Note—

For more detail, see the definition public sector employer in the Queensland referral Act, section 3(1).

Note—

For more detail, see the definition local government sector employer in the Queensland referral Act, section 3(1).

Chapter 2 Modern employment conditions

Part 1 Preliminary

14 Definitions for chapter

In this chapter—

applicable industrial instrument means any of the following—

- a modern award;
- a certified agreement or bargaining award;
- an arbitration determination.

long term casual employee see section 15.

ordinary hours of work, for an employee, means—

- (a) the employee's ordinary hours of work as provided for under an applicable industrial instrument that applies to the employee; or
- (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply—the hours agreed by the employee and the employee's employer as the employee's ordinary hours of work.

relevant industrial instrument, in relation to an employee, means an applicable industrial instrument that applies to the employee.

short term casual employee means a casual employee, other than a long term casual employee.

15 Meaning of long term casual employee

- (1) For this chapter, a long term casual employee is a casual employee engaged by a particular employer, on a regular and systematic basis, for 1 or more periods of employment during the 1 year immediately before the employee seeks to access an entitlement under this chapter.
- (2) The periods of employment mentioned in subsection (1) include periods before and after the commencement of this section.

Part 2 Interaction of elements of industrial relations system

16 What part is about

This part explains—

- (a) how elements of the industrial relations system interact with each other; and

[s 17]

- (b) how particular elements of the industrial relations system prevail over other elements.

17 Relationship between Queensland Employment Standards and other laws

The Queensland Employment Standards have effect despite an inconsistency with another law of the State, unless the other law provides an employee with a benefit that is at least as favourable for the employee as the Queensland Employment Standards.

18 Relationship between Queensland Employment Standards and industrial instruments

- (1) An industrial instrument may not include a provision that displaces, or is otherwise inconsistent with, the Queensland Employment Standards, unless the provision is at least as favourable for an employee as the Queensland Employment Standards.
- (2) The Queensland Employment Standards have effect subject to provisions included in an industrial instrument mentioned in subsection (1).

19 Relationship of modern award with certified agreement

- (1) A modern award may apply to an employee in relation to particular employment at the same time as a certified agreement applies to the employee in relation to the employment.
- (2) If both a modern award and certified agreement apply to an employee in relation to particular employment, the certified agreement prevails to the extent of any inconsistency.
- (3) While a project agreement operates, it operates to the exclusion of any certified agreement.

20 Relationship of modern award with contract of service

- (1) A modern award prevails over a relevant contract to the extent of any inconsistency.
- (2) The contract must be interpreted, and takes effect, as if it were amended to the extent necessary to make the contract consistent with the modern award.
- (3) However, there is no inconsistency only because the contract provides for employment conditions at least as favourable for the employee as the modern award.
- (4) In this section—
relevant contract means a contract of service that is—
 - (a) in force when the modern award comes into operation; or
 - (b) made while the modern award is in operation.

 - (a) if the employee is, immediately before taking the leave, being paid at a higher rate than the ordinary rate—the higher rate;
 - (b) otherwise—the ordinary rate being paid to the employee immediately before the leave is taken.
- (2) An employer must not reduce an employee's usual rate, before an employee starts long service leave, with intent to avoid the employer's obligation under subsection (1)(a).

- (4) In this section—

$$\frac{C}{52.179} \times W = DAC$$

where—

C means the total commission payable to the employee in the 1 year before the leave is taken.

W means the number of weeks leave for which payment is being made.

 - (d) the employee would, apart from this section, be taken to be engaged in casual employment; or

- (4) In working out the length of the employee's continuous service—
- (a) the following service must not be taken into account—
 - (i) service by the employee before 23 June 1990;
 - (ii) if the employee obtained the entitlement only because of the enactment of the repealed Industrial Relations Reform Act 1994, section 17—the employee's service between 23 June 1990 and 30 March 1994; and

- (1) This section applies to a casual employee or regular part-time employee.
- (2) The employer may agree with the employee that the employee’s entitlement to long service leave may be taken in the form of its full-time equivalent.

Example—

An employee—

105 Payment for long service leave

- (1) This section applies to an employee who is entitled to long service leave if the employee was a casual employee or regular part-time employee at any time during the employee’s continuous service to which the long service leave relates.
- (2) The minimum amount payable to the employee for long service leave is worked out using the formula—

$$\frac{\text{actual service}}{52} \times \frac{8.6667}{10} \times \text{hourly rate}$$

Example—

An employee who worked 15,600 ordinary working hours over a 10-year period and is being paid an hourly rate of $12 is entitled to be paid—

$$\textit{entitlement} \times \frac{\textit{actual service}}{10}$$

where—

entitlement means the entitlement to long service leave of an employee under section 95.

service means actual service expressed as a part of a year.

Example—

An employee who worked half of each year, over a 10-year period, is entitled to half the entitlement, that is, half of 8.6667 weeks leave ($8.6667 \times \frac{1}{2} = 4.3334$).

- (2) In working out the length of the employee's continuous service—
 - (a) service with the employer of the employee engaged in harvesting sugar cane or farm work in the sugar industry before 23 June 1990 must not be taken into account; and
 - (b) a period between seasons when the employee is not employed by the employer must be taken into account if—
 - (i) in 1 season—the employee's service with the employer continued until the end of the season or until an earlier day when the employee's employment was terminated by the employer; and
 - (ii) in the next season—the employee's service with the same employer started on the season's opening or on a later day in the season when the employer required the employee to start employment.
- (3) If the employee is employed by the employer between seasons, the part of the period between seasons when the employee is employed must be taken into account in working out the length of the employee's actual service.

119 Entitlement

- (1) If the employee is required to attend for jury service, the employee—
 - (a) is entitled to take leave (jury service leave) to perform jury service; and
 - (b) must, as soon as is practicable, tell the employer—
 - (i) the employee is required to attend for jury service; and
 - (ii) about the period for which the employee is required to perform jury service.
- (2) If the employee is given an attendance document in relation to the jury service, the employee must give the employer the document.

- (3) For the period of jury service leave, the employer must pay the employee the difference between the following—
 - (a) the amount stated in the employee's attendance document as the amount received as remuneration and allowances, other than meal allowances;
 - (b) the ordinary rate the employee would have been paid if the employee had not taken jury service leave.
- (4) The amount payable under subsection (3) must be paid on or before the first pay day that is practicable after the employee gives the employer the employee's attendance document.
- (5) Subsection (6) applies if—
 - (a) the employee is not required to serve on a jury for a day or part of a day after attending for jury service; and
 - (b) the employee would ordinarily be working for all or part of the remaining day.
- (6) The employee must, if practicable, present for work at the earliest reasonable opportunity.

- (b) an employee engaged by the hour or day;
- (c) an employee engaged for a specific period or task;

 - (i) a period of probation that is shorter than the probationary period; or
 - (ii) no period of probation;
- (e) an employee serving a period of probation that is longer than the probationary period if the period decided by written agreement between the employee and employer before the employment started, is a reasonable period having regard to the nature and circumstances of the employment;

121 What employer must do to dismiss employee

- (1) An employer may dismiss an employee only if—
 - (a) the employee has been—
 - (i) given the period of notice required by section 123; or
 - (ii) paid the compensation required by section 124; or
 - (b) the employee engages in misconduct of a type that would make it unreasonable to require the employer to continue the employment during the period of notice.
- (2) For subsection (1)(b), misconduct includes the following—
 - (a) theft;
 - (b) assault;
 - (c) fraud;
 - (d) other misconduct prescribed by regulation.
- (3) However, subsection (1)(b) does not apply if the employee can show that, in the circumstances, the conduct was not conduct that made it unreasonable to continue the employment during the period of notice.

122 Employer's failure to give notice or pay compensation

- (1) If an employer dismisses an employee to whom section 121(1)(a) applies without giving the required notice or paying the required compensation—
 - (a) on an application under section 317—the commission may order the employer to pay the employee the compensation that the employer was required to pay under section 124; or

- (b) otherwise—the commission or a magistrate may order the employer to pay the employee the compensation the employer was required to pay under section 124.
- (2) An application for an order under subsection (1)(a) may be made by—
 - (a) the employee who has been dismissed; or
 - (b) with the employee’s consent—an organisation whose rules entitle the organisation to represent the employee’s industrial interests; or
 - (c) an inspector.
- (3) The application must be made within 6 years after the day on which the employee is dismissed.
- (4) A regulation may exclude from the operation of this section dismissals happening in stated circumstances that relate to the transfer of the employer’s business.

123 Minimum period of notice required from employers

- (1) The minimum period of notice is—
 - (a) if the employee’s continuous service is—
 - (i) not more than 1 year—1 week; and
 - (ii) more than 1 year, but not more than 3 years—2 weeks; and
 - (iii) more than 3 years, but not more than 5 years—3 weeks; and

- (2) A regulation may prescribe matters that must be disregarded when working out continuous service under subsection (1).

124 Minimum amount of compensation required

- (1) The minimum compensation payable to an employee is at least equal to the total of the amounts the employer would have been liable to pay the employee if the employee's employment had continued until the end of the required notice period.
- (2) The total must be worked out on the basis of—
 - (a) the ordinary working hours worked by the employee; and
 - (b) the amounts payable to the employee for the hours, including, for example, allowances, loadings and penalties; and
 - (c) any other amounts payable under the employee's employment contract.
- (3) A regulation may prescribe the amount that is taken to be payable, or how to work out the amount, under an employment contract mentioned in subsection (2)(c), to an employee whose wages before dismissal were decided wholly or partly on the basis of commission or piece rates.

Subdivision 2 Redundancy pay

125 Application of this subdivision

- (1) This subdivision applies to an employee if—
 - (a) an applicable industrial instrument applies to the employee; and
 - (b) the employee's employment is terminated because the employer no longer requires the job done by the employee to be done by anyone.
- (2) However, this subdivision does not apply if the employee's employment is terminated because of the ordinary and customary turnover of labour.

[s 126]

- (3) Also, this subdivision does not apply to any of the following employees—
- (a) a casual employee;
 - (b) an employee whose period of continuous service with the employer is less than 1 year;
 - (c) an employee employed for a fixed period, for a fixed task, or for the duration of a particular season;
 - (d) an employee participating in a labour market program;
 - (e) another employee prescribed by regulation or an applicable industrial instrument as an employee to whom this division does not apply.

Note—

In relation to an employee whose employment is terminated due to the transfer of the employee’s calling, see part 4.

- (4) Subsection (3)(c) does not prevent this subdivision applying to an employee if a substantial reason for employing the employee as mentioned in the subsection was to avoid the application of this division.

126 Entitlement to redundancy pay

- (1) The employee is entitled to be paid an amount (redundancy pay) equal to the total amount payable to the employee for the redundancy pay period worked out using the following table—

Employee’s years of continuous service with the employer	Redundancy pay period at least 1 year but not more than 2 years	4 weeks
more than 2 years but not more than 3 years	6 weeks
more than 3 years but not more than 4 years	7 weeks
more than 4 years but not more than 5 years	8 weeks
more than 5 years but not more than 6 years	9 weeks

Employee's years of continuous service with the employer	Redundancy pay period
more than 6 years but not more than 7 years	10 weeks
more than 7 years but not more than 8 years	11 weeks
more than 8 years but not more than 9 years	12 weeks
more than 9 years but not more than 10 years	13 weeks
more than 10 years but not more than 11 years	14 weeks
more than 11 years but not more than 12 years	15 weeks
more than 12 years	16 weeks

- (2) The amount of the employee's redundancy pay must be worked out on the basis of the employee's weeks pay for the employee's ordinary hours of work.
- (3) This section applies subject to section 127.

127 Variation of redundancy pay by commission

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) an employee is entitled under this division to be paid an amount of redundancy pay; and
 - (b) the employer—
 - (i) obtains other acceptable employment for the employee; or
 - (ii) can not pay the amount.
- (2) On application by the employer, the commission may make an order reducing the amount of the redundancy pay to a stated amount the commission considers appropriate.
- (3) For subsection (2), the amount may be zero.
- (4) The amount of redundancy pay to which the employee is entitled under this division is the amount stated in the order.

Division 14 Information statements

128 Chief executive to prepare and publish information statement

- (2) However, subsection (1) does not apply to an employer if—
 - (a) the employee starts working for the employer for a second time; and

- (b) the employer has given the information statement and the document to the employee in the previous 12 months.

Part 4 Continuity of service and employment

130 Definitions for part

In this part—service includes employment.

transferred employee see section 132(1).

131 How part applies

- (1) This part applies for working out an employee's rights and entitlements under this chapter, an applicable industrial instrument or a federal industrial instrument by prescribing when the employee's continuity of service is not broken.
- (2) An employee is not entitled to claim the benefit of a right or entitlement more than once for the same period of service.
- (3) However, when working out the minimum period of notice required to be given under section 123 to a transferred employee, a period of notice previously given in relation to the transfer of the calling, whether given before or after the commencement of this subsection, is to be disregarded.

132 Continuity of service—transfer of calling

- (1) This section applies to a person (a transferred employee) who—
 - (a) becomes an employee of an employer (the new employer) because of the transfer of a calling to the new

- employer from another employer (the former employer); or
- (b) is dismissed by an employer (also the former employer) before the transfer of a calling if—
 - (i) the person is employed by another employer (also the new employer) after the transfer of a calling; and
 - (ii) the employee—
 - (A) was dismissed by the former employer within 1 month immediately before the transfer; and
 - (B) is re-employed by the new employer within 3 months after the dismissal.
- (2) The transfer of the calling is taken not to break the transferred employee's continuity of service.
 - (3) A period of service with the former employer, including service before the commencement, is taken to be a period of service with the new employer.
 - (4) In relation to the transfer, the transferred employee is not an employee to whom part 3, division 13, subdivision 2 applies, unless an applicable industrial instrument mentioned in section 125(1)(a) provides otherwise.
 - (5) In this section—
dismissed includes stood down.

133 Continuity of service—apprentices or trainees

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) an employee, while employed with the employer, starts an apprenticeship or traineeship; or
 - (b) the employer—

- (i) continues to employ an apprentice or trainee (the employee) on the completion of the apprenticeship or traineeship; or
 - (ii) re-employs the employee within 3 months after completion of the employee's apprenticeship or traineeship.
- (2) The period of the apprenticeship or traineeship does not break the employee's continuity of service.

134 Continuity of service—generally

- (1) Service with a partnership and an employer who was, or becomes, a member of the partnership is taken to be continuous service with the same employer.
- (2) An employee's continuity of service with an employer is not broken if the employee's service is temporarily lent or let on hire by the employer to another employer.
- (3) An employee's continuity of service with an employer is not broken by an absence, including through illness or injury—
 - (a) on paid leave approved by the employer; or
 - (b) on unpaid leave approved by the employer.
- (4) An employee's continuity of service with an employer is not broken if—
 - (a) the employee's employment is terminated by the employer or employee because of illness or injury; and
 - (b) the employer re-employs the employee; and
 - (c) the employee has not been employed in a calling, whether on the employee's own account or as an employee, between the termination and the re-employment.
- (5) An employee's continuity of service with an employer is not broken if—

- (a) the employee's employment is terminated by the employer or employee; and
 - (b) the employer re-employs the employee within 3 months after the termination.
- (6) An employee's continuity of service with an employer is not broken if—
 - (a) the employee's employment is interrupted or terminated by the employer with intent to avoid an obligation under this part, an applicable industrial instrument or employment contract; or
 - (b) the employee's employment is interrupted or terminated by the employer as a direct or indirect result of an industrial dispute, and the employer re-employs the employee.
- (7) An employee's continuity of service is not broken if—
 - (a) the employee's employment is interrupted or terminated by the employer because of slackness of trade or business; and
 - (b) the employer re-employs the employee.
- (8) Service with a corporation and any of the corporation's subsidiaries is taken to be continuous service with the same employer.
- (9) However, a period for which the employee is away from work under subsection (3)(b), (4), (5), (6)(b) or (7) is not service under this part unless—
 - (a) this Act or an applicable industrial instrument provides otherwise; or
 - (b) the commission directs otherwise.
- (10) In this section—
 - subsidiary* has the meaning given by the Corporations Act.
 - terminate* includes stand down.

Part 5 Wages and employment conditions for apprentices and trainees

135 Apprentice's and trainee's employment conditions

- (1) An apprentice or trainee is entitled to the same employment conditions as those fixed by the industrial instrument applicable to employees in the workplace where the apprentice or trainee is employed.
- (2) An apprentice or trainee is entitled to wages at—
 - (a) if an industrial instrument applying to employees in the workplace where the apprentice or trainee is employed or placed states a rate payable to apprentices or trainees—the rate stated in the instrument; or
 - (b) otherwise—the rate fixed by the commission, being a proportion of the wages payable for the relevant calling to employees in the workplace where the apprentice or trainee is employed or placed.

Examples—

- 1 An apprentice plumber is placed by a group training organisation in the workplace of a host employer where a federal award applies. The apprentice is entitled to the rate of wages stated in the federal award rather than a State award.
 - 2 An apprentice carpenter is placed by a group training organisation in the workplace of a host employer where a certified agreement applies. The certified agreement does not state the rate of wages payable to an apprentice. The apprentice is entitled to wages at the rate fixed by the commission, being a proportion of the wages payable to a qualified carpenter under the certified agreement.
- (3) If an industrial instrument provides for a tradesperson in a calling to be paid an allowance in addition to wages, an apprentice in the calling is entitled to be paid—
 - (a) if, under the instrument, the allowance is taken to be part of the tradesperson's wages—the percentage of the allowance that the apprentice's wages bear to the tradesperson's wages; or

- (b) if, under the instrument, the allowance is not taken to be part of the tradesperson's wages—the full allowance.
- (4) If an industrial instrument provides for a tradesperson in a calling to be paid an allowance that is assessed as a percentage of the tradesperson's wages, an apprentice in the calling is entitled to be paid the percentage of the allowance that the apprentice's wages bear to the tradesperson's wages.
- (5) Subsection (4) applies whether or not, under the instrument, the allowance is taken to be part of the tradesperson's wages.
- (6) In this section—

industrial instrument includes a federal industrial instrument.

workplace, for an apprentice or trainee employed by a group training organisation, includes the workplace of the host employer with whom the apprentice or trainee is placed.

136 Order setting minimum wages and conditions

 - (a) the age, competency, or method of progression through training of the apprentices or trainees; and
 - (b) an industrial instrument.
- (3) Despite section 135, if there is an inconsistency between an order and an industrial instrument (other than a certified agreement), the order prevails to the extent of the inconsistency.

- (4) The commission may make an order—
 - (a) of the commission's own initiative; or
 - (b) on application by—
 - (i) the chief executive (training); or

 - (iv) the Minister; or
 - (v) another entity with an interest in apprentices.
- (4) An employer must not contravene an order.

- (5) An offence against subsection (4) may consist of—
 - (a) a single failure to provide the apprentice with the relevant tools, or tool allowance, for a level of the apprenticeship; or
 - (b) a failure to provide the apprentice with the relevant tools, or tool allowance, for the term of the apprenticeship.
- (6) The offence starts on the day of the failure and continues until the apprentice has been provided with the relevant tools or tool allowance.
- (7) A complaint, or a series of complaints, may be made for any period over which the offence continues.
- (8) If a magistrate finds an employer guilty of an offence against subsection (4), the magistrate must, in addition to a penalty the magistrate may impose, order the employer to—
 - (a) provide the apprentice with the tools required to be provided under the commission’s order; or
 - (b) pay to the Magistrates Court the amount—
 - (i) stated in the commission’s order; or
 - (ii) equivalent to the cost of the tools required to be provided under the commission’s order.

- (a) the wages that would have been payable under the relevant industrial instrument had the employee continued to be employed as an apprentice or trainee;
 - (b) the wages payable under the relevant industrial instrument applicable to the type of work the employee performed.
- (3) This section does not apply to an employee if a training contract between the employee and employer has been sent to the chief executive (training) for registration.

139 Reinstatement to previous position

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) an apprenticeship or traineeship is started with an employer; and
 - (b) immediately before the apprenticeship or traineeship started, the person training as the apprentice or trainee

- was employed in a position (the previous position) by the employer; and
- (c) any of the following events happen—
 - (i) the chief executive (training) refuses to register the person's training contract;
 - (ii) the training contract is cancelled;
 - (iii) the apprenticeship or traineeship ends before the probationary period for the apprenticeship or traineeship ends;
 - (iv) the person completes the apprenticeship or traineeship.
 - (2) The person is taken to be immediately reinstated with the employer in the person's previous position.
 - (3) The reinstated person is not excluded from the operation of chapter 8, part 2 only because of the apprenticeship or traineeship.

Part 6 Labour market programs

140 Orders for wages and employment conditions

- (1) The commission may make an order fixing wages and employment conditions for employees who participate in a labour market program.
- (2) In making an order, the commission may consider any matter the commission considers relevant, including—
 - (a) the objectives of the program; and
 - (b) any attribute of the participants that affects their ability to get employment, including, for example—
 - (i) the age and competency of the participants; and
 - (ii) any disability or incapacity of the participants; and

- (c) the kind of work done in the program; and
 - (d) the experience to be gained by the participants; and
 - (e) any relevant industrial instrument; and
 - (f) any remuneration or benefit the participants are receiving from the Commonwealth or the State.
- (3) The commission may make an order—
- (a) of the commission's own initiative; or
 - (b) on application by—
 - (i) the chief executive (training); or
 - (ii) the Minister.

- (3) For subsection (2), the rate payable to a benchmark employee is to be adjusted to take into account the proportionate difference, as decided by the approving authority, between the productive time of—
 - (a) a training employee; and
 - (b) a benchmark employee.
- (4) Subsection (5) applies if the proposed bargaining instrument adopts, as the qualification for a wage level, a criterion decided by the approving authority (the decided criterion) instead of a specified criterion applying under the relevant award, designated award or order (the award criterion).
- (5) For this section, the relevant award, designated award or order is taken to have effect as if the decided criterion were substituted for the award criterion.

The Work Health and Safety Act 2011, section 115 and a provision of a corresponding WHS law (within the meaning of that Act) that corresponds to section 115 of that Act do not apply in relation to an application under section 273.

Note—

Ordinarily, if an employee who is a worker under the Work Health and Safety Act 2011 makes an application under section 273 for an order to stop the worker from being bullied in the workplace, section 115 of that Act and a corresponding provision of a corresponding WHS law would prohibit a proceeding from being commenced, or an application from being made or continued, under that law in relation to the bullying. This section removes that prohibition.

After investigating the complaint, the inspector must give the registrar a written report on the findings of the investigation (the investigation report).

866 Examination of organisation's accounting records

- (1) The investigation report may include a recommendation to the registrar that an auditor be appointed to examine the organisation's accounting records for a financial year or another period if the inspector considers—

The costs of an audit under this division are payable by the State.

Division 3 Appointment of administrator

869 Definition for division

In this division—

audit complaint report see section 866(2)(b).

870 Court may appoint administrator

- (1) This section applies if the court is reasonably satisfied, on the basis of an investigation report or audit complaint report, that—

[s 871]

- (a) an organisation, or a branch of an organisation, has stopped functioning effectively; and
 - (b) there are no effective means under the organisation's rules by which the organisation or branch can function effectively.
- (2) Subject to section 871, the court may, on application by the Minister or the registrar, appoint an appropriately qualified person as administrator of the organisation or branch of the organisation.

871 Injustice to organisation or branch and interests of members

The court must not appoint an administrator for an organisation, or a branch of an organisation, unless the court is satisfied—

- (a) the appointment of an administrator would not do substantial injustice to the organisation or branch; and
- (b) it is in the interests of the members of the organisation or branch that the affairs of the organisation or branch be conducted by an administrator.

872 Primary function of administrator

- (1) An administrator for an organisation or a branch of an organisation has, during the administrator's term of office and to the exclusion of any other person, the function of the conduct and management of the affairs of the organisation or branch.
- (2) However, the function of the administrator may be limited by the administrator's notice of appointment.

873 Additional functions of administrator

The administrator for an organisation or a branch of an organisation has the following additional functions—

876 Protection from liability

- (1) An administrator for an organisation or a branch of an organisation is not civilly liable for an act done, or omission made, honestly and without negligence under this Act.
- (2) If subsection (1) prevents civil liability attaching to a person, the liability attaches instead to the State.

Division 2 General deregistration provisions

Subdivision 1 Bringing deregistration proceedings

878 General deregistration grounds

The full bench may order the deregistration of an organisation (a deregistration order) on any of the following grounds—

- (a) achieving the objects of the Act has been prevented by—
 - (i) the organisation’s or its members’ continued contravention of an order of the commission or an industrial instrument (an instrument); or
 - (ii) the organisation’s continued failure to ensure its members do not contravene an instrument; or
 - (iii) any other conduct by the organisation or its members;
- (b) the organisation or its members have been, or are, engaging in industrial action that has, is having, or is likely, to have a substantial adverse effect on the safety, health or welfare of the community or a part of the community;
- (c) the organisation was registered by mistake;
- (d) the organisation’s rules—
 - (i) do not allow a person who is eligible to become a member of the organisation to join it with reasonable ease; or
 - (ii) impose unreasonable conditions on a person’s continuing membership of the organisation; or
 - (iii) are harsh or oppressive; or

- (iv) provide for the organisation to end on the happening of an event and the event has happened;
- (e) the administration of the organisation's rules is harsh or oppressive;
- (f) a majority of the organisation's members have agreed to its deregistration;
- (g) if the organisation is an employee organisation, it is not free from control by, or improper influence from an employer, an employer association or an employer organisation.

879 Who may bring deregistration proceedings

- (1) Each of the following may apply to the full bench for a deregistration order on a ground mentioned in section 878—
 - (a) an organisation;
 - (b) the Minister;
 - (c) the registrar;
 - (d) another person given leave by the full bench.
- (2) The full bench may give leave only if it considers the person has sufficient interest to make the application.
- (3) The full bench may, of its own initiative, bring proceedings for a deregistration order—
 - (a) on a ground mentioned in section 878(c) or (d)(iv); or
 - (b) because the organisation has failed to comply with a demarcation dispute undertaking and amendment of its eligibility rules is inappropriate.
- (4) The registrar may also apply for a deregistration order on the ground the organisation is defunct.

Subdivision 2 Deciding deregistration proceedings

880 Hearing on ground other than industrial conduct

If a ground on which the proceedings are based includes a ground other than an industrial conduct ground, the full bench may make a deregistration order if satisfied the ground has been made out.

881 Hearing on industrial conduct ground

- (1) This section applies if at the hearing of the application a ground on which the proceedings are based is an industrial conduct ground.
- (2) The full bench must make a deregistration order if it—
 - (a) finds the ground has been made out; and
 - (b) does not consider the deregistration of the organisation unjust, after considering—
 - (i) the significance of the circumstances forming the ground; and
 - (ii) the action taken by or against the organisation about the ground.
- (3) However, if the full bench finds the industrial conduct ground is made out entirely or mainly because of conduct by a section or class of the organisation's membership, it may instead of making a deregistration order—
 - (a) order amendments of the organisation's eligibility rules to exclude persons from the section or class from membership eligibility; or
 - (b) exclude a stated person from the organisation's membership.

- (4) A deregistration order may also prohibit the deregistered organisation from applying for registration before a stated day.

882 Deferral of deregistration for industrial conduct

- (1) This section applies if the full bench must, apart from this section, make a deregistration order under section 881.
- (2) The full bench may defer its decision on making the deregistration order and make an order (a deferral order)—
- (a) suspending to a stated extent, the rights, privileges or capacities of the organisation or all or any of its members as members, under—
 - (i) this Act; or
 - (ii) an order of the commission; or
 - (iii) an award or certified agreement; or
 - (b) directing how a suspended right, privilege or capacity may be exercised; or
 - (c) restricting the organisation or its branches in using their funds or property and controlling the funds or property to enforce the restriction.
- (3) If a deferral order is made, the full bench must defer its decision on making the deregistration order until—
- (a) if a party to the proceedings applies, the court considers it is just to make the decision considering—
 - (i) evidence given about compliance with the order; and
 - (ii) other relevant circumstances; or
 - (b) the order ends.
- (4) A deferral order has effect despite the rules of the organisation or its branches.

883 When deferral order ends

- (1) A deferral order ends—
 - (a) 6 months after it takes effect, if the full bench has not extended the order before that time; or
 - (b) if the full bench has extended the order—at the end of the extension; or
 - (c) if it is discharged by the full bench.
- (2) The full bench may discharge or extend a deferral order only on the application of a party to the deregistration proceedings.
- (3) An application for an extension may only be made before the deferral order ends.
- (4) If an application for an extension is made before the deferral order ends, the order is taken to be extended until the application is decided by the full bench.

884 Incidental orders or directions

If the full bench makes a deregistration order, it may also make—

- (a) an order or direction it considers appropriate to give effect to the deregistration; or
- (b) an order under section 892(2), whether or not an application has been made for the order.

Division 3 Small organisations

885 Commission may review

The commission may review an organisation to inquire whether the organisation is or may be a small organisation.

886 Deregistration proceedings by commission

- (1) If the commission considers an organisation is or may be a small organisation, it may bring deregistration proceedings under this division against the organisation.
- (2) However, the commission must not bring proceedings under this division more than once a year against the same organisation.

887 Deciding proceedings

- (1) The commission must make a deregistration order if satisfied the organisation is a small organisation.
- (2) However, the commission may decide not to make the order if satisfied there are special circumstances and the organisation's continued registration is in the public interest.

Example of special circumstances—

The organisation is an employee organisation and the commission is satisfied the organisation will in the near future, if its registration is continued, have more than 20 members who are employees.

Division 4 Effects of deregistration

888 Application and purpose of division

- (1) This division applies on the making of a deregistration order.
- (2) This division provides for the effects of the order on the deregistered organisation under the order and on other persons.

889 When deregistration takes effect

- (1) The deregistered organisation stops being an organisation when the deregistration order is made.
- (2) The registrar must record the deregistration of the organisation and date of the order in the register.

890 Effect on corporate status

- (1) If the deregistered organisation was a corporation under another law, the deregistered organisation continues to be incorporated, but only under the other law.
- (2) If the deregistered organisation was incorporated only because of its registration—
 - (a) it stops being incorporated and becomes an association; and
 - (b) its name is taken to be changed to omit the words required to be included in its registered name under section 612(1); and
 - (c) its rules continue in force to the extent the rules can still be carried out or complied with.

891 No release of liabilities

The deregistration of the organisation does not act to satisfy a liability or penalty incurred by the deregistered organisation or any of its members before the deregistration.

892 Effect on property

- (1) If the deregistered organisation was incorporated only because of its registration, property owned by it immediately before the deregistration must be—
 - (a) held and used under its rules, to the extent the rules can still be carried out or complied with; and
 - (b) applied for the purposes of the deregistered organisation under its rules.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), the full bench may, if an interested person applies, make an order it considers appropriate to satisfy the deregistered organisation's liabilities from the property.
- (3) In this section—

rules of the deregistered organisation means its rules as in force immediately before its deregistration.

893 Effect on certain instruments

- (1) If an award, order of the commission or certified agreement (the instrument) bound the deregistered organisation and its members before the deregistration of the organisation—
 - (a) from the deregistration, the deregistered organisation and its members do not have the right to a benefit under the instrument; and
 - (b) the instrument stops having any effect for the deregistered organisation 21 days after the deregistration.
- (2) Despite subsection (1)(b), the commission may make an order it considers appropriate about the effect, if any, of the instrument on the deregistered organisation and its members.

Part 17 Miscellaneous

Schedule 4 Application of Act to section 946

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Definitions for schedule

In this schedule—

chief executive means the chief executive of the department in which the Hospitals and Health Boards Act 2011 is administered.

health service employee see the Hospitals and Health Boards Act 2011, schedule 2.

health system employer means—

- (a) the department in which the Hospitals and Health Boards Act 2011 is administered; or
- (b) a prescribed Service.

2 Chief executive to be employer for particular purposes

- (1) This section applies to a health service employee employed by a prescribed Service.
- (2) For chapters 3 to 6, the chief executive is taken to be the employer of the employee instead of the prescribed Service.

Part 2 Modification of ch 3—Modern awards

3 Modern award covers prescribed Services and employees

- (1) This section applies to modern awards applying to health service employees employed by a prescribed Service.
- (2) Despite the chief executive being a party to the modern award, the award covers prescribed Services and their employees.

Part 3 Modification of chapter 4—Collective bargaining

4 How s 174 (Peace obligation period to assist negotiations) applies

- (1) This section applies to negotiations between the chief executive and the health service employees employed by a prescribed Service or an employee organisation representing the employees.
- (2) For section 174, the prescribed Service has the same obligations as the negotiating parties during the peace obligation period.

5 How s 175 (Application of division) applies

For section 175(1)(b), a prescribed Service is also taken to be a negotiating party if authorised by the chief executive.

6 How s 221 (Who is covered by a bargaining instrument) applies

- (1) This section applies to a certified agreement or bargaining award between the chief executive and the health service employees of the prescribed Services or an employee organisation representing the employees.

- (2) For section 221, the certified agreement or bargaining award covers the prescribed Services.

7 How s 222 (Application of bargaining instrument to successor employers) applies

Section 222(2)(b) and (c) apply subject to the modifications contained in this schedule.

Part 4 Modification of chapter 6—
Industrial disputes

8 When chief executive taken to be party to industrial dispute

- (1) This section applies if section 261(1) applies in relation to a dispute involving a prescribed Service as an employer.

Note—

For the application of this section, it does not matter whether the dispute was started by the prescribed Service.

- (2) The prescribed Service must give the chief executive written notice of the dispute—
- (a) at the same time as the registrar is first given notice of the dispute under section 261(2) or when the prescribed Service first becomes aware the registrar has been given notice under that section; and
 - (b) in a way mentioned in section 261(3).
- (3) The chief executive is taken to be a party for proceedings for the dispute instead of the prescribed Service unless the chief executive, or an authorised delegate of the chief executive, gives the prescribed Service written notice that the prescribed Service is to be a party to the dispute.
- (4) In deciding whether to give a written notice under subsection (3), the chief executive is to have regard to whether the subject of the dispute may affect the terms and conditions of employment of health service employees in more than 1 health system employer.

- (5) If the prescribed Service is to be a party to the dispute, the prescribed Service must give the commission a copy of the written notice given by the chief executive or authorised delegate under subsection (3) as soon as practicable after receiving the notice.

9 When chief executive may intervene in industrial dispute

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) the chief executive has given a prescribed Service written notice under section 8(3) of this schedule that the prescribed Service is to be a party to an industrial dispute; and
 - (b) during the proceedings the chief executive considers the subject of the dispute may affect the terms and conditions of employment of health service employees in more than 1 health system employer.
- (2) The chief executive may intervene in the proceedings.
- (3) On intervention, the chief executive becomes a party to the proceedings.

Part 5 Modification of chapter 8—
Rights and responsibilities of employees, employers, organisations etc.

10 How s 320 (Matters to be considered in deciding an application) applies

- (1) This section applies if the dismissal of a health service employee by a health system employer relates to the employee's conduct, capacity or performance at another health system employer.

- (2) For section 320, the commission may decide that a dismissal was not harsh, unjust or unreasonable even though the dismissal related to the employee's conduct, capacity or performance at another health system employer.

Part 6 Modification of other provisions

11 Who makes application to commission as employer

- (1) This section applies to a provision of this Act (other than a provision of chapters 3 to 6) under which an application may be made to the commission by an employer about a matter.
- (2) If the application relates to health service employees employed by a prescribed Service, the chief executive is taken to be the employer instead of the prescribed Service and may make the application for the matter.
- (3) However, the chief executive may give the prescribed Service written notice that the prescribed Service may make the application as the employer.
- (4) In deciding whether to give a written notice under subsection (3), the chief executive must have regard to whether the subject of the application may affect the terms and conditions of employment of health service employees in more than 1 health system employer.
- (5) If the prescribed Service makes the application, the prescribed Service must give the commission a copy of the chief executive's written notice under subsection (3) when making the application.

12 Who is party to proceedings as employer before commission

- (1) This section applies to a proceeding in the commission for a matter (other than a proceeding under chapters 3 to 6) if the proceeding relates to health service employees employed by a prescribed Service.

- (2) The chief executive is taken to be the employer for the proceeding instead of the prescribed Service unless—
 - (a) the chief executive has given written notice under section 11(3) of this schedule that a prescribed Service may make application for a matter the subject of the proceeding; or
 - (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply—the chief executive gives the prescribed Service written notice that the prescribed Service is the employer for the proceeding.
- (3) In deciding whether to give a written notice under subsection (2)(b), the chief executive must have regard to whether the matter may affect the terms and conditions of employment of health service employees in more than 1 health system employer.
- (4) The prescribed Service must give the commission a copy of the chief executive’s written notice under subsection (2)(b) as soon as practicable after receiving the notice.

13 Commission’s orders may bind prescribed Services even if chief executive is taken to be employer or party for proceeding

- (1) This section applies to a proceeding before the commission if the chief executive is a party to the proceeding because the chief executive is taken to be the employer of health service employees instead of a prescribed Service.
- (2) The commission may make orders, give directions or do anything else it may do under this Act in relation to the prescribed Service as if the prescribed Service was a party to the proceeding.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not limit the orders, directions or other action the commission may take in relation to the chief executive.
