rejection in the approved form stating the specific reasons for the rejection.
- (2) The notice may be given to the applicant by sending it to the applicant by security post at the address shown on the application.

45 Term of permit to acquire

- (1) A permit to acquire remains in force for the term, not more than 6 months, stated on the permit.
- (2) A permit to acquire stops being in force if—
 - (a) it is suspended, cancelled, revoked or surrendered; or

- (b) the holder of the permit dies.

46 Reporting loss, destruction or theft of permit to acquire

A licensee must report the loss, destruction or theft of a permit to acquire to an officer in charge of police immediately after the licensee becomes aware of the loss, destruction or theft.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

47 Replacement permit to acquire

- (1) This section applies if an authorised officer is satisfied—
- (a) a permit to acquire is lost, destroyed or stolen; or
 - (b) any writing or endorsement on a permit to acquire is illegible and the permit to acquire is surrendered to an officer in charge of police.
- (2) The authorised officer may issue to the licensee a replacement permit to acquire instead of the permit to acquire on—
- (a) application by the licensee in the approved form; and
 - (b) payment of the fee prescribed under a regulation.

48 Surrender of permit to acquire

- (1) A licensee may surrender a permit to acquire by—
- (a) giving written notice of surrender; and
 - (b) surrendering the permit to acquire.
- (2) The notice must be given and the permit to acquire surrendered to an authorised officer or officer in charge of police.

Division 3A Marking serial numbers on unmarked firearms

48A Marking serial numbers on unmarked firearms

- (1) This section applies to a firearm included or to be included in the firearms register if the firearm does not have a serial number marked on it.
- (2) The authorised officer may—
 - (a) give a serial number to the firearm; and
 - (b) require the registered owner of the firearm to mark the serial number on the firearm.
- (3) No compensation is payable because of the requirement.
- (4) Before deciding whether to require the registered owner of a firearm that is an antique handgun to mark the serial number on the handgun, the authorised officer must have regard to—
 - (a) the impact marking the serial number on the handgun will have on the handgun's value; and
 - (b) ways of minimising the impact marking the serial number on the handgun may have on the handgun's value.
- (5) If the authorised officer requires a registered owner of the firearm to mark the serial number on the firearm, the authorised officer must give the registered owner a written notice stating—
 - (a) the serial number; and
 - (b) that the registered owner must mark the serial number on the firearm in the way stated in the notice—
 - (i) within 28 days after being given the notice; or
 - (ii) if the 28 days period is extended under subsection (7), within the period as extended; and
 - (c) that the registered owner may apply to the authorised officer within the 28 days for approval to mark the serial number on the firearm in another way stated in the application.

- (6) The person must comply with the requirement unless the person applies under subsection (5)(c).

Maximum penalty for subsection (6)—20 penalty units.

- (7) The authorised officer may extend the period for compliance with subsection (5) (the compliance time) if the registered owner applies to the authorised officer for an extension before the compliance time ends.

48B Approval of alternative way of marking serial number

- (1) This section applies if a registered owner of a firearm applies to the authorised officer to mark the serial number on the firearm in another way.
- (2) The authorised officer may approve or refuse to approve the application.
- (3) If the authorised officer approves the application, the authorised officer must give the registered owner a written notice requiring the registered owner to mark the serial number on the firearm in the way stated in the approval within 28 days after being given notice of the approval.

- (4) The person must comply with the requirement.

Maximum penalty for subsection (4)—20 penalty units.

- (5) On the giving of notice under subsection (3), the notice under section 48A(5) in relation to the firearm stops having effect.
- (6) If the authorised officer refuses to approve the application, the authorised officer—
 - (a) must give the registered owner notice of the refusal; and
 - (b) may, whether or not the registered owner applied for an extension of the compliance time under section 48A, by written notice, extend the compliance time for a period, of not more than 21 days, stated in the notice.

[s 49]

- (7) The person must comply with the requirement within the compliance time as extended under subsection (6)(b).

Maximum penalty for subsection (7)—20 penalty units.

Division 4 Firearms register

49 Commissioner to maintain firearms register

- (1) The commissioner must establish and maintain a record (the firearms register) of all firearms in Queensland.
- (2) The following information for each firearm must be entered in the firearms register—
- (a) the name and address of the firearm's owner and details of the documents relied on to establish the owner's identity and address;
 - (b) for a firearm other than a category M crossbow—the type, make, calibre, action, magazine capacity and any serial number of the firearm;
 - (c) details of the licence authorising possession of the firearm;
 - (d) for firearms acquired after the commencement of the Weapons Amendment Act 1996—
 - (i) details of any permit to acquire authorising acquisition of the firearm; and
 - (ii) the name and address of the person from whom the firearm was acquired and the date it was acquired;
 - (e) the place where the firearm is generally kept;
 - (f) the reason given for possession of the firearm and, if appropriate, the reason why the particular firearm was needed;
 - (g) for a category M crossbow—the identifying serial number of the crossbow;
 - (h) other information prescribed under a regulation.

- (3) Also, the following information for each antique handgun must be entered in the firearms register—
- (a) the name and address of the handgun's owner and details of the documents relied on to establish the owner's identity and address;
 - (b) the type, make, calibre, action, magazine capacity and any serial number of the firearm;
 - (c) the place where the firearm is generally kept;
 - (d) other information prescribed under a regulation.
- (4) The commissioner may make information in the register available to another entity, within or outside the State, only if the commissioner is satisfied to do so would assist in achieving the object of this Act.
- (5) A regulation may limit the information the commissioner may make available under subsection (4).
- (6) In this section—
- firearm* includes—
- (a) a category H weapon that is permanently inoperable; and
 - (b) a category M crossbow.
- owner*, of a firearm, includes a person who has lawfully acquired the firearm under a permit to acquire.

- (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply and the person unlawfully possesses 10 or more weapons—500 penalty units or 10 years imprisonment; or
 - (c) if paragraphs (a) and (b) do not apply—
 - (i) for a category D, H or R weapon—300 penalty units or 7 years imprisonment; or
 - (ii) for a category C or E weapon—200 penalty units or 4 years imprisonment; or
 - (iii) for a category A, B or M weapon—100 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment.

Minimum penalty—

- (d) for an offence, committed by an adult, to which paragraph (a), (b), (c)(i) or (c)(ii) applies—
 - (i) if the person unlawfully possesses a firearm and uses the firearm to commit an indictable offence—18 months imprisonment served wholly in a corrective services facility; or
 - (ii) if the person unlawfully possesses a firearm for the purpose of committing or facilitating the commission of an indictable offence—1 year's imprisonment served wholly in a corrective services facility; or
 - (iii) if the person unlawfully possesses a short firearm in a public place without a reasonable excuse—1 year's imprisonment served wholly in a corrective services facility; or
- (e) for an offence, committed by an adult, to which paragraph (c)(iii) applies—
 - (i) if the person unlawfully possesses a firearm and uses the firearm to commit an indictable offence—9 months imprisonment served wholly in a corrective services facility; or
 - (ii) if the person unlawfully possesses a firearm for the purpose of committing or facilitating the commission of an indictable offence—6 months imprisonment served wholly in a corrective services facility.

- (1A) For the purpose of subsection (1), penalty, paragraph (d)(iii), but without limiting that provision, it is a reasonable excuse to unlawfully possess the short firearm in the public place if—
- (a) a licence was in force within the 12 months immediately before the day the person committed the offence but is no longer in force at the time of the offence; and
 - (b) the person would have been authorised under this Act to possess the short firearm in the public place at the time of the offence if the licence was still in force at that time; and
 - (c) it was not a reason for the licence being no longer in force that the licence had been surrendered, suspended or revoked under this Act.
- (1B) It is not a reasonable excuse for subsection (1), penalty, paragraph (d)(iii) to unlawfully possess the short firearm in the public place for the purpose of self-defence.
- (2) A court, in sentencing a person found guilty of an offence against subsection (1), may take into consideration whether the person stored the weapon in the way prescribed under a regulation for the weapon.
- (3) In this section—
public place includes any vehicle that is in or on a public place.

50A Possession of unregistered firearms

- (1) A licensee must not possess an unregistered firearm.
Maximum penalty—120 penalty units.
- (2) A licensed dealer or licensed armourer does not contravene subsection (1) if the unregistered firearm is entered in the dealer's or armourer's weapons register under section 71.

(3) In this section—

firearm does not include a barrel, breechbolt or top slide of a firearm.

unregistered firearm means a firearm for which information is not entered in the firearms register.

50B Unlawful supply of weapons

(1) A person must not unlawfully supply a weapon to another person.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) if the person unlawfully supplies 5 or more weapons at least 1 of which is a category D, E, H or R weapon—13 years imprisonment; or
- (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply and the person unlawfully supplies 5 or more weapons—500 penalty units or 10 years imprisonment; or
- (c) if paragraphs (a) and (b) do not apply—
 - (i) for a category D, H or R weapon—500 penalty units or 10 years imprisonment; or
 - (ii) for a category C or E weapon—300 penalty units or 7 years imprisonment; or
 - (iii) for a category A, B, or M weapon—200 penalty units or 4 years imprisonment.

Minimum penalty—

- (d) for an offence, committed by an adult, to which paragraph (a) applies, if at least 1 of the weapons unlawfully supplied is a short firearm and the person does not have a reasonable excuse for unlawfully supplying the weapons—3 years imprisonment served wholly in a corrective services facility; or
- (e) for an offence, committed by an adult, to which paragraph (c)(i) applies, if the weapon is a short firearm and the person does not have a reasonable excuse for unlawfully supplying the weapon—2½ years imprisonment served wholly in a corrective services facility.

- (1A) For the purpose of subsection (1), penalty, paragraph (d) or (e), but without limiting those provisions, it is a reasonable excuse to unlawfully supply the weapon if—
- (a) a licence was in force within the 12 months immediately before the day the person committed the offence but is no longer in force at the time of the offence; and
 - (b) the person would have been authorised under this Act to supply the weapon at the time of the offence if the licence was still in force at that time; and
 - (c) it was not a reason for the licence being no longer in force that the licence had been surrendered, suspended or revoked under this Act.
- (2) A person does not contravene subsection (1) if the person to whom the weapon is supplied—
- (a) is authorised under a licence to possess weapons of the same category as the weapon supplied; or
 - (b) is authorised to possess the weapon under section 52, 53, 54(2), 55, 55A, 70 or 116.

Note—

If subsection (1) does not apply because subsection (2)(a) applies, the person disposing of the weapon may contravene section 36 (Sale or disposal of weapons).

- (3) The Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 161Q also states a circumstance of aggravation for an offence against this section.
- (4) An indictment charging an offence against this section with the circumstance of aggravation stated in the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 161Q may not be presented without the consent of a Crown Law Officer.

51 Possession of a knife in a public place or a school

- (1) A person must not physically possess a knife in a public place or a school, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units or 1 year's imprisonment.

- (2) It is a reasonable excuse for subsection (1) to physically possess a knife—
- (a) to perform a lawful activity, duty or employment; or
 - (b) to participate in a lawful entertainment, recreation or sport; or
 - (c) for lawfully exhibiting the knife; or
 - (d) for use for a lawful purpose.

Example for subsection (2)(a)—

- 1 A person may carry a knife on his or her belt for performing work in primary production.

Examples for subsection (2)(b)—

- 1 A scout may carry a knife on his or her belt as part of the scout uniform.
- 2 A person may carry a knife as an accessory while playing in a pipe band.
- 3 A fisher may carry a knife for use while fishing.

Example for subsection (2)(c)—

- 1 A person who collects knives may exhibit them at a fete or another public gathering.

Examples for subsection (2)(d)—

- 1 A person may use a knife to prepare or cut food at a restaurant in a public place or when having a picnic in a park.
- 2 A person may carry a pen knife or swiss army knife for use for its normal utility purposes.

- (3) However, it is not a reasonable excuse to physically possess a knife in a public place or a school for self-defence purposes.
- (4) Also, it is a reasonable excuse for subsection (1), to the extent the subsection relates to a public place, to physically possess a knife for genuine religious purposes.

Example—

A Sikh may possess, in a public place, a knife known as a kirpan to comply with the person's religious faith.

- (5) However, it is not a reasonable excuse to physically possess a knife in a school for genuine religious purposes.
- (6) In deciding what is a reasonable excuse for subsection (1), regard may be had, among other things, to whether the way the knife is held in possession, or when and where it is held in possession, would cause a reasonable person concern that he or she, or someone else in the vicinity, may be threatened or harmed.
- (7) In this section—

knife includes a thing with a sharpened point or blade that is reasonably capable of—

- (a) being held in 1 or both hands; and
- (b) being used to wound or threaten to wound anyone when held in 1 or both hands.

public place includes a vehicle that is in or on a public place.

school means any part of the premises of—

- (a) a State educational institution under the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006; or
- (b) a non-State school under the Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Act 2017.

52 Physical possession and use of weapon sometimes allowed for the purpose of training a minor

- (1) A minor who is at least 11 years may have physical possession of and use a category A or B weapon or a category M crossbow in a place where it is lawful to physically possess and use a category A or B weapon or a category M crossbow if—
 - (a) the minor is under the direct and immediate supervision of a parent, guardian or another person who is acting in the place of a parent or guardian; and

- (b) the parent, guardian or other person is licensed to possess the weapon.
 - (2) A minor who is at least 11 years may have physical possession of and use a category A or B weapon or a category M crossbow at an approved range for category A or B weapons or category M crossbows if the minor is supervised—
 - (a) directly and immediately by a range officer; or
 - (b) as prescribed by regulation.

53 An unlicensed person may use a weapon at an approved range

- (1) This section applies to a person—
 - (a) who is not a licensee; or
 - (b) who is a licensee but is not authorised to possess the weapon the person proposes to physically possess and use under this section.
- (2) The person may physically possess and use a weapon at an approved range for the category of weapon if, immediately before possessing and using the weapon, the person—
 - (a) produces for the inspection of a range officer at the range photographic identification identifying the person; and
 - Examples of photographic identification—*
 - weapons licence
 - driver licence
 - (b) completes and signs an approved form stating the following and gives the form to the range officer—
 - (i) the person's name, residential address and date of birth;
 - (ii) that the person is a licensee or is not an excluded person;
 - (iii) the date and time the declaration is completed.

- (3) Before allowing the person to physically possess and use a weapon at the approved range, the range officer must sign the approved form declaring that the range officer—
- (a) inspected the person's photographic identification; and
 - (b) if the person states in the approved form that the person is a licensee, inspected the person's licence; and
 - (c) was satisfied—
 - (i) the person signing the approved form appeared to be the person shown in the photographic identification; and
 - (ii) after inspecting the completed approved form—
 - (A) that information in the completed approved form agreed with information shown on the photographic identification; and
 - (B) that the person is a licensee or, on the information contained in the approved form, is not an excluded person.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

- (4) It is a condition of the approved shooting club's shooting club permit that the club must keep the approved form for 3 years after the approved form is signed.
- (5) The range officer must ensure the person is supervised by the range officer or another range officer at all times when the person is in physical possession of the weapon.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

- (6) For subsection (5), if the person is in physical possession of a category H weapon, the supervision of the person by a range officer must be direct, personal and exclusive supervision by the range officer at all times when that person is in physical possession of the weapon.
- (7) In this section—

excluded person means a person—

- (a) who has been convicted in Queensland or elsewhere of—
 - (i) murder or manslaughter; or
 - (ii) armed robbery; or
 - (iii) unlawful wounding; or
 - (iv) grievous bodily harm; or
 - (v) an offence involving drugs, weapons or violence prescribed under a regulation that is punishable by at least 7 years imprisonment; or
 - (b) who, in the 5 year period immediately before the day the person signs the approved form under this section, has been convicted of, or discharged from custody on sentence after the person has been convicted of, any of the following offences—
 - (i) an offence relating to the misuse of drugs;
 - (ii) an offence involving the use or threatened use of violence;
 - (iii) an offence involving the use, carriage, discharge or possession of a weapon; or
 - (c) who, in the 5 year period immediately before the day the person signs the approved form under this section, has been subject to a domestic violence order, other than a temporary protection order; or
 - (d) who is subject to a temporary protection order, police protection notice or release conditions; or
 - (e) who is prevented by another order of a Queensland court or another court outside Queensland from holding a licence or possessing a weapon unless the order permits the person to possess or use a weapon under supervision; or
 - (f) who, in the 5 year period immediately before the day the person signs the approved form under this section, has been subject to an involuntary assessment order under the Mental Health Act 2016 or a similar order under the repealed Mental Health Act 2000, or a similar order in another State; or

- (g) who has been refused a licence, or whose licence has been revoked, in the 5 year period immediately before the day the person signs the approved form under this section because the person is not, or is no longer, a fit and proper person to hold a licence; or
- (h) whose licence is suspended.

54 Possession or use of weapon by unlicensed person in primary production sometimes allowed

- (1) In this section—

primary producer means a person who—

- (a) has a licence; and
- (b) usually carries out primary production on land (the primary producer's land), even if only as an agent or employee of another person.

weapon means a weapon that a primary producer possesses under the authority of a licence.

- (2) A person who is an agent, employee or member of the immediate family of the primary producer may possess or use a weapon on the primary producer's land, even if the person does not hold a licence for that category of weapon, if the person—
- (a) assists the primary producer with primary production on the land; and
 - (b) is eligible to obtain a licence to possess a weapon; and
 - (c) only uses the weapon with the express consent of the primary producer; and
 - (d) only uses the weapon in connection with carrying out primary production on the land.

55 Use of weapons by particular unlicensed persons at shooting gallery allowed

- (1) A person (customer) using a shooting gallery may physically possess and use a weapon allowed under the conditions of approval of the shooting gallery, even if the person is not the holder of a licence for the category of weapon.
- (2) However, a person conducting a shooting gallery must not allow the customer to physically possess and use the weapon unless the customer—
 - (a) for a shooting gallery being used for paint-pellet sports—is at least 15 years; or
 - (b) for a shooting gallery not being used for paint-pellet sports—is at least 11 years.

Maximum penalty for subsection (2)—20 penalty units.

55A Possession of weapons supplied by theatrical ordnance supplier

A person may have physical possession of and use a weapon supplied to the person by a theatrical ordnance supplier under section 118 for use in a theatrical, film or television production if the use is personally supervised by the supplier.

56 Discharge of weapon on private land without owner's consent prohibited

- (1) In this section—

owner of private land includes the occupier of the land.

private land means land that is not a public place.

weapon includes an antique firearm, spear gun, longbow and slingshot.
- (2) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, discharge a weapon on or across private land without the express consent of the owner.

[s 57]

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.

- (1) It is a condition of an approved shooting club's shooting club permit that the club must keep a range use register and ensure the register is available at all times when the range is being conducted by the shooting club.
- (2) Before a person uses a range conducted by an approved shooting club to discharge a weapon, the person must—
 - (a) if the person is a licensee, produce the person's licence to a range officer at the range; and
 - (b) enter in the range use register the details provided for under subsection (3).

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

Note—

If the person proposing to use the range is not a licensee, the person must produce the identification and complete the approved form required under section 53.

- (3) The register must include provision for the following details—

- (a) the person's identity;
 - (b) the category of weapon the person will use on the range;
 - (c) other details prescribed under a regulation.
- (4) It is a condition of an approved shooting club's shooting club permit that the club ensure that a range officer of the club must inspect the entry made by the person in the register and endorse the entry as correct before allowing the person to use the range.
- (5) An endorsement under this section must clearly identify the person making the endorsement.
- (6) Subsections (2)(a) and (4) do not apply in relation to a range officer of the approved range using the range to discharge a weapon.

98 Service of notice on approved shooting club

- (1) A notice required or permitted by this division to be served on an approved shooting club may be served on the shooting club's representative.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not affect the operation of any other law that authorises the service of the document in another way.

98A Limitation on organised target shooting

Unless otherwise authorised by this Act, a person may conduct organised target shooting only on an approved range.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.

98B Membership of approved pistol clubs

- (1) It is a condition of an approved pistol club's shooting club permit that the club must not accept a person for membership of the club unless the person submits with the person's application for membership—

[s 99]

- (a) if the person is not a licensee, a current statement in the approved form signed by an authorised officer that the person is a fit and proper person to hold a licence; and
 - (b) 2 character references from persons the person has known for at least 2 years; and
 - (c) a declaration that the person is a current member of other named approved shooting clubs or that the person is not a current member of any other approved shooting club.
- (2) A statement mentioned in subsection (1)(a) is current for 3 months after the day it is signed by the authorised officer.

Division 5 Approved ranges

99 Application for range approval

- (1) Application may be made to an authorised officer to approve a range for weapons target shooting.
- (2) The application must—
 - (a) be in the approved form; and
 - (b) provide the further particulars reasonably required by the authorised officer; and
 - (c) be accompanied by the fee prescribed by regulation.

A range may be approved only if the range is conducted by—

- (a) an approved shooting club; or
- (b) an incorporated association; or
- (c) an entity conducting an approved training course.

101 Authorised officer may grant or refuse range approval

- (1) The authorised officer may grant the approval if the authorised officer is satisfied—
 - (a) the range will be used for—
 - (i) conducting an approved training course; or
 - (ii) the sport of target shooting; and
 - (b) the location, construction and equipment of the range is appropriate having regard to the need to protect persons from death or injury and property from unlawful destruction or damage; and
 - (c) the application complies with section 99.
- (2) An approval must be given in the approved form.

102 Authorised officer to give reasons for refusing to grant approval

The authorised officer may refuse to grant the approval by written notice given to the applicant stating the reasons for the refusal.

103 Conditions to apply to approval

- (1) If an authorised officer grants the approval, the authorised officer may impose conditions applying to the approval.
- (2) The authorised officer may impose conditions about—
 - (a) the location, construction, equipment and maintenance of the range; and
 - (b) matters prescribed by regulation.
- (3) In imposing conditions, the authorised officer must have regard to the need to protect persons from death or injury and property from unlawful destruction or damage.
- (4) The conditions must be specified in the approval or by written notice given to the applicant.

104 Authorised officer may amend approval conditions

- (1) An authorised officer may amend the conditions applying to an approval—
 - (a) on the application of the range operator; or
 - (b) on the initiative of the authorised officer.
- (2) In making an amendment under subsection (1), the authorised officer must have regard to the need to protect persons from death or injury and property from unlawful destruction or damage.
- (3) Before making an amendment under subsection (1)(b), the authorised officer must—
 - (a) give written notice to the range operator—
 - (i) of the details of the proposed amendment; and
 - (ii) that the range operator may make written submissions to the authorised officer about the proposed amendment before a specified day (not earlier than 21 days after the notice is given to the range operator); and
 - (b) have regard to submissions made to the authorised officer by the range operator before the specified day.
- (4) If an authorised officer amends the conditions applying to an approval, the authorised officer must give written notice of the amendment to the range operator.
- (5) The amendment takes effect—
 - (a) on the day the written notice of the amendment is given to the range operator; or
 - (b) if a later day is specified in the notice—on the specified day.
- (6) An authorised officer may refuse to make an amendment under subsection (1)(a) by written notice given to the range operator stating the reasons for the refusal.

105 Authorised officer may make temporary amendment of conditions

- (1) An authorised officer may make a temporary amendment of the conditions applying to an approval if the authorised officer considers, on reasonable grounds, that it is necessary to make the amendment to protect a person from death or injury or property from unlawful destruction or damage.
- (2) An authorised officer may make an amendment under subsection (1) by written notice given to the range operator stating the reasons for the amendment.
- (3) The amendment takes effect—
 - (a) on the day the written notice of the amendment is given to the range operator; or
 - (b) if a later day is specified in the notice—on the specified day.
- (4) The amendment has effect for 28 days unless—
 - (a) the notice specifies a shorter period; or
 - (b) the authorised officer extends the amendment for a single further specified period (not longer than 28 days).
- (5) An authorised officer may extend an amendment under subsection (4)(b) by written notice given to the range operator stating the reasons for the extension.

106 Suspending or revoking approval

- (1) An authorised officer may suspend or revoke an approval if—
 - (a) a range operator or a range officer contravenes this Act; or
 - (b) the authorised officer believes, on reasonable grounds, that it is necessary to suspend or revoke the approval to protect a person from death or injury, or property from unlawful destruction or damage.
- (2) The authorised officer must give written notice of the suspension or revocation to the range operator.

- (3) The notice must specify—
 - (a) if the approval has been suspended—the period of suspension; and
 - (b) the reasons for the suspension or revocation.
- (4) The suspension or revocation takes effect—
 - (a) on the day the notice is given to the range operator; or
 - (b) if a later day is specified in the notice—on the specified day.
- (5) A range approval that is suspended stops having effect until the suspension is lifted.

107 Range can be dealt with in conjunction with shooting club permit

An application, grant of approval or notice under this division may be included in an application, issue of permit or notice respectively under division 4.

108 Responsibilities of range operator

- (1) In this section—

range operator means the person conducting an approved range for an approved shooting club under the approval given under this division and, if the approval is issued to an unincorporated body or association of persons, includes each member of the body's or association's governing body.
- (2) A range operator must ensure every person who physically possesses or uses a weapon at the approved range is properly supervised by an adult (a range officer) who—
 - (a) holds a firearms licence under this Act; or
 - (b) is a range officer, however called, under a law of another State that corresponds with this Act.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

- (3) A range operator must ensure the name of each range officer supervising persons using the approved range is prominently displayed at the range at any time when a weapon is discharged.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

- (4) A range operator must take all reasonable steps to ensure a person attending the approved range does not contravene this Act.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

109 Responsibilities of range officer

A range officer supervising an approved shooting range must take all reasonable steps to ensure a person attending the range does not contravene this Act.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

110 Responsibilities of person attending an approved range

- (1) A person attending an approved range must not possess or use a weapon at the range unless the possession or use—

(a) is authorised under—

(i) a licence issued to the person; or

(ii) section 52; or

(iii) section 53; and

(b) is permitted by the range officer; and

(c) complies with the conditions on which the range was approved, including, for example, that it is a weapon of a category for which the range was approved.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

- (2) A person attending an approved range must not use a weapon at the range in a way that is likely to cause death or injury to a person or unlawful destruction of, or damage to, property.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

- (3) A person attending an approved range must comply with a direction by a range officer for the range given for the purposes of this Act or safety reasons, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

111 Approval of shooting galleries

- (1) A person must not conduct a shooting gallery at any time without the approval of an authorised officer to conduct that gallery.

Maximum penalty—60 penalty units.

- (2) An authorised officer must not grant approval to conduct a shooting gallery unless—
 - (a) the applicant for approval has attained the age of 18 years; and
 - (b) the officer is satisfied that the applicant has an adequate knowledge of safety practices relating to the use of the firearms to be used at the gallery; and
 - (c) in the opinion of the authorised officer—
 - (i) the applicant is a fit and proper person to conduct the gallery; and
 - (ii) the prescribed conditions and any conditions imposed by the authorised officer will be complied with.

- (3) An authorised officer may grant approval to conduct a shooting gallery subject to the prescribed conditions and to such other conditions as the officer thinks fit.

- (4) An authorised officer may refuse to grant approval to conduct a shooting gallery by giving the applicant for approval a notice in or to the effect of the approved form stating the specific reasons for the refusal and forwarding the notice to the applicant by registered post to the address shown on the application.

- (5) An authorised officer may revoke an approval given under subsection (3) by written notice, given to the person granted the approval, that sets out the reasons for the revocation.

112 Conditions of approval

- (1) Approval to conduct a shooting gallery is to be subject to the following conditions—
- (a) the several parts of the shooting gallery are to be designed, constructed and maintained to the satisfaction of an authorised officer;
 - (b) where live ammunition is to be used—
 - (i) the area between the place where the firearm is mounted and the target is to be so constructed as to prevent projectile penetration or ricochet; and
 - (ii) the firearm is to be so mounted that its barrel must remain within the confines of the gallery at all times;
 - (c) at least 1 natural person specified in the approval is to—
 - (i) be physically present at the gallery at all times when it is open to the public; and
 - (ii) personally supervise the use of every firearm by each person resorting to the gallery; and
 - (iii) exercise all reasonable care and precaution and give such directions as are necessary to any person to prevent danger during the use of any firearm at the gallery.
- (2) Subsection (1)(b) does not apply to the use of a paint-pellet gun at a shooting gallery used solely for paint-pellet sports.

113 Representative of holder of approval

- (1) The holder of or an applicant for an approval to conduct a shooting gallery may apply in or to the effect of the approved form (which may be incorporated as part of the form of application for the approval) for the approval to be endorsed in accordance with this Act with the name of a fit and proper natural person who satisfies the requirements of section 111 as the representative of the holder of the approval at the premises or location specified in the application.
- (2) On application by the holder of an approval to conduct a shooting gallery in or to the effect of the approved form, the approval may be endorsed with the name of a fit and proper person who satisfies the requirements of section 111 in place of the name of another person endorsed as representative of the holder under this section.
- (3) An application under subsection (1) or (2) may be made to an officer in charge of police.

113A Authorised officer may amend approval conditions

- (1) An authorised officer may amend the conditions applying to an approval to conduct a shooting gallery—
 - (a) on the application of the person granted the approval (gallery operator); or
 - (b) on the initiative of the authorised officer.
- (2) In making the amendment, the authorised officer must have regard to the need to protect persons from death or injury and property from unlawful destruction or damage.
- (3) Before making an amendment under subsection (1)(b), the authorised officer must—
 - (a) give written notice to the gallery operator stating—
 - (i) the details of the proposed amendment; and
 - (ii) that the person may make written submissions to the authorised officer about the proposed amendment before a stated day, not earlier than 21 days after the notice is given to the person; and

- (b) have regard to submissions made to the authorised officer by the person before the stated day.
- (4) If the authorised officer amends the conditions applying to an approval, the authorised officer must give written notice of the amendment to the gallery operator.
- (5) The amendment takes effect—
 - (a) on the day the written notice of the amendment is given to the person; or
 - (b) if a later day is stated in the notice—on the stated day.
- (6) An authorised officer may refuse to make an amendment under subsection (1)(a) by written notice given to the gallery operator stating the reasons for the refusal.

113B Authorised officer may make temporary amendment of conditions

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.

Part 5 Additional requirements in relation to category H weapons

Division 1 Requirements for holders of concealable firearms licence

130 Application of div 1

This division applies to a holder of a concealable firearms licence (licensee) whose genuine reason for possession of a weapon is sports or target shooting.

131 Limitation on number of concealable firearms particular licensees may acquire

- (1) An individual licensee must not, during the first year after the individual is first issued with a concealable firearms licence, acquire for sports or target shooting under that licence more than—
 - (a) 1 air pistol; and
 - (b) 1 of the following—
 - (i) a rim-fire pistol;
 - (ii) a centre-fire pistol;
 - (iii) a black-powder pistol.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to—
 - (a) a person who—

[s 132]

- (i) holds a licence or other authority under a law of another State that corresponds with this Act authorising the applicant to possess a category H weapon for sports or target shooting (relevant authority); and
 - (ii) has held the relevant authority for at least 12 months; and
 - (iii) has, in the other State, participated in not less than the number of handgun shooting competitions for the weapon necessary to comply with the law of the other State; or
- (b) a person who—
- (i) was permitted or authorised under the law of another country to possess a category H weapon for sports or target shooting; and
 - (ii) has, within the 2 year period immediately before the application is made, consistently participated at a national or international level in internationally recognised shooting competitions for a category H weapon.

Examples of internationally recognised shooting competitions—

- shooting competitions in the Olympic Games
- shooting competitions in the Commonwealth Games
- metallic silhouette world championship

132 Conditions for concealable firearms licence

- (1) It is a condition of a concealable firearms licence that the licensee must not possess any of the following category H weapons under the authority of a concealable firearms licence—
- (a) a weapon that has a calibre of more than .38 inch;
 - (b) a weapon that is semi-automatic and has a barrel length of less than 120mm unless it has an overall length of at least 250mm measured parallel to the barrel;

- (c) a weapon that is not semi-automatic and has a barrel length of less than 100mm unless it has an overall length of at least 250mm measured parallel to the barrel;
 - (d) a weapon with a magazine capacity of more than 10 rounds.
- (2) Despite subsection (1)(a), an authorised officer may authorise the licensee, by condition endorsed on the licence, to possess a category H weapon that the licensee is not authorised to possess under subsection (1) if the authorised officer is satisfied that the licensee is to possess the weapon for use in an accredited event.

Note—

Subsection (1) does not interfere with a person's ability to hold the weapons under another appropriate licence.

- (3) It is a condition of a concealable firearms licence that the licensee must be a member of an approved pistol club.
- (4) In this section—
category H weapon does not include a black-powder pistol.

133 Participation conditions for concealable firearms licence

- (1) If a licensee is the registered owner of 1 or more category H weapons in a single class, the licensee's licence is subject to the condition that the licensee use a weapon from that class in not less than 6 handgun shooting competitions conducted on different days in each financial year.
- (2) For subsection (1), if a category H weapon to be used is a high calibre weapon, the handgun shooting competitions at which the weapon must be used must be accredited events.
- (3) If the licensee is the registered owner of at least 1 category H weapon in each of 2 or more classes, the licensee's licence is subject to the condition that the licensee use a weapon from each class in not less than 4 club organised shoots for the class in each financial year.
- (4) For subsection (3)—

[s 133]

- (a) at least 6 of the club organised shoots must be handgun shooting competitions; and
- (b) if 1 of the classes is a class for high calibre weapons, at least 4 of the club organised shoots for a weapon from the class must be accredited events; and
- (c) each club organised shoot for the classes must be conducted on different days.

Example for paragraph (c)—

If a licensee uses category H weapons from 2 classes in club organised shoots conducted on a single day, only 1 of the shoots is to be taken into account for the licensee's participation record because the shoots are not conducted on different days.

Note—

Under section 134, the licensee must keep a participation record. The licensee's participation in club organised shoots must be entered in the record and endorsed by a range officer of the shooting club conducting the shoot.

- (5) If the licensee is the registered owner of a single category H weapon in a particular class for less than 12 months in a particular financial year, the relevant participation condition for use of a weapon from that class applies proportionately, based on whole calendar months, for that financial year, after rounding down to the nearest whole number of competitions.

Examples for subsection (5)—

- 1 If the licensee has 1 category H weapon for 6 months during a particular financial year, the licensee must participate in 3 club organised shoots to satisfy the participation condition for that weapon in that financial year.
 - 2 If the licensee has 1 category H weapon for 5 months during a particular financial year, the licensee must participate in 2 club organised shoots to satisfy the participation condition for that weapon in that financial year.
- (6) However, if the licensee is the registered owner of a single category H weapon in a particular class for less than 3 months in a particular financial year, the relevant participation condition for use of a weapon from that class does not apply for that financial year.

- (7) Also, if in a particular financial year the licensee satisfies an authorised officer that the licensee is, or was, unable to comply with a relevant participation condition for the year for reasons outside the licensee's control, the authorised officer may decide the number of times, if any, that the licensee must use, or was required to use, a weapon in a club organised shoot for the particular year to satisfy the participation condition.
- (8) A decision under subsection (7) must be made on a proportionate basis, based on whole calendar months, having regard to the period that the authorised officer is satisfied the licensee is, or was, unable to comply with a relevant participation condition for reasons outside the licensee's control.
- (9) In this section—
high calibre weapon means a category H weapon, other than a black-powder pistol, having a calibre of more than .38 inch but not more than .45 inch.

134 Licensees to keep participation record

- (1) If a licensee is the registered owner of a category H weapon, it is a special condition of the licensee's licence that the licensee—
 - (a) advise each approved pistol club of which the licensee is a member of the participation conditions, and any change to the participation conditions, to which the member's licence is subject; and
 - (b) keep a record of the licensee's participation in handgun shooting competitions (participation record).
- (2) The advice under subsection (1)(a) must be given in writing within 28 days after the happening of any of the following—
 - (a) the start of a financial year;
 - (b) the licensee becoming a member of an approved pistol club;

- (c) a change to the participation conditions to which the licensee's licence is subject.
- (3) The participation record must contain the information prescribed under a regulation.
- (4) The licensee must enter the prescribed information immediately after the licensee's participation in a club organised shoot has ended.
- (5) The licensee must have the entry endorsed, in the way prescribed under a regulation, as correct by a range officer of the approved pistol club conducting the club organised shoot on the day of the shoot before the shoot ends.
- (6) If the club organised shoot is a handgun shooting competition conducted outside Queensland, the licensee may have the entry endorsed, in the way prescribed under a regulation, as correct by an official supervising the competition.
- (7) An endorsement under subsection (5) or (6) must clearly identify the person making the endorsement.
- (8) An entry properly endorsed under this section is evidence of the licensee's participation in the club organised shoot.
- (9) In this section—
registered owner, of a category H weapon, means the person entered in the firearms register as the owner of the weapon.

135 Show cause notice

- (1) If an authorised officer reasonably suspects that a licensee has failed to comply with a participation condition, the authorised officer may give the licensee a written notice (show cause notice).
- (2) The show cause notice must state the following—
 - (a) that the licensee may be required to dispose of a particular category H weapon or class of category H weapon (the proposed action);
 - (b) the ground for the proposed action;

- (c) an outline of the facts and circumstances forming the basis for the grounds;
 - (d) an invitation to the licensee to show, within a stated period (the show cause period), why the proposed action should not be taken.
- (3) The show cause period must be a period ending at least 28 days after the day the show cause notice is given to the licensee.

136 Consideration of representations

- (1) The licensee may make written representations about the show cause notice to the authorised officer in the show cause period.
- (2) The authorised officer must consider all written representations (the accepted representations) made under subsection (1).

137 Notice to dispose

- (1) If, after considering the accepted representations, the authorised officer is not satisfied that the licensee has complied with a participation condition, the authorised officer may, by written notice (notice to dispose) given to the licensee, require the licensee to dispose of a particular category H weapon or class of category H weapon within 3 months after the date of the notice.

Note—

If the authorised officer is satisfied that the licensee's failure to comply with a participation condition was for reasons outside the licensee's control, the authorised officer may, under section 133(7), decide the number of times the licensee was required to use the weapon to satisfy the participation condition.

- (2) The licensee must dispose of the weapon within 3 months after the date of the notice to dispose—
 - (a) to a person lawfully acquiring the weapon under a permit to acquire; or

[s 138]

- (b) by delivering the weapon to a licensed dealer; or
 - (c) by delivering the weapon to a licensed armourer; or
 - (d) by surrendering the weapon to a police officer under arrangements made for the surrender.
- (3) The licensee may acquire a weapon delivered to a licensed dealer or licensed armourer under this section only if the licensee has a current permit to acquire the weapon issued after the weapon was delivered to the dealer or armourer.

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment.

- (4) The licensee must provide evidence of the disposal to an authorised officer within 4 months after the date of the notice to dispose.

Maximum penalty—60 penalty units.

- (5) If a weapon is surrendered to a police officer under this section—
- (a) on the surrender, the weapon is State property; and
 - (b) no compensation is payable for the weapon.

Division 2 Requirements for collectors

138 Condition for collector's licence (weapons)

- (1) It is a condition of a collector's licence (weapons) that the licensee must not possess temporarily inoperable category H weapons unless the licensee is a member of an approved historical society.
- (2) It is a condition of a collector's licence (weapons) that the licensee must not possess temporarily inoperable modern handguns.
- (3) Despite subsection (2), an authorised officer may authorise the licensee to possess temporarily inoperable modern handguns if the authorised officer is satisfied that the licensee has a prolonged and genuine interest in the study, preservation or collection of firearms.

- (4) If the authorised officer authorises the licensee to possess temporarily inoperable modern handguns, the authorised officer must endorse the licensee's licence accordingly.

Division 3 Requirements for approved pistol clubs

139 Endorsement of participation record

- (1) This section applies if an approved pistol club is conducting a club organised shoot.
- (2) If asked by a licensee participating in the club organised shoot after the licensee's participation in the shoot has ended, but before the shoot ends, a range officer of the pistol club must—
 - (a) inspect the licensee's entry in the licensee's participation record; and
 - (b) if satisfied the entry is correct, endorse the entry in the way prescribed under a regulation.

140 Approved pistol club to give report about members

- (1) An authorised officer may, by written notice given to the representative of an approved pistol club, require the representative to give the authorised officer a report under this section.
- (2) The representative must comply with the requirement within 28 days after receiving the notice.
- (3) The report must advise the authorised officer—
 - (a) about each member of the pistol club who, according to the pistol club's records, failed to satisfy a participation condition to which the member's licence was subject during the immediately preceding financial year; or

[s 141]

- (b) that, according to the pistol club's records, each member of the pistol club satisfied the participation conditions to which the member's licence was subject during the immediately preceding financial year.

141 Show cause notice

- (1) If a representative of an approved pistol club fails to comply with a requirement under section 140, the authorised officer may give the approved pistol club a written notice (show cause notice).
- (2) The show cause notice must state the following—
 - (a) that the authorised officer may revoke the approved pistol club's shooting club permit (the proposed action);
 - (b) the ground for the proposed action;
 - (c) an outline of the facts and circumstances forming the basis for the grounds;
 - (d) an invitation to the approved pistol club to show, within a stated period (the show cause period), why the proposed action should not be taken.
- (3) The show cause period must be a period ending at least 28 days after the day the show cause notice is given to the approved pistol club.

141A Consideration of representations

- (1) The approved pistol club may make written representations about the show cause notice to the authorised officer in the show cause period.
- (2) The authorised officer must consider all written representations (the accepted representations) made under subsection (1).

Note—

An authorised officer is empowered to suspend or revoke a shooting club permit under section 96.

Division 4 Disclosure requirements for approved pistol clubs and approved historical societies

141B Disclosure requirements

- (1) It is a condition of a relevant entity's shooting club permit or approval that the representative of the entity must advise the commissioner in writing as required under subsection (2)—
 - (a) when a member of the entity stops being a member of an entity; or
 - (b) when a member of the entity is expelled from the entity and the reason for the expulsion.
- (2) The representative must advise the commissioner within 14 days after the member stops being a member or is expelled.
- (3) This section applies despite any duty of confidentiality owed by the representative or entity to the member.
- (4) The giving of information by a representative under this section does not give rise to any criminal or civil action or remedy against the representative or the entity.
- (5) In this section—

relevant entity means—

 - (a) an approved pistol club; or
 - (b) an approved historical society.

Part 6 Rights of review and other appeals

 - (e) a decision revoking or suspending a licence, permit, approval or other authority under this Act;
 - (f) a decision, under section 18D(2), revoking a delegation.
- (2) A person aggrieved by the decision may apply, as provided under the QCAT Act, to QCAT for a review of the decision.

142AA Notices must be QCAT information notices

- (1) This section applies to a notice required to be given to a person in relation to a decision mentioned in section 142(1).
- (2) The notice must be a QCAT information notice for the decision.

142A Confidentiality of criminal intelligence

- (1) This section applies to—
 - (a) a review, under the QCAT Act, of a relevant decision; or
 - (b) a review, under the Judicial Review Act 1991, of a relevant decision; or
 - (c) an appeal, under the QCAT Act, in relation to a relevant decision.
- (2) The court or tribunal deciding the appeal or reviewing the decision—
 - (a) must ensure that it does not, in the reasons for its decision or otherwise, disclose the content of any criminal intelligence on which the decision is based; and

- (b) in order to prevent the disclosure of the criminal intelligence must receive evidence and hear argument in the absence of the public, the appellant or applicant for review and the appellant's or applicant's lawyer or representative; and
 - (c) may, as it considers appropriate to protect the confidentiality of criminal intelligence, take evidence consisting of criminal intelligence by way of affidavit of a police officer of at least the rank of superintendent.
- (2A) If the court or tribunal considers information categorised as criminal intelligence by the commissioner has been incorrectly categorised as criminal intelligence, the commissioner may withdraw the information from consideration by the court or tribunal.
- (2B) Information that is withdrawn by the commissioner under subsection (2A) must not be—
- (a) disclosed to any person; or
 - (b) taken into consideration by the court or tribunal.
- (2C) The Public Records Act 2002 does not apply to activities of, or records made or kept by, the court or tribunal to the extent that Act would otherwise enable criminal intelligence to be disclosed.
- (3) In this section—
- criminal intelligence means criminal intelligence or other information of the kind mentioned in section 10B(1)(ca) or 10C(1) that could, if disclosed, reasonably be expected—
- (a) to prejudice the investigation of a contravention or possible contravention of this Act; or
 - (b) to enable the existence or identity of a confidential source of information, in relation to the enforcement or administration of this Act, to be ascertained; or
 - (c) to endanger a person's life or physical safety; or
 - (d) to prejudice the effectiveness of a lawful method or procedure for preventing, detecting, investigating or dealing with a contravention or possible contravention of this Act; or

 - (a) an approved shooting club; or
 - (b) an approved historical society.

151B Protection of informers

- (1) If an informer supplies information to a police officer in relation to the commission of an indictable offence against this Act, the informer's identity must, at all times, be kept confidential.
- (2) A person must not disclose the name of an informer or any other particular that may be likely to lead to the informer's identification.

Maximum penalty—2 years imprisonment.

- (3) However, a person does not contravene subsection (2) if—
 - (a) the informer consents to the information being disclosed; or
 - (b) the disclosure was made in good faith for the protection of the informer's interests; or
 - (c) a court orders the disclosure after being satisfied that—

- (i) disclosing the information is not likely to jeopardise the informer's safety; and
 - (ii) the disclosure is in the public interest.

151C Source of information not to be disclosed

- (1) This section applies to a proceeding under this Act or another Act if an informer has supplied information to a police officer in relation to the commission of an indictable offence against this Act.
- (2) If the prosecutor or a prescribed witness in the proceeding is asked to disclose any of the following, the prosecutor or prescribed witness can not be compelled to disclose—
 - (a) the name of an informer, or any other particular that may be likely to lead to the informer's identification; or
 - (b) the fact that, in relation to the offence, the prosecutor or witness—
 - (i) received information from an informer; or
 - (ii) furnished information to an informer or the nature of the information.
- (3) A police officer appearing as a prosecutor or witness in the proceeding must not be compelled—
 - (a) to produce a report or document, made or received by the police officer in the police officer's official capacity or containing information given by the informer in relation to the offence; or
 - (b) to make a statement in relation to the report or document or information contained in the report or document.
- (4) However the prosecutor, prescribed witness or police officer in the proceeding may be compelled to disclose information, or a report or document, to the extent—
 - (a) the informer consents to the particular information, or all or a particular part of the report or document, being disclosed; or

- (b) a court orders that particular information, or all or a particular part of the report or document, be disclosed after being satisfied that the disclosure is not likely to jeopardise the informer's safety and is in the public interest.
- (5) In this section—
- prescribed witness* means—
- (a) a person appearing as a witness for the prosecution; or
 - (b) a police officer appearing as a witness for the defence.

151D Power to prohibit publication of proceedings

- (1) In a proceeding arising out of a charge of having committed an indictable offence against this Act, the presiding judicial officer may make an order prohibiting the publication of all or any part of the proceeding and the name and address of any witness.
- (2) An application for an order under subsection (1) may be made in closed court in the presence of any person the presiding judicial officer permits and no other person.
- (3) On the hearing of the application, the presiding judicial officer may receive and act on any information the presiding judicial officer considers appropriate.
- (4) When considering an application to prohibit publication, the presiding judicial officer must have regard to—
 - (a) the safety of any person; and
 - (b) the extent to which the detection of offences of a like nature may be affected; and
 - (c) the need to guarantee the confidentiality of information given by an informer.
- (5) A person who contravenes an order made by a presiding judicial officer under subsection (1) commits an offence.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) if the order is made by a magistrate—2 years imprisonment; or
 - (b) if the order is made by a judge—5 years imprisonment.
- (6) This section is in addition to and not in substitution for the Child Protection Act 1999, sections 192 and 193 and the Youth Justice Act 1992.
- (7) In this section—
- presiding judicial officer*, for a proceeding, means—
- (a) the magistrate hearing and deciding the matter summarily or conducting the examination of witnesses; or
 - (b) the judge presiding over the court to which a person has been committed for trial or sentence.

152 Approved officers

- (1) The commissioner may appoint a police officer or officer of the public service as an approved officer for this Act.
- (2) However, a police officer or officer of the public service may be appointed as an approved officer only if, in the commissioner's opinion, the person has the necessary expertise or experience to be an approved officer.

153 Authorised officers

- (1) For this Act, the following officers are authorised officers—
 - (a) the commissioner, an executive officer or commissioned officer;
 - (b) a police officer appointed as an authorised officer by the commissioner.
- (2) However, a police officer may be appointed as an authorised officer only if, in the commissioner's opinion, the officer has the necessary expertise or experience to be an authorised officer.

154 Authorised officers may approve particular weapons to be of particular types

- (1) An authorised officer, specially authorised by the commissioner for this section, may—
 - (a) decide that ammunition is not commercially available for a thing mentioned in paragraph (a), (b)(i), (c) or (d) of the definition firearm and manufactured before 1 January 1901; or
 - (b) approve a firearm to be a pre-percussion handgun if the authorised officer reasonably believes the firearm—
 - (i) is an antique firearm less than 75cm in length; and
 - (ii) does not use percussion as a means of igniting a charge; and
 - (iii) does not accept cartridge ammunition.
- (2) The commissioner may specially authorise an authorised officer under this section if the commissioner is satisfied that the officer has the necessary qualifications or experience to be specially authorised for this section.

155 Disqualification by a court

- (1) Where a person is convicted of an offence or is the subject of any order against the law of the State, the court may, in addition to any other penalty imposed by that law, do any 1 or more of the following—
 - (a) declare any licence, permit to acquire or approval held by the person convicted to be revoked;
 - (b) disqualify the person from holding or obtaining a licence or approval or from being a representative of a licensee or holder of approval under this Act for a period specified by the court;
 - (c) order that any weapon, ammunition, antique firearm, explosive tool, captive bolt humane killer, spear gun, longbow or crossbow owned or in the possession of that person is forfeited to the Crown.

- (2) A declaration under subsection (1)(a) has effect to revoke the licence or permit to acquire specified in the declaration.
- (3) A disqualification under subsection (1)(b) has effect to revoke any licence, approval or permit to acquire held by the person.

157 Fraud and unlawful possession of licence etc.

 - (iv) was a weapon or other thing that had or had not been rendered inoperable; is served upon the person charged with the offence at least 14 clear days before the hearing of the complaint then the document, a copy of which has been so served, on its production in the proceeding is sufficient evidence of the facts stated therein unless the person charged gives notice in writing in or to the effect of the approved form to the complainant at least 3 clear days before the hearing of the complaint requiring the calling of the police officer as a witness.

- (3) Notwithstanding that a person charged with an offence has failed to give the notice as prescribed in subsection (2), the court may, in the interest of justice, order the police officer to be called and may grant any necessary adjournment accordingly.
- (3A) In relation to a charge involving the unlawful possession of a firearm under section 50, the person charged is to be taken to have been in possession of the firearm if there is proof that the firearm was, at the material time, in or on a place of which the person was the occupier or concerned in the management or control unless the person shows—
 - (a) that the firearm was brought to the place by someone who was authorised to have possession of the firearm; or
 - (b) that the person neither knew nor had reason to suspect that the firearm was in or on the place; or
 - (c) that someone other than the person had responsibility for the weapon.
- (4) Unless the tribunal of fact considers the interests of justice require that opinion evidence be given, the tribunal of fact may decide whether a thing produced to it, and examined by it, is 1 of the following without the assistance of opinion evidence—

- (a) a weapon;
- (b) a particular type of weapon;
- (c) a power head, explosive tool, captive bolt humane killer, spear gun, longbow or crossbow;
- (d) a replica of a weapon;
- (e) a firearm;
- (f) a thing mentioned in section 67.

164 Service of notice, orders etc.

- (1) Any order, notice or other document issued pursuant to this Act is properly given upon the person to whom it is directed if it is served in accordance with this section, that is to say—
 - (a) by delivering a copy thereof to the person personally; or
 - (b) if the person can not reasonably be found—by leaving a copy thereof with some person for the person at that person's usual place of business or residence or at the place of business or residence last known to the person who serves the order or document; or
 - (c) by posting by registered post a copy thereof addressed to the person at that person's place of business or residence last known to the person who issued the order at least 14 days before the date on which the notice or document is to take effect.
- (2) When an order, notice or document is served, the person who serves it may attend before a justice and depose on oath and in writing endorse on a copy of the order, notice or document to the manner of service thereof showing therein the date of personal delivery, leaving or posting, as the case may be, of the order, notice or document.

- (3) Every such deposition is, upon production in any court, evidence of the matters contained therein and sufficient proof of the service of the order, notice or document on the person to whom it was directed.
- (4) Service of any order, notice or document issued pursuant to this Act upon any unincorporated body or association of persons is properly served if it is served in accordance with this section upon the person who is for the time being the secretary or president (by whatever name such office is called) of that club or association.
- (5) Subsection (4) applies to the service of a notice on a range operator that is an unincorporated body or association of persons.

165 Liability for tort generally

- (1) The Crown is liable for a tort committed by any police officer acting, or purporting to act, in the execution of duty as a police officer under this Act in like manner as an employer is liable for tort committed by the employer's servant in the course of employment.
- (2) The Crown is to be treated for all purposes as a joint tortfeasor with the police officer who committed the tort.
- (3) In no case does the Crown's liability for a tort committed by any police officer extend to a liability to pay damages in the nature of punitive damages.
- (4) In proceedings upon a claim by the Crown for damages in respect of a tort, actions done or omissions made by an officer acting, or purporting to act, in the execution of duty as a police officer under this Act may be relied on by the Crown as constituting contributory negligence, if the actions or omissions could have been so relied on if they had been done or made by a servant of the Crown in the course of employment.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, an action done or omission made by a police officer acting, or purporting to act, in the capacity of a constable is taken to have been done or made by the officer acting, or purporting to act, in the execution of duty as an officer.

- (6) If a police officer incurs liability in law for a tort committed by the police officer in the course of rendering assistance, directly or indirectly, to a person suffering, or apparently suffering, from illness or injury in circumstances that the officer reasonably considers to constitute an emergency, and if the officer acted therein in good faith and without gross negligence, the Crown is to indemnify and keep indemnified the officer in respect of that liability.

166 Payment and recovery of damages

- (1) The Crown may pay—
 - (a) the whole or part of damages, other than damages in the nature of punitive damages, and costs awarded against any police officer in proceedings with respect to a tort committed by the police officer acting, or purporting to act, in the execution of duty under this Act; and
 - (b) the whole or part of costs incurred, and not recovered, by the police officer in the proceedings.
- (2) If any police officer is liable to pay a sum under a settlement of a claim that has, or might have, given rise to proceedings such as are referred to in subsection (1), the Crown may pay the whole or part of the sum.
- (3) Except as provided by section 165(6), if the Crown has paid moneys by way of damages or costs in respect of a tort committed by any police officer or has paid moneys under a settlement referred to in subsection (2), the Crown may recover, in a court of competent jurisdiction, contribution from the police officer in respect of that payment.
- (4) In proceedings for contribution under subsection (3) the amount of contribution recoverable is such amount as is found by the court to be just and equitable in the circumstances.

167 Provision of legal representation

- (1) The commissioner may provide legal representation on behalf of any police officer against whom any action, claim or demand or proceeding in respect of an offence is brought or made otherwise than by or on behalf of the Crown in any of its capacities on account of any action done or omission made by the police officer acting, or purporting to act, in the execution of duty under this Act.
- (2) If it is found, or conceded, in relation to any such action, claim, demand or proceeding that the police officer was not acting in the execution of duty in doing the action or making the omission on which the action, claim, demand or proceeding is based, the commissioner may recover from the police officer the amount of costs and expenses incurred by the commissioner in providing legal representation under subsection (1) in any court of competent jurisdiction as a debt due and payable by the police officer to the commissioner and unpaid.

168 Landowner incurs no liability merely because permission given

A landowner does not incur any liability merely because the landowner provides a person with written permission to shoot on the landowner's land.

168A Particular landowners to keep permit register

- (1) This section applies to a landowner who, after the commencement of this section, provides written permission to shoot on the landowner's rural land—
 - (a) to a person or body for a fee or reward; or
 - (b) to more than 50 persons or bodies.
- (2) The landowner must keep a register (permit register) stating—
 - (a) the name and address of the person or body to whom permission was given; and

[s 168B]

- (b) the date permission was given; and
- (c) if the permission was limited by time—the day the permission ends.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

- (3) The landowner must keep the permit register while—
 - (a) a permission under subsection (1)(a) remains current; or
 - (b) more than 50 permissions under subsection (1)(b) remain current.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

- (4) For subsection (1), permission given to a body allowing its members or members of another body affiliated with the body to shoot on the landowner's rural land is taken to be a single permission.

168B Amnesty for firearms and prescribed things in particular circumstances

- (1) A person who unlawfully possesses a firearm or a prescribed thing can not be prosecuted for an offence against this Act for possession of the firearm or prescribed thing if—
 - (a) the person is taking the firearm or prescribed thing directly to, or has the firearm or prescribed thing at—
 - (i) an approved licensed dealer for the purpose of the dealer disposing of or otherwise dealing with it; or
 - (ii) a police station for the purpose of surrendering it to a police officer; and
 - (b) the person complies with any conditions prescribed by regulation for the taking of the firearm or prescribed thing to the approved licensed dealer or police station.
- (2) Subsections (3) and (4) apply if the person—
 - (a) takes the firearm or prescribed thing to an approved licensed dealer under subsection (1)(a)(i); and

- (b) does not provide the approved licensed dealer with the particulars as required under section 73(a).
 - (3) Section 73 does not apply to the approved licensed dealer.
 - (4) The approved licensed dealer must surrender the firearm or prescribed thing to a police officer.
Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.
 - (5) The commissioner may approve a licensed dealer for this section.
 - (6) The commissioner must publish the names of the approved licensed dealers on the QPS website.
 - (7) In this section—

approved licensed dealer means a licensed dealer approved by the commissioner under subsection (5).

prescribed thing means—

- (a) a magazine for a weapon; or
- (b) a category R weapon that is not a firearm; or
- (c) another thing prescribed by regulation.

168C Dealing with surrendered firearm or prescribed thing

- (1) This section applies if a person surrenders a firearm or prescribed thing under section 168B(1)(a)(ii) or (4).
- (2) On the surrender of the firearm or prescribed thing, the firearm or prescribed thing—
 - (a) becomes the property of the State; and
 - (b) is taken, for the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, chapter 21, part 3, division 7 to have been forfeited to the State.

169 Fees and penalties

All fees paid and all penalties recovered and costs incurred in relation to proceedings under this Act are to be paid and are hereby payable as prescribed by the regulations.

170 Delegations

(1) The Minister may delegate the Minister's powers under this Act to an appropriately qualified authorised officer.

(2) In this section—

an appropriately qualified authorised officer, to whom a power under this section may be delegated, means an authorised officer who has the necessary expertise or experience to exercise the power.

171 Approval of forms

The commissioner may approve forms for use under this Act.

172 Regulation-making power

(1) The Governor in Council may make regulations for the purposes of this Act.

(2) The Governor in Council may make regulations with respect to the matters mentioned in schedule 1.

(3) A regulation may provide for an offence punishable by a maximum penalty of 20 penalty units.

Part 8 Transitional provisions

Division 1 Transitional provision for Police Powers and Responsibilities and Another Act Amendment Act 2001

173 Transitional provision for Police Powers and Responsibilities and Another Act Amendment Act 2001

- (1) This section applies to a person who, immediately before the commencement of this section, possesses a category H weapon that is permanently inoperable.
- (2) The person may continue to possess the category H weapon without a licence until whichever of the following happens first—
 - (a) the person obtains a collector's licence for the weapon;
 - (b) the end of 3 months after the commencement of this section.

Division 2 Transitional provisions for Weapons (Handguns and Trafficking) Amendment Act 2003

174 Definitions for div 2

In this division—

amnesty period means the period declared under section 168B as the amnesty period for this division.

part of a prohibited handgun means a thing prescribed under a regulation that relates to a prohibited handgun.

prohibited handgun means a category H weapon that the holder of a concealable firearms licence must not possess under section 132.

175 Compensation—prohibited handguns and parts of prohibited handguns

- (1) Compensation for prohibited handguns, and parts of prohibited handguns, surrendered to the commissioner during the amnesty period is payable only to the following persons—
 - (a) a licensed dealer or licensed armourer;
 - (b) a holder of a concealable firearms licence whose reason for possessing a prohibited handgun is sports or target shooting.
- (2) However, compensation is payable only for prohibited handguns and parts of prohibited handguns for which the State may receive reimbursement under an agreement with the Commonwealth providing for compensation for the purposes of this division.
- (3) Compensation is payable for a prohibited handgun, or part of a prohibited handgun, only if it is—
 - (a) manufactured on or before 20 December 2002; and
 - (b) surrendered before or on the last day of the amnesty period.
- (4) Compensation for a surrendered prohibited handgun or part of a prohibited handgun—
 - (a) is payable in an amount and in the way provided for under a regulation; and
 - (b) is not payable other than under this section.
- (5) If a regulation does not provide for the amount of compensation payable for a particular prohibited handgun or part of a prohibited handgun, the regulation may provide for the way in which a dispute about its value is to be decided.
- (6) The commissioner may refuse to compensate a person for part of a prohibited handgun that is surrendered if the commissioner reasonably believes that the person has manufactured or imported the part for the purpose, or predominantly for the purpose, of applying for compensation under this section and not for genuine commercial sale.

- (7) For subsection (6), the following are relevant matters in forming the belief—
 - (a) the commercial demand for the part;
 - (b) the quality of the part;
 - (c) the number of parts surrendered;
 - (d) when the part was manufactured or imported.
 - (8) A regulation may provide that compensation under this section is payable only if conditions provided for under the regulation are complied with.
 - (9) A thing surrendered under this section is State property when compensation for the thing is paid under this section.

176 Compensation—other handguns and related matters

- (1) A regulation may provide for compensation for the surrender during the amnesty period of category H weapons, other than prohibited handguns for which compensation is payable under section 175, and other things or matters related to category H weapons.
- (2) A regulation may provide that compensation under subsection (1) is payable only if conditions provided for under the regulation are complied with.
- (3) A thing surrendered under this section is State property when compensation for the thing is paid under this section.

177 Possession of prohibited handguns during amnesty period

- (1) A person who, immediately before the commencement of this section, was in lawful possession of a prohibited handgun does not contravene the condition mentioned in section 132(1) if the person is in possession of the prohibited handgun during the amnesty period.

[s 178]

- (2) A person in lawful possession of a prohibited handgun under an existing licence must not use the weapon after the commencement of this section unless—
 - (a) the person is authorised to possess the weapon under section 132(2); or
 - (b) the person's genuine reason for possessing the weapon includes an occupational requirement for rural purposes.

Maximum penalty for subsection (2)—20 penalty units.

178 Licensed collectors

- (1) This section applies to a person who—
 - (a) immediately before the commencement of this section, is the holder of a collector's licence (weapons); and
 - (b) lawfully possesses 1 or more temporarily inoperable modern handguns under that licence.
- (2) The person does not contravene the condition mentioned in section 138(2) only because the person is in possession of a temporarily inoperable modern handgun during the amnesty period.
- (3) However before the end of the amnesty period, the person must—
 - (a) lawfully dispose of all temporarily inoperable modern handguns that the person possesses; or
 - (b) apply for an endorsement on the licence of the type mentioned in section 138(4); or
 - (c) otherwise apply for a licence, other than a collector's licence (weapons) that, if granted, would authorise the person to possess the temporarily inoperable modern handguns; or
 - (d) make the temporarily inoperable modern handguns permanently inoperable.

- (4) At the end of the amnesty period, neither this section nor the person's licence authorises the person to possess a temporarily inoperable modern handgun if—
 - (a) the person has not complied with subsection (3) before the end of the amnesty period; or
 - (b) the person applied for an endorsement on the licence of the type mentioned in section 138(4), or for another type of licence, but the application was refused.
 - (5) If the person applied for an endorsement on the licence of the type mentioned in section 138(4), or for another type of licence, and the application was not granted or refused before the end of the amnesty period, the person does not contravene the condition mentioned in section 138(2) if—
 - (a) the person is in possession of a temporarily inoperable modern handgun until 7 days after the person is given notice that the application is refused; and
 - (b) before the end of the 7 days mentioned in paragraph (a), the person lawfully disposes of the modern handgun.

179 Participation records for s 18B

The requirement to produce a participation record under section 18B(4)(b) does not apply to an application for renewal of a concealable firearms licence made before 1 January 2004.
